Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

Merry Christmas to all those who celebrate.

There was a good turnout for the Xmas Run at Charlie Market.

First we need to say a big 'Thank you' to Pentium 3 who left RM1000 to finance the evening. Car Boots provided the main meal for 50 pax at a cost of RM300. 10 roasted chicken, fruit cake and almond chocolate cookies from Cold Storage cost RM 202.50 and 3 crates of beer from Sammy cost RM 411. This leaves a balance of RM 86.50 which will be given to Edna for club funds. In addition, Rose had donated muffins and fruit cake.

Many thanks Pentium 3 (Colleen) and we hope you have a wonderful Christmas and a very Happy New Year. You will always have a really warm welcome from the Harriets. Please come back and visit.

In the circle Rambo told us that the run was medium and there were 2 bars and a check.

We set off; very happy that there was no rain and went up by Take Care's house to the construction site, down to the left over the stream through some bewildered guy's garden and left into the jungle.

It was then a pleasant climb even though some parts were still slippery from recent heavy rain, up to the Hash Highway. As this had taken only 20 minutes, those of us at the front didn't even think about short cutting but it soon went very quiet so several hashers must have turned left and slunk back to the cars!

By this time, Pussy Cat, Take Care and myself were on our own and found the next on up very pleasant especially as we were just chatting away and hardly noticed the climb.

Once at the top we started the jog down. All was plain sailing until I called 'Bar' and we spent the next 5 minutes faffing about looking for paper. Sperm Whale came and made good suggestions but to no avail. Then Mini Sausage caught up and ran up to the bar – we were also going in this direction – and called 'on on'. It wasn't a bar but a marker to indicate not to go that way. So I tried to become invisible but still had to take the deserved abuse!!!!

It was just a short jog down with a small diversion into the graveyard (Rambo told me later this was to avoid the bees), onto the Hash Highway and back to the market.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Edna who had completed 1,600 runs that evening. Congratulations to Edna. Next on ice was Eddie the Punk for inattention during the first charge. Then we iced Busy Body for making too much noise. During this charge Michael Longhair came and cocked his leg over Busy Body in a dog pee mime so he was iced for asking for it. Just Beer then charged Eddie the Punk for phoning her when she was in Pakistan to ask for run directions! Rambo then iced Rose for donating the muffins and cake. Rambo was chief hare so she was iced to thank her and her co-hares for setting the run.

The rest of the evening was a social chat and drink time but there was a highlight. The dogs who had been conspicuous by their unusual absence had drifted up and were looking for food which had been cleared away. To show their disgust they made a run for Mini's car, stole his shoes which were lying by the side and ran off. Sammy had noticed and gave a yell and flew after the dogs, yelling and waving his arms. Mini Sausage then went in hot pursuit but by the time he caught up, Sammy had retrieved the shoes.

It was another great Thursday evening. Rambo will be stand in GM next week as I will be on holiday but see you the week after.

On On

We send our belated condolences to Gracie (Whatever) on the passing away of her mother recently. Our thoughts are with you at this sad time.

Funnies

Two paddies were working for the city public works department. One would dig a hole and the other would follow behind him and fill the hole in. They worked up one side of the street, then down the other, then moved on to the next street, working furiously all day without rest, one man digging a hole, the other filling it in again.

An onlooker was amazed at their hard work, but couldn't understand what they were doing. So he asked the hole digger, 'I'm impressed by the effort you two are putting in to your work, but I don't get it -- why do you dig a hole, only to have your partner follow behind and fill it up again?'

The hole digger wiped his brow and sighed, 'Well, I suppose it probably looks odd because we're normally a three-person team. But today the lad who plants the trees called in sick.'

A first grade girl handed in the drawing below for her homework assignment.

After it was graded and the child brought it home, she returned to school the next day with the following note:

Dear Ms. Davis,

I want to be perfectly clear on my child's homework illustration.

It is NOT of me on a dance pole on a stage in a strip joint surrounded by male customers with money.

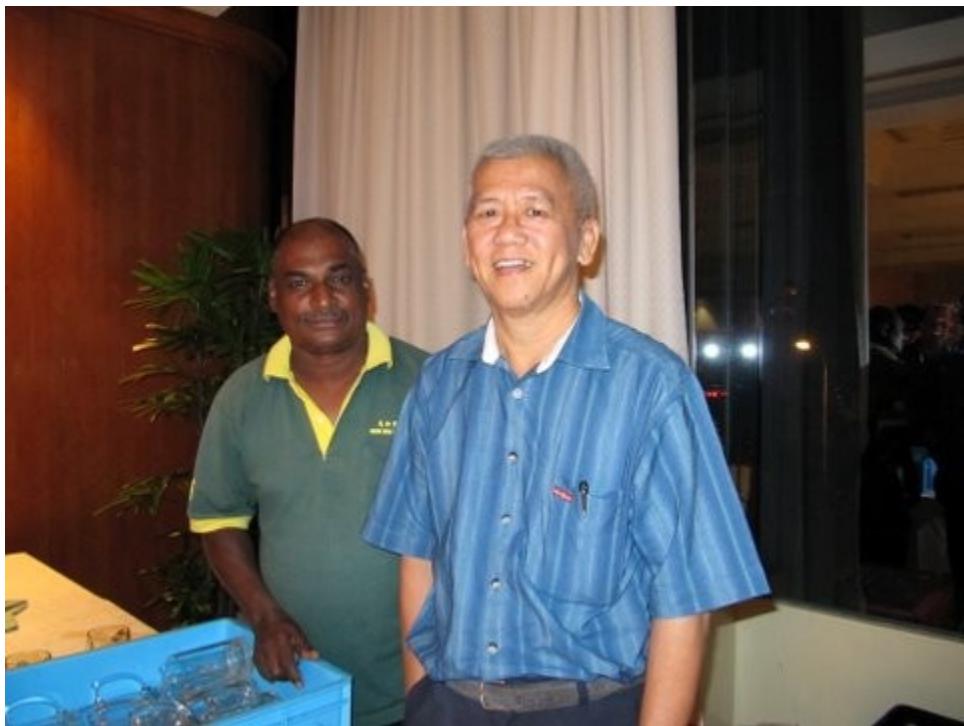

I work at Home Depot and had commented to my daughter how much money we made in the recent snowstorm. This drawing is of me selling a shovel.

Sincerely,
(Mrs.) Harrington
