GM'S notes

Hi Every One,

What a fantastic turnout for Justbeer's and Akz Hole's run! Over the course of the evening more than 50 members came to the site. When the circle was called Tintin, Brian and Jen were welcomed as guests. Shark arrived just as we were setting off. Other guests such as Kissing Her and Kiss Me , Frog and Itchy Bai came later. The Hare told us there were three types of paper to follow and after various calls of "Confusing", "Can't make your mind up" etc, Akz Hole explained that they were recycling paper. There was one bar, a let out for back runners who could not make the full distance and the length was the best side of medium.

We were told to go left and off we went. The few front runners quickly got ahead. The rest of us moseyed along at a much steadier pace. We went round and then up and over the hill and back round and down to the site. A very pleasant comfortable run with no outrageously hairy bits where you have to grit your teeth, pray and lunge forward.

We sat around eating and drinking waiting for Night Runner to return and a huge sigh of relief erupted when he came wandering in safe and sound and not too late.

A short circle seemed in order and first on the ice was Napoleon – a visitor from Medan who had come along late with Running Fire. Then Shark was iced as Monday GM and thanked for his support of the ladies. Spiky Annie was iced for being the sexiest harriet – she was wearing a great T-shirt. Gangrene was iced for not wearing a hash T-shirt. Kissing Her was iced for being Santa Claus in August. The hares were iced for providing a great run, delicious food and choosing a good location. After the circle closed much social drinking ensued. Hashers seem to be reluctant to go home these days!

Many thanks Just Beer and Akz Hole for another brilliant Thursday. See you all next week.

On..On....

Funny Stuff!!!!

A guy was sitting quietly reading his paper when his wife walked up behind him and whacked him on the head with a magazine. "What was that for?" he asked.

"That was for the piece of paper in your pants pocket with the name Laura Lou written on it," she replied. "

"Two weeks ago when I went to the races, Laura Lou was the name of the horses I bet on," he explained.

"Oh honey, I'm sorry," she said. "I should have known there was a good explanation."

Three days later he was watching a ball game on TV when she walked up and hit him on the head again, this time with the iron skillet, which knocked him out cold. When he came to, he asked "What the hell was that for?"

She replied, "Your horse called."
