GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

Happy 2010! Have a great year. Not surprisingly a smaller crowd than usual turned up for the New Year's Eve run but over 20 is a good crowd for a night with competing entertainment. Kissinger, Kiss Me, Golden Cock, Jacqueline (Contrition) and Richard were welcomed at the circle. SK was missing but Edna phoned and we were told a short, simple run with no checks.

Off we went and entered by the Indian shrine and for those of us who had over eaten during the Christmas period, the beginning seemed even steeper than usual. GM was in need of exercise and was so intent on pushing upward that she missed the turn to the right. Lucky for her, Rambo and Edna are good hashers and pulled her back to the track.

I wound my way up to the top and then followed a really nice track down. I am not sure how much of this was the run – I was on paper that looked fresh and was the right shape the whole time – but when I caught up with Monty Python's group, they wanted to know where the hell I'd been! However, I had a brilliant run that took about an hour so felt happy and good.

As usual SK had provided delicious food.

There was no circle as GM had to rush off to entertain her daughter and house guest – why is it, that I can feel another icing coming on?

Don't forget, January 8th is an extra run. Please can all Expats and Christians donate at least RM 20 to cover the cost of food. Guests are also RM 20.

Many thanks Car Boot/SK for a great Thursday evening.

See you all next Thursday.

On on .....

"Christmas Holiday Bonus"

On a snowy day in mid-December, a mailman was out on his regular route. When he arrived at one particular house, a very attractive woman opened the door and greeted him. "My, you look cold out there. How would you like to come in for a nice, hot cup of coffee?"

"I'd love to..." he said, and so he went inside.

After having coffee and talking for awhile, the woman stood up and began walking toward the bedroom. As she walked, she looked back and motioned for him to follow. Being the gentleman he was, he was not about to insult his host by turning down such an offer. He followed her into the bedroom and.....

As he was about to leave and continue his rounds, the woman stopped him and handed him a crisp one dollar bill. With a puzzled look on his face, he stared down at the bill and asked, "What's this for?"

"Well", she said, "This morning my husband and I were discussing Christmas and what kinds of gifts we should give to our friends and neighbours. When I asked him what I should give the mailman, he laughed and said, 'Screw him! Give him a dollar!'"
