GM'S notes

Run 1971

Hi Everyone,

A big welcome to Kissingher, Kiss Me, Horn-in Hand and Contrition who have joined the Harriets.

There were 52 members and a guest, Lesley (A friend of Richard and Rose) at Doris Day's run at Charlie's Market. It was a joint run with FTAC so a big crowd to kick start the year.

The FTAC hare told us it was a super short run and promised the first runner back a free beer and if it was a female 2 free beers.

The run started off up the hash highway but quickly took a left turn into the jungle. Mini Sausage was busy telling everyone to slow down as their bodies needed to recover from the over eating and over drinking during the festive season. The trail then wound round in a right hand loop until we got to the slippery slope, caused by an old landslide on the other side of the hill. We should try to avoid this patch as the jungle is in sad need of regeneration here.

We then started the climb up to the first ridge and then wound round a bit and then did a second climb. Here we met Dom leading the short cutters who looked very strong and had obviously found a great way to go. We wound round some more and then we had to climb to the top. I can never understand how the on ups, always seem so much longer than the on downs.

We then jogged down a very pleasant path which led us back to the hash highway and the jog home. However, the run was clearly too short for some of the FTAC who literally sprinted past me at this point.

Getting the circle organized seemed to take more effort than usual. Fancy Pants was called first but was still eating (Must be the only time he gets a decent meal, Karen is still in Germany) so Car Boot was iced first. This was an award for setting last week's run on New Year's Eve, providing good food and choosing a good location. Kissinger was iced as a welcome to the Harriets. We then managed to get Fancy Pants on ice. He had completed a hundred runs with the Harriets – well done Fancy Pants. Hari hari mau charged Justbeer and the charge was invalid as Ma's photo and Happy Birthday wishes had appeared in the news letter but we kept Just Beer on ice and cheered her for the excellent job she does with the news letter each week. Just Beer then iced Ma for not reading the newsletter properly. As there were no more charges from the floor we then called Doris Day to the ice and she called her co- cooks – Hotlips and Datin Choo Choo. It was deemed a good run, delicious food, and a good location apart from the smell.

Many Thanks Doris for another great Thursday evening!

Run 1972

Friday January 8th. Expat and Christians Christmas and New Year Run

First of all thanks to everyone who made a contribution to the evening:-

1. Renata and Helmut for cooking the pork.
2. SK for cooking the meal.
3. Alice for the Nonya kueh.
4. Jes for preparing the salad and the potato salad.
5. Anjalai for preparing the garlic bread.
6. All those who contributed money.

Many thanks to Ah Nee for arranging the venue for us and Edna for the car parking duties et al.

Although a good sized group of members and guests enjoyed the evening (around 50 at the last count) it was a small group who gathered in the circle to actually do the run. We learnt from Sperm Whale that the run was short and that we should go left and then up the drain pipe and that there was one check.

Off we all went and the Kiwi guests looked as though they were really fit as they set off at a cracking pace. At the top of the drain we crossed the road and then went round to the water tank and up the hill. It was at this point that the Kiwis really slowed down – obviously, they are not used to steep, slippery slopes. We went up to the top of the hill and run forward to the bar. I picked up paper as we went back to find the paper which wound back down the other side of the hill. Alistair kindly took the paper from me and went back to close the check.

The on down was a good jog most of the way but we encountered a quagmire where we sank up to the ankles in squishy mud. We ran back to the road and then up the hill to the drain. It was a very good length run as preparation for an evening of relaxation.

Many thanks to Sperm Whale and G-Man for setting the run!

Last of all, thanks to everyone who came and made it a fun evening! The view across to Georgetown was magnificent, the evening balmy, the stars shining!!! What more could you ask for???

See you next Thursday. On On!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

On a sadder note our thoughts and sympathies go out to Barry Khoo on the passing of his beloved mother last week.

Funnies

The Polite Way To Pee

During one of her daily classes, a teacher trying to teach good manners, asked her students the following question:

'Michael, if you were on a date having dinner with a nice young lady, how would you tell her that you have to go to the bathroom?

Michael said, 'Just a minute I have to go pee.'
The teacher responded by saying, 'That would be rude and impolite.

What about you Sherman, how would you say it?'
Sherman said, 'I am sorry, but I really need to go to the bathroom, I'll be right back.'

'That's better, but it's still not very nice to say the word bathroom at the dinner table. And you, little Johnny, can you use your brain for once and show us your good manners?'

'I would say Darling may I please be excused for a moment? I have to shake hands with a very dear friend of mine, whom I hope to introduce you to after dinner.'

The teacher fainted.

Aging Aunt Mildred was a 93-year-old woman who was particularly despondent over the recent death of her husband. She decided that she would just kill herself and join him in death.

Thinking that it would be best to get it over with quickly, she took out his old Army pistol and made the decision to shoot herself in the heart, since it was badly broken in the first place.

Not wanting to miss the vital organ and become a vegetable and a burden to someone, she called her doctor's office to inquire as to just exactly where the heart would be on a woman. The doctor said, 'Your heart would be just below your left breast'.

Later that night..... Mildred was admitted to the hospital with a gunshot wound to her knee.
