GM'S notes

Hi all Hashers,

Thursday was one of those overcast days with one hundred percent humidity and intermittent heavy downpours but by the time we reached TAR College at least the rain had stopped.

There was a good turnout of 48 runners and five guests. When the circle was called we welcomed the guests Chiang, Jean Pierre and Ivy, with Mark (Kissing Her) and Francoise (Kissing Me) arriving later. The hare, Marks and Spencer told us to take torches as it was a medium to long run and that it was a simple run, no checks.

The pack set off along the usual track and the front runners made a few blips near the beginning because the wet paper on the ground was difficult to see.

Basically the run was a right hand spiral up to the top and then a right hand spiral down to the bottom. It was more interesting than that sounds as it went along a bit up a bit along a bit etc. The hill behind TAR college contains the quarry so it was no surprise to find many bare slippery boulders to be negotiated. A lot of the uphill scramble was very slippery and as the trail was littered with thorns we all came back covered in war wounds.

Some of the uphill stretch was new to me and it is always more fun to do a route that is different. The downhill spiral was a little easier to negotiate but was not simple. I had to clutch at the vegetation to prevent body skiing to the bottom. I was very thankful for my gloves - however ludicrous they look!

Most people were out in the light, with just a few back stragglers coming out just after the light had gone. No one was lost, no one did any odd stunts, so a hassle free night!

A brief circle was called. Grasshopper (Lucas) was the first on ice. It was good to see him back running as he has been off sick for a few weeks. He was iced for completing 100 runs with the Harriets. Next Hotlips (Ai Lee) was iced. She can not make it regularly on a Thursday because of her work commitments. It was great to see her and she was iced for completing 100 runs. Whatever was then iced for whatever.....Helmut was iced for actually no longer being a Hash VIRGIN! It turns out he actually did not one but Two runs recently at the Pan Indo Hash in Surabaya. We hope to see him now do some Harriets runs!! Busy Body was iced to welcome him back (missing in action for far too long) and to wish him a happy birthday. Katya was iced as she is shortly returning to Sweden but we will see her back in December. The Hare was iced and the general opinion was a good run but Mark was reminded that a hash needs at least one check. The food was good. The location was good.

Thanks Mark for a great evening. See you all next week. On On Funny Stuff!!!!

An American, Japanese, and an Indian were sitting in the sauna naked. Suddenly there was a beeping sound. The American pressed his forearm and the beeping stopped. The others looked at him questioningly.

"That's my pager," he said, "I have a microchip under the skin of my arm."

A few minutes later a phone rang. The Japanese lifted his palm to his ear.

When he finished he explained, "That's my mobile phone. I have a microchip in my hand."

The Indian felt low-tech and inferior. He didn't know what to do to be as impressive as the American & the Japanese.. He decided to take a break in the toilet. When he returned, he didn't realize that there was a piece of toilet paper got stuck and hanging from his backside.

The others raised their eyebrows and said, "Wow! What's that?"

Instead of being embarrassed, inspiration struck his mind. The Indian explained, "I'm getting a FAX.

The other two fainted!!!!
