Newsletter 1940

VGM's Note

There was another low turn out this week with 27 members and 2 guests. The morning rain and the rumours of a long Tar College run had put off the members I guess, or the Ba Chang festival. Whatever! We had live hare for the day, Mini Sausage and Lo (Bibi's brother). What a GREAT run and the food it was excellent and plentiful.

Thanks Bibi, Mini and Lo

BURST

Run No.: 1939

Venue: TAR College

Bunny: Bibi Tulips

Scribe: Rambo

At 5.30pm I arrived at the Tar College. I noticed there were less ladies than men. Take Care commented on the weather which was dark, gloomy, wet, miserable but cool. I too agreed with him. The rest of the crowd were seen preparing themselves for the run.

Bunny was at the run site whilst Hare was still up the hill. Live Hare - Shoot Him Eh! Eh! How about a roasted Hare later for dinner! Yummy, yummy ! On! On! Bunny indicated a Medium Run, to begin from the side road by the Tar College. Ball breakers and Harriet's paper indicators along the trial.

From the start to the end of the road I used my tongkat to help me get over bushes, muddy ground and slippery path. This day happened to be a rainy morning. It was wet, wet but nice cool and refreshing.

This rugged path lead us to the quarry as we took a left turn, then we came across huge drain pipe gushing out huge volumes of water. There were some smart hashers who took easy way and found a path that was less rugged and tedious. Nonetheless we all met at the same point into the jungle.

It has been a while since I track up this part of the Island. I could not recognise the path as it was covered with wild plants and lots of greenery around.

Due to the wet weather the paths were all slippery and muddy. It took me great effort to go up the steep terrain. I had a tough time getting there. Thanks to my good companion --- My Tongkat.

On down was even more difficult having to cope with more slippery paths, thorny bushes, rocks, stones and vines. As we approached the river before us I was attracted to the clear, running fresh water. Gosh! This too good resist so I took a dip in water, to clean my bum after a fall. WOW! It was really cold but nice!

Edna had an experience when she stretched out her hand to hold a branch, but was unexpectedly kissed and impregnated it with hairy thorns. Oh dear what a job try to separate the effects of this encounter.

Coming out of the jungle, on the way back to the quarry, Justbeer took some photos of the “Golden Hashers” of which two were not so golden. “Justbeer I hope you have got back your walking stick that you left behind.”

Thank to you, Bibi Tulips for organising, although it was a wet day. I found it enjoyable challenging and fun.

The best part of the hash run is looking for the cook of the day. “Hello, where are you? What’s for makan?” Hmm.....mmm I smell delicious food ---- chicken with curry gravy, vegetables served with rice.....thanks bunny for the lovely food too.

ON!.ON!.ON !

Announcement from the On Sex

(contact Justbeer)

If you have any requests/articles/information to give the members please contact me.

As you can see the Hareline is published for the year. To complete it, we do need to have your venues as soon as possible especially for the coming runs 146-156. However I would like ALL sooner rather than later. PLEASE LET ME HAVE YOUR VENUES!!!!

Just to remind you all that we have reverted to the Bunny/Hare of the day in providing plates/cutlery etc. If you still want to use your own PLEASE do so.

If you have a problem setting your run please contact a member of the committee.

Don't forget Samy's 50th birthday party at Indian Rovers Club 20th June 2009.

We had a short circle this week to thank our bunny of the day Bibi Tulips. Many thanks Bibi, a great run and plenty of food.

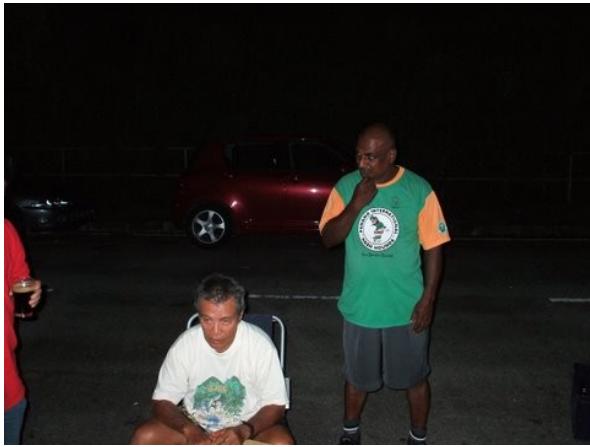

Our new Choir Mistress Edna handed out the hymn sheets and led us again down memory lane with some old hash songs. We also learned the motions to ‘Swing Low’ which is the International Hash Hymn! So we will see this coming week if you have remembered them!!! We hope to be doing more of this so that we can all learn some new hash songs or revive the old ones and have a good time doing it. If you have any favourites, please let me or Edna have them.

Here are some more photos of our members. Come and join them!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Funny Stuff!!!!

A man walks into a restaurant with a full-grown ostrich behind him.

The waitress asks for their orders. The man says, " A hamburger, fries and a coke," and turns to the ostrich, "What's yours?"

"I'll have the same," says the ostrich.

A short time later the waitress returns with the order.

"That will be £9.40 please," she says and the man reaches into his pocket and pulls out the exact amount for payment.

The next day, the man and the ostrich come again and the man says, "A hamburger, fries, and a coke.

The ostrich says, "I'll have the same."

Again the man reaches into his pocket and pays with exact amount . For a while this becomes routine until the two enter again later in the week

"The usual?" asks the waitress .

"No, this time it's a treat, so I will have a steak, baked potato, and salad" says the man.

"Yep! Same," says the ostrich.

Shortly the waitress brings the order and says, "That will be £32.62."

Once again the man pulls the exact amount out of his pocket and places it on the table.

The waitress can't hold back her curiosity any longer. "Excuse me, sir. How do you manage to always come up with the exact money from your pocket every time?"

"Well," says the man, "several years ago I was clearing the attic and found an old lamp. When I rubbed it a Genie appeared and offered me two wishes.

My first wish was that if I ever had to pay for anything, I would just put my hand in my pocket and the right amount of money would always be there."

"That's brilliant!" says the waitress. "Most people would wish for a couple of million pounds or something, but you'll always be as rich as you want for as long as you live!"

"That's right. Whether it's a pint of milk or a Rolls Royce, the exact money is always there," says the man.

The waitress asks, "But, sir, what's with the ostrich?"

The man sighs, pauses, and replies, "My second wish was for a tall bird with a big arse and long legs who agrees with everything I say."
