Notes from the VGM

After being in smelly places twice recently, this area chosen by Geeman as his run site was excellent in terms of freshness, cleanliness, greenery and comfortable environment. PLEASE KEEP THE RUN SITE CLEAN PICK UP YOUR RUBBISH AND TAKE THEM HOME. We have found a beautiful and conducive place. Please help maintain order after all our runs. THIS WOULD BE MUCH APPRECIATED.

Glad to see some familiar faces back for today's run. Welcome back to the Harriets' club. There were 36 members and a few guests. Geeman mention the run was a medium run, 1bar, 1check followed his paper printed with his name and date on it.

Since Graham was new to me I sat him on ice. He is living in Sabah and comes to our run each time he visits Penang. Welcome Graham and hope to see more of you. Good Year had completed his 200th run. We rewarded him with a small pewter mug while he sat on ice and warm water splashed on him. Congratulations Good Year and keep on coming you will have a bigger reward!

Take Care also referred to as Mitsubishi had the joy of charging KGB on ice for not following Home paper. He was drenched with warm water. KGB invited us to his run on Saturday. Thank you KGB! I know you have lot of previous hell notes ($) from last Thursday run. Remember to spend generously on makan .Eh! Ah! While Hare Geeman sits on ice Monthly Python went round and round him singing Lloyd George for awhile, in the mean time Geeman's bum was getting frozen as the song has no end!! He was melted down with warm water by a cheering crowd. I am sure his enjoyed his London song. Geeman earned this London song for the run he set and for the Oriental Mee plus some home cooked dishes. Thank you David for the strenuous workout, tasty meal and the enjoyable evening.

I would to thank some of you for helping me to write out the bursts over the last 3 months. Much appreciate for the favour done. Thanks again .On! On! On!

BURST

I had been away as usual for over a month so it was great to see all the usual suspects at the Permai shops in Tanjung Bungah. We had a fairly large gathering for Geeman's run. The weather was hot as usual, just like the other 364 days of the year in Penang yet we still grumbled. I suppose the lack of a late afternoon drizzle to cool it off a bit gave us a bit of an excuse to complain.

We circled round and listened to instructions, though I didn't hear – I'm sure something about following the paper, short or medium run, and the number of checks and bars and off we went up the street toward the Alila residences. We cut into the jungle just before the homes and headed up. Not too steep to start, but a steady climb. We stuck together in a tight line for the first quarter of the trek. Skirting around the hillside on narrow trails, nothing too treacherous, but good and challenging enough for the middle and back runners. We reached the first check about 5 minutes in and the front runners were back on the trail in a jiffy. The journey consisted of a few very steep downhill spots with not much to grab onto for support. I fell to the back rather quickly and stayed there with the lovely view of hashers backsides guiding my way and Rambo and Bend Over at my side.

The group thinned out half way through the run and we proceeded up a steep hill, good for the heart rate. Just as we reached the top and could glimpse a tiny bit of view we hit a bit of down hill and were at the curvy street road before we knew it. Out of the jungle and onto concrete, we hugged the curb so as not to become road kill. Got a few beeps from the vehicles passing by, I'm sure they were just friendly hello's or maybe they were admiring Bend Over's physique. We wound around up and down the hill and as far as I know everyone made it without becoming lunch meat.

It was about an hour run for the back runners and a very good trek for our One Malaysia Day holiday. Great run and great food, thanks Geeman!

I'm absolute rubbish with names so I apologize for the lack of call outs for the several folks along the way, hope to make up for it with my photo journalism. I'll take more snaps along the trail next time.

ON ON!!

The run on the 30th September is being sponsored by the 2000th organising committee to say a big thank you to our wonderful sponsors, without whom we would not have been so successful. Naturally you, as members, are also invited to the run and the dinner. The run is at Charlie Market and the dinner at D White Beach. If you want to go please give your names to Bibi Tulips as soon as possible so that we can organise the food properly.

It is good to see Gangreen up and about so soon after his ankle operation. Get fit again soon David!!

Funnies

A Polish man moved to the USA and married an American girl.

Although his English was far from perfect, they got along very well until one day he rushed into a lawyer's office and asked him if he could arrange a divorce for him.

The lawyer said that getting a divorce would depend on the circumstances, and asked him the following questions:

-Have you any grounds?

-Yes, an acre and half and nice little home.

-No, I mean what is the foundation of this case?

-It made of concrete.

-I don't think you understand. Does either of you have a real grudge?

-No, we have carport, and not need one.

-I mean. What are your relations like?

-All my relations still in Poland.

-Is there any infidelity in your marriage?

-We have hi-fidelity stereo and good DVD player.

-Does your wife beat you up?

-No, I always up before her.

-Is your wife a nager?

- No, she white.

-Why do you want this divorce?

-She going to kill me.

-What makes you think that?

-I got proof.

-What kind of proof?

- She going to poison me. She buy a bottle at drugstore and put on shelf in bathroom. I can read, and it say: "Polish Remover"

Several men are in the changing room of a golf club. A mobile phone on a bench rings and a man engages the hands free speaker-function and began to talk.

Everyone else in the room stops to listen.

MAN: "Hello"

WOMAN: "Darling, it's me. Are you at the club?"

MAN: "Yes"

WOMAN: "I am at the shopping centre and found this beautiful leather coat. It's only 3 ,000. Is it OK if I buy it?"

MAN: "Sure...go ahead if you like it that much."

WOMAN: "I also stopped by the Mercedes dealership and saw the new 2010 models. I saw one I really liked."

MAN: "How much?"

WOMAN: "300,000"

MAN: "OK, but for that price I want it with all the options."

WOMAN: "Great! Oh, and one more thing ... The house I wanted last year is back on the market. They're asking 950,000"

MAN: "Well, then go ahead and give them an offer of 900,000. They will probably take it. If not, we can go the extra 50 thousand. It really is a pretty good price."

WOMAN: "OK. I'll see you later! I love you so much!!"

MAN: "Bye! I love you, too."

The man hangs up. The other men in the changing room are staring at him in astonishment, mouths agape.....

He smiles and asks: "Anyone knows whose phone this is? "
