The Burst

7th May 2009

Harriets and FTAC monthly joint run.

Scribe: Whatever (Gracie)

I arrived at Bukit Gambier, (love the views from here and the nice cool air), was running a little late, but still got there at 5.45. Already a large crowd had gathered and parking was at a premium (well if you wanted to be close to the beer truck and food that is!!) – I kept driving up the hill to the Temple and lo and behold there was a lovely parking space in front of the Temple. I was thinking that it was very nice for all the hashers to have saved me this space. The noise level was high as people prepared for the run. Circle was called and the usual bla bla bla then the Hare was finally found – just so you know it was G-Man's run but like a good Chinese businessman, he outsourced the run-setting to the FTAC, while he did the food for the Harriets (we will come to that later!!). Hare/GM for FTAC announced the run as a medium run (beautiful run he said) with no checks. So off we started – on up to the left of the Temple and then there were shouts from behind as to “who owns this car” – the guys are either building or taking down a wall at the temple – NO NOT THE HASH GUYS – so the car was in the way and in danger of being brutally assaulted – of course it was mine so I had to go back and try to retrieve my key, which Speed House had locked in the bag in her car. Luckily my good buddy SpermWhale (who cannot run at the moment – we are not sure whether it is his ankle, hip, back, neck or a combination of all three!) offered to move my car so I could get on with the run but by the time I explained what they keys looked like I was already behind (how do you explain what keys look like and any distinguishing features!!!!) – anyway I thanked him and ran to catch up with the others. Now I never was a FRB but was always somewhere in the middle but given that I have been outstation for the last year (with a run here and there when I snuck back to Penang) I am not quite as fit as I used to be. So the initial on up was not so bad – a little slippy - so on on up - a nice pleasant meander through the jungle – I passed some of the back runners and caught up with some of the mid runners but as for the FRB's – I have no idea what happened to them – every now and again these fit bst....ds from FTAC would come up behind me and being the nice person I am – I let them to go past me – what else to do – I could have sabotaged them!!! So then we go down and I know the on-up was coming soon – then the vines, thorns, maze of such intricate tree/branch work that defies nature and with nothing to grip and the foot cradlers – they just want to hang on to you – don't they? On up and on up - climbing over big tree logs and rock walls – my legs are just not long enough - on the slippy on up I was moaning and groaning much to the annoyance of my front hashers as I tried to grip the next tree that did not have thorns so that I did not do a reverse run on my butt. Finally we are at the top of the ridge – I managed to get ahead of some of my running hashers and then came to a clearing with nice sandy path and light – great I thought – this is a nice end to a not so enjoyable run. OH NO (not f....ing likely!) – that was not it – back into the jungle and then up a little – over more maze of vines etc. and then down through some rocky steps and finally into long grass and CARS!! Great – good to be back. Of course all of the earlier runners that I went ahead of were back before me, courtesy of Ronnie Tour & others with their great SCB skills. All back except for Tanga – FTAC circle was already in swing – Harriets were treated to an amazing variety of food cooked by G-Man – absolutely wonderful – really enjoyed it – thank you. While we were waiting for Tanga – Harriets had a sitting circle without any ice, speeches or charges (still waiting for Tanga (who did not have his phone with him or did not answer it???) during which Edna supplied us with Hash Hymn sheets which we all started to sing. Another hymn sheet next week – thank you Edna!!!! Tanga finally arrived down in one piece at 10pm (he seemingly did lose the paper) and a round of applause as we were all happy to see him back safe and sound. Harriets – don't let FTAC control our run setting on the joint run (outsourcing is good but not always necessary!) - still fun though. G-Man – thanks again for superb food. I know this is a long burst – but that's what you get when the VGM asks you as you are about to enter the jungle at the very last minute – maybe people will think twice about asking me again!!!!!!

Announcement from the VGM

JOKE

A woman comes home and tells her husband, 'Remember those headaches I've been having.'

'All these years? Well, they're gone.'

'No more headaches?' the husband asks, 'What happened?'

His wife replies, 'Margie referred me to a hypnotist & he told me to stand in front of a mirror, Stare at myself and repeat, 'I do not have a headache' ' I do not have a headache' ' I do not have a headache'

Well, it worked! The headaches are all gone.'

Well, that is wonderful' proclaims the husband.

His wife then says, 'You know, you haven't been exactly a ball of fire in the bedroom these last few years, why don't you go see the hypnotist and see if he can do anything for that? '

Reluctantly, the husband agrees to try it.

Following his appointment, the husband comes home, rips off his clothes, picks up his wife and carries her into the bedroom. He puts her on the bed and says, 'Don't move, I'll be right back.'

He goes into the bathroom and comes back a few minutes later and jumps into bed and makes passionate love to his wife like never before.

His wife says, 'WOW! - that was wonderful!'

The husband says, 'Don't move! I will be right back.'

He goes back into the bathroom, comes back and round two was even better than the first time.

The wife sits up and her head is spinning ' OH MY GOD ' She proclaims.

Her husband again says, 'Don't move, I'll be right back.'

With that, he goes back in the bathroom.

This time, his wife quietly follows him and there, in the bathroom, she sees him standing at the mirror and saying.

'She's not my wife '

'She's not my wife '

'She's not my wife '.

'She's not my wife '

His funeral service will be held on Saturday.
