Notes on the Night

Today we had a very low turn out of 15 members only. As we know most of them were off to Inter Hash. We had a great long to medium run set by FTAC (see the burst below from Colleen. Many thanks for that). Unfortunately we had to pinch some food from them as well as Didar's Beehoon run out!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Burst

Run Number: 2002

Venue: Bee gallery

Scribe: Pentium 3

Hare: Didar Singh

We had heavy rains all day plus a large part of the group was off at Kuching so I think we were all wondering what kind of company we'd have and if the light rain was going to continue, pour or stop. Hard core hashers that we are, we were ready for whatever was in store as we congregated in the parking lot. We had a cozy Harriets Group and 3-4 other groups also descended upon the D'Juice site, but our clan headed off together. We had a quick circle and Anjalai explained it was a short run for the front runners and a long run for the back runners. I took that to mean it was a medium run – I don’t think there were any checks or bars. Didar Singh told us to follow the FTAC paper. And we were off, escorted to the trail by the hash hound, all 4 legs of the canine hasher. We felt secure to have a canine companion in the event the wet weather proved treacherous. Alas, he darted off in a mad sprint into the jungle just as we reached the bridge.

It was a slippery run from the start, but we proceeded with energy from the refreshing rain. Getting nice and muddy right from the start got us into the groove as we slipped, slid and proceeded on up. Before we knew it we were sliding on down for a bit only to reach another on up. A few minutes later another on down slip sliding away. Slip sliding away...you know the nearer your destination the more you’re slip sliding away. (singing) ...back to the run - we had a quick chance to wash the mud off our hoofs in a small stream which proved to be futile with all the mud yet in store for us. Before the next on up I heard several sighs of relief to see a bit of stairway after the past several minutes of ups and downs like tennis shoes on ice. That was short lived, however; we continued to climb grabbing on to every tree in sight. Luckily there was a nice spacing of trees and somewhat limited thorns as our feet were getting no traction. Up, up, up and up we went. Bend Over, Woon and I found ourselves sweeping as decided we were fine to enjoy the rear view.

The hill was quite steep and we were doing most of the climbing on hands and feet...all fours like our furry friend who was likely back enjoying a brew by now. Michael Longhair passed us up just as we were reaching the top, scooting by with ease through the slippery mud. We were quite pleased with the challenging steep climb accompanied by the cool weather the rain brought in. The trail was also marked very well through the whole run. We found unfamiliar traction on our feet as we proceeded on down.

All runners made it in just before it got dark and the rain had subsided through the whole run. We didn’t have a circle this week, but enjoyed some tasty spicy noodles and fruit together. We look forward to reuniting with our friends who joined the Interhash at TAR college next Thursday.

Announcement from the On Sex (contact Justbeer)

Since there were no photos taken at the run this week, we have decided to give you a taste of InterHash so that you too can experience a little of this huge event. There were about 5000 people in attendance 10 times the number of people we had at our 2000th run! Imagine that! We had our own headaches just think what theirs must have been like!!

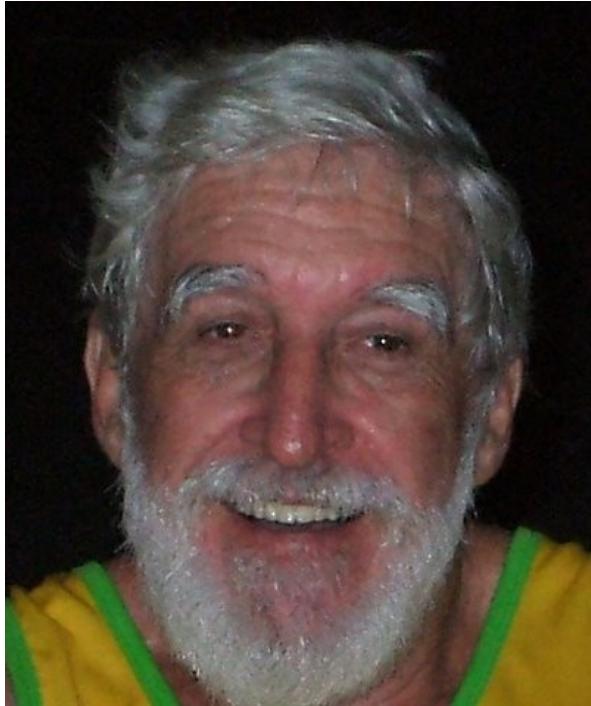

One of the photos shows the creativity of the hashing fraternity. The guy turned our Red Dress sarong into a very hash-like SHIRT!!! Good thinking!!

Congratulations to Mini Sausage and Tiny for completing the Ball Breaker run. Well done both of you!

See the photos below!!

Birthday greetings this week go to:

Funnies

A farmer ordered a high-tech milking machine. Since the equipment arrived when his wife was out of town, he decided to test it on himself first.

So, he inserted his "manhood" into the equipment, turned on the switch and everything else was automatic.

Soon, he realized that the equipment provided him with much more pleasure than his wife did. When the fun was over, though, he quickly realized that he couldn't remove the instrument from his 'member'.

He read the manual but didn't find any useful information on how to disengage himself. He tried every button on the instrument, but still without success.

Finally, he decided to call the supplier's Customer Service Hot Line with his cell phone (Thank God for cell phones!).

"Hello, I just bought a milking machine from your company. It works fantastic, but how do I remove it from the cow's udder?"

"Don't worry," replied the customer service rep, "The machine will release automatically once it's collected two gallons"!!!!!!
