Newsletter 1978

GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

Gong Xi Fa Cai Here's hoping the year of the Tiger brings us all health, prosperity and happiness.

34 members and 3 guests (Golden Cock, Tu and Barry) gathered at the Batu Gantung cemetery for Rambo's run. Rambo told us it was a short run with two checks and a bar. The bar was there to protect us from the bees and should not be crossed. She pleaded with us to stay on paper because SCBs would break a record and make this the shortest hash run ever.

It was still stinking hot so the pack set out at a leisurely pace towards the steps. Comments about the price of supermarket bargain beer, and where the cheapest mandarin oranges could be obtained, were being banded around. Others were bemoaning the fact that the economic recession meant they couldn't close down their businesses for so long this new year.

As we climbed the steps we started to get into the spirit of things and upped the pace. We entered the trees, went up a bit to the first check which most people didn't see because the front runners were already calling on up. We climbed some more and then descended and everyone was saying "It'll be a check". Sure enough we heard bar being called and saw the front runners galloping back up the hill and heard the shout of "On paper"

It was a pleasant climb and I could see Speedhound just in front of me. I drifted off into a pleasant daydream only to be rudely awakened by the fact that I could see no one and was off paper. I called and could hear some replies but my ears are shot and I have no directional hearing. So apparently my calls were getting fainter and obviously I was going in the opposite direction! I climbed to the top and guessed/hoped it would be an up and over route.

I started making my way down quickly as it is easier to negotiate unfamiliar territory in the daylight. I came to a prominent rock and could see the race course down to the right and was relieved to know I was going in vaguely the right direction and was on the right side of the hill.

I kept scrambling downward but met vertical drops and would have to veer to the right and when I got to the next one veer to the left so that I didn't start going round in circles or get too far off track. Eventually I came out on the golf course, made my way over to the Indian Temple climbed the fence and then ran down the road to the parked cars. So for me it wasn't a short run but definitely very interesting!

We had a circle and first on ice was Smiling Horse who celebrated his birthday earlier in the week. It was noted that his wife had cooked the delicious curry we had just eaten. Then we iced Spermwhale as a returning runner who had been off to Bali but thought he wouldn't go again as Thailand suited him better. It had also been his birthday and he was heard to comment that an awful lot of Harriets had been born under the sign of Aquarius. Next we iced Edna because it was her birthday that day. GM reminded everyone that Edna was hash cash and kept the books straight and up to date, that she was a fantastic negotiator and could be relied on to get great prices for Harriet needs (T-shirts, venues etc). She was thanked for helping to set the run and providing such delicious food. A charge from the floor put Sugu on ice as a returning runner. She last ran with the Harriets 10 years ago. Welcome back . Last on ice was Rambo, the hare. She was thanked for accommodating us by moving her run months forward to fill up an unexpected gap in the hareline. The run was great, the food really delicious and the site good.

After the circle was closed Kissing(h)er remarked that I should have said it was a deadly run!

Please note: There will be an extra run on Sunday February 28th. It is the Harriets Chap Goh Mei Run. The location will be Teluk Bahang camp (By the side of Mutiara Hotel). The run will start at 11.00am and will be short and sweet. It will be followed by a pot luck picnic lunch. Beer will be on sale. Harriets who run will get their card stamped. All are welcome. There will be no guest fee charged but all guests are expected to contribute towards the lunch. Please bring your own plate and cutlery as we will not be buying disposable items.

Many thanks Rambo and your co-hares for another brilliant Thursday evening

Happy Valentine's Day

See you all next week. On on.....

Announcement from the On Sex (contact Justbeer)

If you have any requests/articles/information to give the members please contact me.

Due to some resignations and the need for some people to swap their run dates, please read the Haireline thoroughly. I am sorry some information is last minute but that is all the notice I have received and I have got it out to the members as soon as I could. PLEASE if you have a problem setting your run contact a member of the committee as soon as possible but no less than eight weeks prior to your date. Less than this and it becomes YOUR responsibility to find a swap!!! I have the hash paper please let me know if you need it!

It was great to see Whatever back in Penang although she is still incapacitated from her fall on the ice back in December. We all wish you a speedy recovery and recommend you stay in Penang next Winter!!

Funnies

THE TRUE MEANING OF CLASS

A man goes to the famous Lucas Carton restaurant in Paris with his girlfriend and orders the Rothschild 1928 Mouton.

The waiter returns with a bottle full of wine, pours a small amount in the glass for tasting.

The customer picks up the glass, smells the wine, and puts it down on the table with a thud.

"This is not the 1928 Mouton."

The waiter assures him it is, and soon there are another twenty people surrounding the table, including the chef and the manager trying to convince the man that the wine is the 1928 Mouton.

Finally someone asks him how he knows that it is not the 1928 Mouton.

"My name is Phillip de Rothschild, and I make that wine."

Finally, the original waiter steps forward and admits that he poured the Clerc Milon 1928.

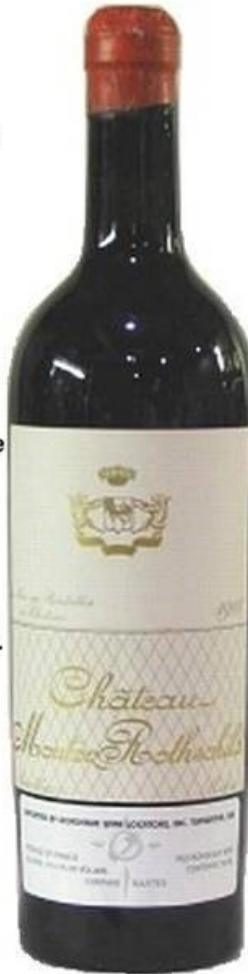

"I could not bear to part with our last bottle of 1928 Mouton.

You know Clerc Milon, it is in the same village as Mouton, you pick the grapes at the same time, the same cepage, you crush in the same way, you put them into similar barrels. You bottle at the same time, you even use eggs from the same chickens to fine them. The wines are the same, except for a small matter of geographic location."

Rothschild beckons the waiter forward, and whispers to him,

"When you return home tonight, ask your girlfriend to remove her underwear.

Put one finger in one opening, another finger in the other, then smell both the fingers. You will understand what difference a small distance in geographic location makes."
