Newsletter 1931

GM's Note

We arrived at Batu Gantung to be met by a small group of Chinesemen building a huge heap of grave decorations near the gate. They added a box shaped decoration as a sort of top knot. The monk then arrived and put on his saffron robe, the heap was lit and excited chanting rang out. It was all over in a few minutes and we were then left to observe the various family groups coming to decorate their ancestors' graves. The low black clouds overhead looked more and more threatening. The circle was called and the four guests Debbie, KGB, Bendover and Peter (Dom's brother) from PJ Animals were warmly welcomed by the 40 members present. Because of the uncertain weather it was announced that we would adjourn to Scotland Park if the rain was bad. The hare announced a medium run with no checks. The runners set off towards the cemetery and White Lion noted that with those low black clouds it would rain. The run wound its way round the hill to the very top and then looped and lunged its way back down. Much to my surprise it did not rain and the clouds just moved on, but as Sperm Whale observed when you have an alternative plan in place the rain doesn't come. Meanwhile Uncle Bee had set up a table and spread it with delicious food. After everyone was replete the circle was called. Peter was first on ice and I explained that when the Animals broke away from Mother Hash they had such a bad reputation for wrecking places that it was hard to book a coffee shop for hash and only after begging and pleading and insisting that it was the Harriettes not the Animals would they agree to the hash coming. Next on ice was Silent Man who was thanked for being the first to volunteer to join the search party last week and as his Birthday is on Saturday we wished him happy birthday. Next Frank was on ice because his birthday was last Tuesday. Then Uncle Bee, Sophia and Sam were iced for providing such good food. Charges from the floor were invited and Barry Iced me for not giving cake or presents to the birthday celebrants. Last the hare, Inspector Gadget was iced. It was agreed the location was good, the food excellent and the run good but the hare was asked to include checks on his next run. All in all, a great Thursday.

The Itch

Once upon a time lived a beautiful Queen with large breasts. Nick the Dragon Slayer obsessed over the Queen for this reason. He knew that the penalty for his desire would be death should he try to touch them, but he had to try. One day Nick revealed his secret desire to his colleague, Horatio the Physician, the King's chief doctor. Horatio thought about this and said that he could arrange for Nick to more than satisfy his desire, but it would cost him 1000 gold coins to arrange it.

Without pause Nick readily agreed to the scheme.

The next day, Horatio made a batch of itching powder and poured a little bit into the Queen's bra while she bathed. Soon after she dressed, the itching commenced and grew intense.

Upon being summoned to the Royal Chambers to address this incident,

Horatio informed the King and Queen that only a special saliva, if applied for four hours, would cure this type of itch, and that tests had shown that only the saliva of Nick would work as the antidote to the itch.

The King, eager to help his Queen, quickly summoned Nick to their chambers. Horatio then slipped Nick the antidote for the itching powder which he put into his mouth, and for the next four hours, Nick worked passionately on the Queen's large and magnificent breasts. The Queen's itching was eventually relieved, and Nick left satisfied and hailed as a hero.

Upon returning to his chamber, Nick found Horatio demanding his payment of 1,000 gold coins. With his obsession now satisfied, Nick couldn't have cared less and, knowing that Horatio could never report this matter to the King, and with a laugh told him to get lost.

The next day, Horatio slipped a massive dose of the same itching powder into the King's underwear. The King immediately summoned Nick.

The moral of the story.....
Pay your bills!
