Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

There were 37 members and I guest (Song –Golden prick’s brother) at Goodyear’s run at Bukit Gambir. There were various announcements in the circle. Next week’s run is Pentium 3’s farewell and she would like to make it a Halloween Run – please bring fancy dress to wear after the run – any fancy dress will do! PIH2 Anniversary dinner is next Friday. This will be a great – not to be missed evening. If you haven’t got your ticket yet contact Akzhole/ Justbeer before Tuesday.

Goodyear told us in the circle it was a short run and there were various comments from the crowd all of which contained ‘Bullshit’. There were 5 checks and a casual flip of the hand indicated where to start.

As you look at the temple we started on the familiar path to the right. There was a great deal of muttering about this was going to be a third go at the same run –Monday, Tuesday and now Thursday but they hadn’t reckoned on Goodyear’s sense of humour. We soon came across a clearly marked bar and the groans and the swearing far outreached the previous mutterings. There were several hashers who were wishing their previous moans had been true!

There was nothing for it but to turn round and go back towards the site. It was awful hard to start worrying about where the run was because at this point Sammy and the beer lorry were just arriving and the thought of forgetting the run and starting on the beer loomed high. Goodyear with a grin from ear to ear was indicating that we should go down the cliff.

At the bottom of the cliff we ran along the track which goes to the right. Rose, Richard, Cheng and Kim Looi were looking very pleased to be front runners at this point. We soon veered off to the left and ran along that track behind Huge. The paper went off to the right and wound its way to the check and the steep cliff ahead.

As usual Mini Sausage broke the check and we could see that there was no alternative but to scale the cliff ahead. This part was very slow because the ground was very dry and slippery and there were very few hand holds. However we did eventually get to the top and off we went again.

The run wove in and out and round a very narrow strip of land but luckily for us Mini Sausage with some help from Fancy Pants kept us on the trail. It was not long before we were on the homeward track. At this point Sperm Whale appeared out of the bushes and joined in the jog back.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Take Care, who had completed 300 runs – Congratulations. Next on Ice was Ronnie Tour – nice to see you Ronny – It's been a while. Then we iced Sperm Whale to welcome him back to the fold. Lastly we put the Hare on ice and it was deemed a good short run, delicious food and a great location.

Goodyear had produced a movie van with a canvas screen, so movie time was next. The first film was a short and as far as I could see was a spoof on a traditional ceremony. The main feature was a modern film but following a historic storyline with very pretty ladies constantly screaming at the men and the odd bit of spoof when they all burst into song or dance. British people should watch some of these films –the myth that a Chinaman is a poker faced unemotional being, would be thoroughly shattered.

Many thanks for a great and very unusual Thursday evening, Goodyear.

See you all next week.

Funnies

An elderly couple had been going out with each other for a long time. Urged on by their friends, they decided it was finally time to get married. Before the wedding, they went out to dinner and had a long conversation regarding how their marriage might work. They discussed finances, living arrangements and so on. Finally, the old gentleman decided it was time to broach the subject of their physical relationship.

'How do you feel about sex?' he asked, rather tentatively.

'I would like it infrequently' she replied.

The old gentleman sat quietly for a moment, adjusted his glasses, leaned over towards her and whispered -

'Is that one word or two?

When everyone on earth was dead and waiting to enter Paradise, God appeared and said, 'I want the men to make two lines. One line for the men who were true heads of their household, and the other line for the men who were dominated by their women. I want all the women to report to St. Peter.'

Soon, the women were gone and there were two lines of men. The line of the men who were dominated by their wives was 100 miles long and in the line of men who truly were heads of their household, there was only one man.

God said, 'You men should be ashamed of yourselves, I created you to be the head of your household! You have been disobedient and have not fulfilled your purpose!

'Of all of you, only one obeyed. Learn from him.'

God turned to the one man, 'How did you manage to be the only one in this line?'

The man replied, 'My wife told me to stand here.'
