Notes from the On Sex

Hi Everyone,

It was clear and sunny when Mike and I set out to lay paper for AML's run on Thursday. The trail was already in our minds and since we thought we knew what we were doing it seemed relatively simple..on paper at least!! The start was up the initial steps and then to the right, instead of going straight up. We hadn't gone this way for sometime and hence thought it would make a change to do so. So up we climbed along the pathway and through to the farms. A few adorable yapping puppies joined us as we passed by seeking attention and certainly wanting to play but we had work to do. The fruit season is drawing near and all around were pruned and well kept areas where one could see the endeavours of the farmers. It is a nice area and a pleasant walk or jog along here. We carried on and then put a check by the deserted farmhouse (although there were plates outside??) and hoped people would take the bait and go along that pathway. No-one ever owns up though to going the wrong way, so one never finds out if the check worked or not! The real route was just further along the path and in through the banana trees and through to the back of the farm and on into the jungle. As I scouted ahead, I vaguely remembered coming down this way on another run and hence plunged on and up! My short legs were at times too short to get me up some of the rocks and Mike had to give me a helping hand! Then it started to get steeper but it was easier to go up than down I remembered especially if it turned wet! On and up we went, Mike struggling a little after his long lay off but finally we hit the ridge and rested.

We turned left to head back along the ridge for the On Down, when we discovered another

Chapter's papers also taking the same route home. Some paper was clipped to the trees but there was plenty of paper littering the floor like discarded confetti at a wedding! No wonder Hash is getting a bad name in certain quarters. There is no need for such a proliferation of paper thrown on the ground...even if it does disintegrate over time. It looked awful! Finally we reached the runsite and headed home to get ready for the evening.

At around 6pm just as we were having the circle the clouds gathered and rain threatened. Initially it held off but after about 10 mins it started and got heavier, with thunder and lightening too. Good luck to the runners I thought as the ON UP was certainly going to cause problems as it was slippery during the day with no rain! True enough when the runners returned there were several comments both good and bad about the run...but at least ALL returned in one piece!

We settled down to eat delicious Hokkien Mee, Wanton Mee and Bak Kwa buns and caught up on the week's gossip and so all was well. However I must ask Alastair for his weather mantra though to keep the rain away in future.

So a big thank you to Cheah for all the arrangements for the evening. We had 33 members, 4 guests and 1 new member enjoy it all.

On On

On a rather pertinent point, here is a note from our GM:

Dear All,

Could you please do me a big favour? Could each hasher please pick up one small piece of garbage (plastic bottle, plastic bag, old paper - not the run paper of the day!!!!) in the jungle and bring it back to put in the garbage bag at the site. I think if we all did this one small thing, every time we ran, the trails we use would soon look so much better.

Thursday is the hash that cares. Let's show how much!!

On ...on...

Funnies

Russ and Sam, two friends, met in the park every day to feed the pigeons, watch the squirrels and discuss world problems.

One day Russ didn't show up. Sam didn't think much about it and figured maybe he had a cold or something.. But after Russ hadn't shown up for a week or so, Sam really got worried. However, since the only time they ever got together was at the park, Sam didn't know where Russ lived, so he was unable to find out what had happened to him.

A month had passed, and Sam figured he had seen the last of Russ, but one day, Sam approached the park and-- lo and behold!--there sat Russ!

Sam was very excited and happy to see him and told him so. Sam said, 'For crying out loud Russ, what in the world happened to you?'

Russ replied, 'I have been in jail.'

'Jail!' cried Sam. What in the world for?'

'Well,' Russ said, 'you know Sue, that cute little blonde waitress at the coffee shop where I sometimes go?'

'Yeah,' said Sam, 'I remember her. What about her?'

'Well, one day she filed rape charges against me; and, at 89 years old, I was so proud that when I got into court, I pleaded 'guilty'.

The damned judge gave me 30 days for perjury.
