Notes from the VGM

Travelling from one end of Penang Island to the other end for hashing is sometime a tedious affair amidst traffic jam. Perhaps Penang folks enjoy driving in their own car. Arriving at Alice's house I dropped in and said hello to the Bunny of the day who was then all dolled up and looking like " pretty woman". Hashers then start arriving early. Called for circle at 6.05pm with 30 members and 2 guests (Jean-Pierre and Carly) for the run and more turned up later on. Co-hare gave instructions to follow the long paper and harriets square paper. The number of checks was left to us to find out. Off we went towards the hill .

Today is a good day for Alice because it happened to be Dominic's actual birthday. "Happy birthday to you Dominic and many more to come." "Want to see what we did to the birthday boy??? -- look -lah at the photo in the newsletter. Alice as usual cooked a wonderful and delicious mealsfood glorious food!! for us. We feasted ourselves on tandoori chicken (juicy and tender), birthday Mee, chicken pie. Black pulut, papan cake, Chocolates cake,etc! etc! We really had a good and enjoyable meal. Thank you Alice.

Thank you both for inviting us to share this occasion with us Harriets. The food was wonderful. It was a cool evening as we enjoyed chatting outside the house. The night was still young for the birthday boy. A few of us adjourned to his upper room for a movie, continued drinking. Dominic crowned the night with champagne . Hurry for the rest of the night.

The burst for the actual run I leave to Annelies.

Five August was a special day and a special run. It always is a special run when we start from the Boudville residence. Last time they had us discover those kampungs on the way to the reservoir in the corner of Lembah Permai (and Dominique rode his bicycle to take pictures and make surprise checks on the runners). No more kampungs there; they have all been swallowed by some new construction site. Developers are eating into Hash territory – we must protest.

No bicycle this time either, as it was Alice's run and she had us climb Mt Erskine, circle the reservoir and come back down into the quarry on Lembah Permai's new housing estate. I was told that only about 6 runners did the complete run on paper, ending with a 2 meter sheer drop into the quarry; the others kept going up and short-cutted on a easy way down, the btards ! On ice with them. The only possible acceptable explanation was to get down faster to the food. The food... oh no, I am supposed to write about the run.

Well, as usual, some are slower than others (it's going to happen to all – but the last ones will be the first at some point in our lives) anyway, they climbed all the same, going up on a track parallel to the winding road and up to the fence with a nice view of the reservoir but no way to get into that reserved area. Along the on up the bunny (or helper) found some huge fallen trees to climb over in a most precarious manner...; by the time they hit the fence and saw it was more rough on up, three of the slow ones prudently backed down to the big pipe knowing that would guide them down to the road.

Litterbugs had thrown out what seemed like a hundred water bottles along the winding road so on the way back the three of us did our civic duty and collected a bagful to recycle. The other three 'slow ones' went on, stayed on paper and completed the whole run.

Time for food. Alice offered a wonderful spread of chicken, naan, bee hoon and mee hoon, soups and lots of cakes, fruits and that bean and coconut milk dessert (whatever it is called, it's good). There was free 100 Plus and maybe free beer as well (?) and with lights and space and plenty of stools to sit on, it was one of the most civilised Hash dinners in a long time.

Why all this special treatment? Aaahhh. It was Dominic's birthday! that very same day. He was given a proper icing for having turned all of 16 (that's what he said, one – six, but he did not say in what order). As he sat on ice, he was decorated with a special Hash shirt, a couple of balls (reserve?), a banana (too small?) and of course the inevitable birthday cake with songs in various languages. The bunny was ordered to join him on the ice and Rosie made an emotional speech about this very special couple. Thank you so much, Dominic and Alice, for sharing Dom's birthday in such splendid fashion with all the rest of us runners who survived another arduous run. And not only with the runners of the day, many other Hashers and friends turned up to share in the multi-course dinner and the drinks.

Others were iced as well: Eddie Punk and then Anjalai for having led the SCBs. Then the birthday boy Dom and then the Bunny (+Dom).

The party went on, no doubt, until late into the night. After all, 16 is a milestone!

Funnies

The economy is so bad that...

I got a pre-declined credit card in the mail.

African television stations are now showing 'Sponsor an American Child' commercials.

Wives are having sex with their husbands because they can't afford batteries.

I ordered a burger at McDonald's and the kid behind the counter asked, "Can you afford fries with that?"

CEO's are now playing miniature golf.

Exxon-Mobil laid off 25 Congressmen.

My ATM gave me an IOU!

A stripper was killed when her audience showered her with rolls of pennies while she danced.

I saw a Mormon polygamist with only one wife.

I bought a toaster oven and my free gift with the purchase was a bank.

If the bank returns your check marked "Insufficient Funds," you call them and ask if they meant you or them.

McDonald's is selling the 1/4 ouncer.

Angelina Jolie adopted a child from America.

Parents in Beverly Hills fired their nannies and learned their children's names.

My cousin had an exorcism but couldn't afford to pay for it, and they re-possessed her!

A truckload of Americans was caught sneaking into Mexico.

Motel Six won't leave the light on anymore.

A picture is now only worth 200 words.

They renamed Wall Street "Wal-Mart Street".

When Bill and Hillary travel together, they now have to share a room.

The Treasure Island casino in Las Vegas is now managed by Somali pirates.

Congress says they are looking into this Bernard Madoff scandal. Oh Great! The guy who made $50 Billion disappear is being investigated by the people who made $1.5 Trillion disappear!

And, finally...

I was so depressed last night thinking about the economy, wars, jobs, my savings, Social Security, retirement funds, etc., I called the Suicide Hotline. I got a call center in Pakistan, and when I told them I was suicidal, they got all excited, and asked if I could drive a truck.
