Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

There were 34 members and 5 guests (Michael, Philip, Tin-Tin, Dan and Emma) at Hard Core's Run at the TAR College New shop lots.

As hashers arrived they noted Hard Core's and Good Year's cars parked and made the instant deduction they were not back from setting. Six o'clock came and went. Still no sign of the hares. Speedhound solved the problem by phoning Good Year who said it was a medium run with three bars and the trail started after the houses.

Off we walked rather hesitantly as the houses go in each direction and there are three common points of entry into the jungle. Eventually 'on paper' was called. We started off up the path and it was not long until we found the circle wrapped round a tree. Immediately the keenies started checking. We went this way and that way but no paper- after faffing about for 15minutes we did find it and felt a bit pissed off because there was someone on paper ahead that hadn't bothered to call!! (They will definitely be iced if I ever find out who it was!!!)

It was actually one of the usual routes but it was more than one hundred metres from the check – please guys make an effort to keep to that rule.

Predictably we started up the hill and were obviously going to climb. Pussy Cat and myself tried to get a move on as already it was getting late. After a good bit of climbing we came to a bar. At the same time we met Take care with his bevy of wanderers.

This worked out brilliantly as Take Care took us all in hand and found the down paper (I think we missed the last of the 'up' paper) but as it was getting late and most of us had consumed more than the average weekly intake of booze we were happy to go down.

We then had a good jog back to the road and round the estate back to the parked cars.

We had a brief circle. First on ice was Fancy Pants. Who has run with the Harriets for about ten years and is going back to Germany next week. Hopefully, he will visit and can sometimes run with us. Next on ice was Christine for making Huge such a creative, brilliant cake. Then we iced Rambo who was having a bad day – she tripped and got impaled on a branch and then later got stung from head to toe by bees. She then filled us in with information overkill - she had passed urine and then put it all over her stings. Last on ice was the hare but he had taken his son to the hospital to visit his mother who was sick, so we had to have a look alike. The run was deemed good was it got going, the food was delicious and the run site very satisfactory.

Many thanks Hard Core for a great Thursday evening

See You all next week

ON ON

Apart from the 2000th run, we have not done much special this year, so the committee feel we need a function!

There will be an end of year dinner at Hotel Royal on December 17th. The meal is free of charge for members but guests must pay RM 45. You must buy your own drinks but we have paid a flat corkage so we can take our own wine and liquor only. Samy will be with the beer!!

Please let a committee member know if you are attending the dinner or bringing a guest. We do not want to waste club funds but we want to cater for all participants.

Hope to see you all there

Tiny

Funnies

Little Larry!!

A new teacher was trying to make use of her psychology courses. She started her class by saying, 'Everyone who thinks they're stupid, stand up!' After a few seconds, Little Larry stood up. The teacher said, 'Do you think you're stupid, Larry?' 'No, ma'am, but I hate to see you standing there all by yourself!'

Larry watched, fascinated, as his mother smoothed cold cream on her face. 'Why do you do that, mommy?' he asked. 'To make myself beautiful,' said his mother, who then began removing the cream with a tissue. 'What's the matter, asked Larry 'Giving up?'

The math teacher saw that Larry wasn't paying attention in class. She called on him and said, 'Larry! What are 2 and 4 and 28 and 44?' Larry quickly replied, 'NBC, FOX, ESPN and the Cartoon Network!'

Larry's kindergarten class was on a field trip to their local police station where they saw pictures tacked to a bulletin board of the 10 most wanted criminals. One of the youngsters pointed to a picture and asked if it really was the photo of a wanted person. 'Yes,' said the policeman. 'The detectives want very badly to capture him. Larry asked, "Why didn't you keep him when you took his picture ? "

Little Larry attended a horse auction with his father. He watched as his father moved from horse to horse, running his hands up and down the horse's legs and rump, and chest. After a few minutes, Larry asked, 'Dad, why are you doing that?' His father replied, 'Because when I'm buying horses, I have to make sure that they are healthy and in good shape before I buy. Larry, looking worried, said, 'Dad, I think the UPS guy wants to buy Mom'
