Newsletter 1981

GM'S notes

Hi Everyone,

Chap Goh Mei Run

15 members gathered at Recreasi Rimba for the extra run on Sunday 28th February . Akzhole told us that it was a simple run on tracks and we could all do it.

Off we went, left along a gentle incline and most of us stuck to a leisurely pace as we were still exhausted from Saturday's run. Soon we hooked off to the right and then the climb began but it was eased by a run along a ridge.

We reached point 14 and took in the magnificent view but the platform is getting very dodgy so we nervously stayed to the back of it.

It was then the real climb started so we huffed and puffed our way to the top, willing the back leg to get to the front. There was then a lovely jog along a ridge followed by a steep descent and we needed the ropes provided.

The run was completed by a good jog back to the cars.

After a brief wash we sat down in the shade and consumed the magnificent pot luck lunch provided by the participants. This of course was washed down by large quantities of Tiger.

Many thanks to all the participants. What a lovely way to spend a Sunday! ON ON!!

The Welsh Cow

The only cow in a small town in Scotland stopped giving milk.

The town folk found they could buy a cow in Wales quite cheaply.

They brought the cow from Wales and it was wonderful, produced lots of milk every day and everyone was happy.

They bought a bull to mate with the cow to get more cows, so they'd never have to worry about their milk supply again.

They put the bull in the pasture with the cow but whenever the bull tried to mount the cow, the cow would move away.

No matter what approach the bull tried, the cow would move away from the bull and he was never able to do the deed.

The people were very upset and decided to go the Vet, who was very wise, tell him what was happening and ask his advice.

"Whenever the bull tries to mount our cow, she moves away. If he approaches from the back, she moves forward, they said.

When he approaches her from the front, she backs off. If he attempts from the one side, she walks away to the other side.

The Vet rubbed his chin thoughtfully and pondered this before asking, "Did you by chance, buy this cow in Wales ?"

The people were dumbfounded, since no one had ever mentioned that they had brought the cow over from Wales.

"You are truly a wise Vet," they said. "How did you know we got the cow from Wales ?
The Vet replied with a distant look in his eye, "My wife is from Wales "
