Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

There were 40 members and 5 guests (Lesley – Snow White’s friend, Song- Golden Prick’s brother, General and Alex – both from KL and Suvanee from Thailand, at Tar College for Iceman’s run. Iceman said there was a check and a bar (Let’s change this name as it conjures up false hopes of liquid refreshment in the middle of the run) and it was a medium to longish run.

We set off at a decent pace along the familiar track but soon veered off to the right across the construction rubble towards the Indian temple and then up the steps and along the path onto the hill. Mini Sausage started jogging and I thought I should make an effort to stay with him. We started skirting to the left and not long after found the check.

I made the mistake along with Marks and Spencer, Golden Prick and Song to check up the hill. On on was called on a terrace way below us but we could see the pack so we decided to cut across the hill to join them but it was very overgrown and slow going so that we found ourselves near the back when we joined the pack.

As we started the climb up the hill we gradually worked our way further forward through the pack, passing those who had to stop for a breather. I caught up with Bibi Tulips and Take Care and was very amused, when someone yelled to Take Care, to hear him reply he was taking care of a handbag. Sure enough, he was. He encouraged and helped Bibi Tulips.

The paper then started to go down and my hopes got up that we wouldn't have to go to the top of the hill but I soon came to a bar. I should have remembered Iceman's sense of humour! Of course we had to go to the top but it wasn't much further.

The on down was not too challenging and in many parts could be jogged. The last little bit was via the Indian Temple and back to the cars.

We had a very short circle. Eddie Punk was first on the ice to receive his 400th mug which was due several runs ago. Well done Eddie. Next we iced Justbeer as it was her birthday last Monday and her efforts as On Sex need to be rewarded. Last we put Iceman on his favourite surface and the crowd agreed -a fantastic run, delicious food and a good location.

Many thanks Iceman for another brilliant Thursday evening.

See you all next week at Grasshopper's run. He is planning a party night – don't miss it!
