Newsletter 1980

GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

53 members and several guests attended the Chinese New Year Run at Charlie Market. Everyone was in a jovial mood but most people were noisily commenting on the stench emanating from the carcass pits, rubbish skip and caged chickens. The smell offends the nose to start with but is rapidly forgotten as the evening proceeds.

In the circle members were reminded that Sunday was an extra Chap Goh Meh run and the venue was now Recreasi Rimba, because a large Indian Festival was being held at the temple by the side of the camp. Each participant should bring food to share and their own eating utensils. Beer would be on sale. Akzhole then announced that participants could adjourn to Sam's after the event as there would be a late afternoon/early evening jam session there.

Edna represented the hares and told us the run was not a killer run and there was a bar. She recommended that those runners who usually came back late should stay on the hash highway as everyone wanted to enjoy the meal. She then told us to look to the right when we got to the bar.

So we set off on the hash highway and as the day had been stinking hot it was a little while before any jogging started. Good Year however, was the first to hot up the pace. Mini, G-man and I followed suit but unlike Good Year who we didn't see again we kept our pace gentle and walked in between little spurts of light jogging.

We went two thirds of the way up the hash highway and then turned off to the right. Before descending we called and waited for Good Year's reply – it was much too hot still, to do something stupid. Down it was but of course it was much too early to be down for long so we started to climb up again. We hit the bar and very soon, on to the right, was called. We then wended our hot selves up, up and up.

The on down could have been a great jog but the surface was so dry and slippery that more care had to be taken. We then came out onto the hash highway and jogged back to the site

We moved into the market for a great sit down meal and various tables – in particular Black German's - sang lustily while awaiting the food. As Kissing(h)er was on that table we have now added a French song to the repertoire.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Molly who had completed 1300 runs!!!!!!!

Congratulations Molly. Next on ice was Black German for adding to the enjoyment with his singing. Then Smiling Horse was iced for wearing new shoes. Felicia was iced for not wearing a hash t-shirt. Chris was then iced as a new member. Edna was iced as the Chinese rep. for providing a good run, delicious food and a great location. Last on ice were Bendover and Tin-Tin for helping the choirmaster by providing Chinese songs.

Many thanks to Edna and our Chinese members for providing another amazing Thursday evening.

See you all on SUNDAY!!!!!!

On on.....

Funnies

Two women friends had gone for a girl's night out. Both were very faithful and loving wives, however they had gotten over-enthusiastic on the Bacardi Breezers.

Incredibly drunk and walking home they needed to pee, so they stopped in the cemetery. One of them had nothing to wipe with so she thought she would take off her panties and use them.

Her friend, however, was wearing a rather expensive pair of panties and did not want to ruin them.

She was lucky enough to squat down next to a grave that had a wreath with a ribbon on it, so she proceeded to wipe with that. After the girls did their business they went home.

The next day one of the woman's husband was concerned that his normally sweet and innocent wife was still in bed hung over, so he phoned the other husband and said: 'These girl nights have got to stop! I'm starting to suspect the worst. My wife came home with no panties!!'

'That's nothing' said the other husband, 'Mine came back with a card stuck to her ass that said....

'From all of us at the Fire Station. We'll never forget you.'
