GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

To all those that celebrate, a very Merry Christmas and to those that don't, have a very happy festive time!

Christmas is typically a time for giving and sharing so usually the Christians in the club put on a Christmas do. This year however, most people who would support this are away, so as a substitute there will be an expat/Christian extra run on Friday January 8th at Mar Vista Apartments Poolside. Please will expats and Christians contribute! It will count as a run and cards will be stamped.

All club members are welcome at this Expat New Year Run. Guests will be charged to cover the cost of food. Please give guest names and fees to Justbeer in advance so that adequate catering is in place.

A fair-sized crowd assembled at the old D'Juice runsite for the circle before the run. This included the young guests Tom, Jenny and Steven and Flying Kiwi. The crowd enlarged no end while we were out on the run. The hare (Helmut) told us it was a simple run, we should follow the correct paper and that when we reached the bar we should turn round and run back. This was certainly a new variation of a bar!!!

We set off down the road and entered the hill by the water pipe. After a bit of a climb we veered off to the right and started up the beautiful if arduous climb on that side. We knew we would have to toil to the top and were not disappointed. When we got to the top we were expecting the bar but no, the easy to jog on down stretched far in front of us, so with a sigh of relief we set off at a good pace.

We all thought. 'Ha....Ha.. the bar thing was a joke' But after 15 minutes we saw Tom (a very fit, fast youngster) running back towards us and that sinking feeling entered our stomachs. Sure enough five minutes later, the bar stretched right across the path and we looked upwards at the steep slope to be renegotiated when out of the trees appeared Goodyear. He said that by the time we had got back to the top, it would already be getting dark - and as it was raining- we all agreed, but not to worry he could get us back. We waited for a few more runners – Pussy Cat, Car Boot, Hard Khaw- to catch up and then we followed Goodyear down the slippery rock with the rope and then wound down a steep, frequently roped path and came out in the quarry. So a very pleasant but unorthodox return!

After changing, we all sat down to tuck into Renata's delicious food and as usual, she had cooked such quantities that even the hash could not consume it all.

We had a short circle and put Flying Kiwi on ice first to welcome him back – great to see you Glen. Next on ice was Uncle Bee (the contractor hare) for introducing a new bar variation. Lastly we put the hares on ice and it was agreed that it was a good run, delicious food and a good location. As there were no charges from the floor the circle was then closed. Many thanks to Helmut and Renata for a fantastic Thursday evening!

Funnies

A blonde was driving down an old country road when she spots another blonde in a wheat field rowing a boat. She pulls over to the side of the road and stops the car. Staring in disbelief she stands at the side of the road to watch the woman for a while.

When she could not stand it any more she called out to the blonde in the field. "Why are you rowing a boat in the middle of the field?"

The blonde in the field stops rowing and responds, "Because it is an ocean of wheat."

The blonde standing on the side of the road is furious. She yells at the blonde in the field. "It is dumb blondes like you that give the rest of us a bad name."

The blonde in the field just shrugged her shoulders and began rowing again.

The blonde on the side of the road was beside herself and shook her fist at blonde in the field yelling, "If I could swim, I would come out there and kick your ass!"

Paddy has broken his leg and his buddy Mick comes over to see him.

Mick says, "How you doin?"

Paddy says, "Okay, but do me a favour mate, run upstairs and get me slippers, me feet are freezing."

Mick goes upstairs and sees Paddy's gorgeous 19-year-old twin daughters lying naked on the bed.

He says, "Your dad's sent me up here to have sex with both of you."

They say, "Get away with ya.... prove it."

Mick shouts downstairs, "Paddy, both of em?"

Paddy shouts back, "Of course both of em, what's the point of f*kin' one?"
