Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

It was great to see everyone and be able to do the run last night. It reminded me just how much I have missed Harriets! For once the Gods were kind to us and it was a beautiful clear, dry evening. Perhaps it wasn't us they were being kind to – the temple had a stage rigged up in the main car park area and an enormous spread of food in the temple itself. So we had a side cultural show which started off traditional but as the evening progressed turned to disco.

I am so out of touch that I announced the wrong run site for next week –humble apologies. The run was billed as a mystery run and no one seemed to know what the mystery was but Mini suggested we might have to find a run by ourselves as there would be no paper. The run was billed as short to medium with two checks.

Off we trundled to the right if you are facing the temple. The first hazard was negotiating the bare mudslide right at the beginning. That achieved we continued on the usual path and upped the pace a bit and then slowed down for every slippery bit. It wasn't long before we hit the check which was very neatly clipped to a tree.

Mini went forward a tad and then off to the left. Goodyear, G-man and I went forward. All the front runners found nothing and were returning to the check. The back runners of course had taken the correct direction and were already calling on paper.

We continued winding round to the left until we hit the usual very steep on up. Everyone sucked their breath in deeply, put on a determined look and starting the upward heave. Although no one said anything you could read the 'thank god it's a short run' thoughts. Sweat began pouring off and you had to keep your distance from other runners if you didn't want to be rained on.

Eventually we hit the top and then were rewarded with a lovely jog back down to the cars.

We had a short circle. The reason for the Special/Mystery run was to acknowledge and thank the first person on ice, Fancy Pants! FP has been a member of the Harriets since 2000, has generously supported all events and continues to be a member even though a lot of his time is now spent in Germany. He was presented with a mug from the club, as a thank you.

Justbeer was the next on ice because she was celebrating her 300th run. Congratulations Justbeer. It was good to see 'General' J C Soon once again so we iced him as a welcome return.

Sai Seng was then iced as it was nice to see him also after so long away. Michael Longhair iced Speed Hound but I am not sure what the charge actually was.

Fancy Pants then iced Justbeer, Speed Hound and Edna (a Cheng look alike) as they were the three beauties that encouraged him to join the Harriets. Last but not least, Rambo was iced to represent the hares (Justbeer and Akzhole were co-hares) and the run was deemed good, the food marvelous and the location ideal.

Many thanks to the hares Rambo, Justbeer and Akzhole for organizing another great Thursday evening.

Our best wishes go to Rose Jones who had an eye operation on Thursday. We all wish you a very speedy recovery and hope to see you again at the run very soon.

Down Downs

The Special Run was organised as a thank you and a belated farewell to Fancy Pants. He has been a fantastic supporter for the Harriets over the last 11 years and a good and true friend to many. He definitely is a Harriet through and through since even after leaving in November he came straight back at the earliest opportunity and ran with us once again. Karin and Theo are here for another few weeks but we could not let this chance go without showing our appreciation. The pictures show how he got his name!!

Congratulations to Justbeer for completing her 300th run.

Monty did his now infamous “Lord George” song!

We welcomed back 'General' J C Soon who always runs with us on his visits to Penang!

As we did with Sai Seng. He has been MIA for some time now but it was great to see him once again. Come more often!!!!

Rambo was iced as the Chief Hare for the day

A charge from the floor saw Speed Hound on the ice but the charge was loudly countered by her during its telling and hence most of us missed what it was all about!!

Theo then called out Justbeer, Speed Hound and Cheng (Edna stood in as lookalike). He told us how all those years ago, three beauties welcomed him to the Harriets and made him sit with them and what a great time he had!! He never forgot the great welcome they gave him!

That's the Harriets for you!!

The Evening

The Gang and the Guest of Honour!

Birthday Greetings this week go to:

Speed Hound

We all wish you a very Happy Birthday!!

Funnies

A farmer named Lakbir Singh was overseeing his herd in a remote pasture in Bolehland when suddenly a brand-new BMW advanced out of a dust cloud towards him.

The driver, a young Malay man in an Armani suit, Gucci shoes, Ray-Ban sunglasses and YSL tie, leans out the window and asks the farmer, "If I tell you exactly how many cows and calves you have in your herd, will you give me a calf?"

Lakbir looks at the man, obviously a yuppie, then looks at his peacefully grazing herd and calmly answers, "Sure, why not?"

The yuppie parks his car, whips out his iPad, connects it to his Cingular RAZR V3 cell phone, and surfs to a NASA page on the Internet, where he calls up a GPS satellite to get an exact fix on his location which he then feeds to another NASA satellite that scans the area in an ultra-high-resolution photo.

The young man then opens the digital photo in Adobe Photoshop and exports it to an image processing facility in Hamburg, Germany. Within mere seconds, he receives an email on his iPhone 4 that the image has been processed and the data is stored.

He then accesses a MS-SQL database through an ODBC connected Excel spreadsheet with email on his iPhone 4 and, after a few minutes, receives a response. Finally, he prints out a full-colour, 150-page report on his hi-tech, miniaturized HP LaserJet printer and finally turns to the farmer and says, "You have exactly 1,586 cows and calves."

"That's right. Well, I guess you can take one of my calves," says Lakbir.

He watches the young man select one of the animals and looks on amused as the young man stuffs it into the trunk of his car.

Then Lakbir says to the young man, "Hey, if I can tell you exactly what your business is, will you give me back my calf?"

The young man thinks about it for a second and then says, "Okay, why not?"

"You're a graduate from Oxford and a Member of Parliament for Umno," says Lakbir.

"Wow! That's correct," exclaims the yuppie with the customary Umno's Wow Factor, "But how did you guess that?"

"No guessing required," answered Lakbir. "You showed up here even though nobody called you; you want to get paid for an answer I already knew, and to a question I never asked. You tried to show me how much smarter you are, and you don't know a thing about cows. This is a herd of sheep."

Now give me back my dog."
