GM's notes

Hi Everyone,

38 members attended White Lion's Run at Leader Garden. It was nice to see two spouses back, Karen and Jean Pierre. In the circle White Lion told us it was a nice run and there were no checks.

Off we went down to the far left and did the old drainpipe climb. Once clear of the drain we had a very pleasant gentle climb up that went over the river and skirted to the right. Then we went down a fairly steep slope and next had the second more serious climb to negotiate.

At last we were on the top and most of us thought it would be a short jog back down to the site. It was however, longer than anticipated and as I overtook Fancy Pants I went into one of my dreamworlds.

When I reawakened I realised that I was on long paper not our paper but as it was bound to go somewhere I just followed it and came out behind the round apartment block so it was a simple jog over the playground and back to the site.

We did not have a circle because several runners left early, charges were in short supply and everyone was enjoying a chilled out chat. The outcome of which was that Uncle Bee is going to reassess her gender issue and various members have pledged high heels and sexy attire!!!!

Many thanks to White Lion who set a good run, provided yummy food and hosted another fun Thursday evening. The hare's icing is only postponed!

Directions for May 6th. Run

Paya Terabong . First turning on the left after Lee Rubber. Drive 1 Km up. Hash site on the right. Michael Long hair's last run.

Irish Virginity Test Kit

Paddy was planning to get married and asked his doctor how he could tell if his bride is a virgin.

The doctor said, "Well, you need three things from a Do-It-Yourself shop.

A can of red paint, a can of blue paint . . . And a shovel."

Paddy asked, "And what do I do with these, doc?"

The doc replied, "Before the wedding night, you paint one of your balls red and the other ball blue.

If she says, "That's the strangest pair of balls I ever saw," you hit her with the shovel."
