Notes from the On Sex

Hi Everyone,

The VGM got the announcements out of the way and then we were off on a road run to Beverly Hills before the jungle. Up the man made steps (drain) through the bush and we were on to the path that leads to the crossroads for the short cut back or up to the ridge. At Rambo's request Huge waited for Peggy to catch up to him before so he could 'escort' her back to the runsite as she was feeling more than a little tired even at this early stage! Rambo and Silent Man caught me going up the familiar path to the top and as expected we crossed over to the other ridge and the On Down paper. Easy so far!!

Going down we made up lost time going up and caught up with Edna, Beauty Queen, Samantha and Bendover, shirtless as usual. The light was getting dimmer and we still had not reached the bottom when we suddenly found there was hardly any paper or simply NO paper in places and precious time and light was lost trying to find the trail. In the end torches had to be brought into use as the light went and Bendover led the pack up hill again. It seemed to the veterans that somewhere the trail was cocked up. True enough as it led to a very steep On Down, skirting a fence and a very deep drain. Bendover shout back instructions to the rest of us and slowly led us out and on to the far road. Many thanks Bendover!!

The Hare and co-hare admitted they cocked up the last bit and though it seemed an OK way out in the daylight, it was a nightmare coming out in the dark!!

Funnies

A lawyer and an engineer were fishing in the Caribbean.

The lawyer said, "I'm here because my house burned down, and everything I owned was destroyed by the fire. The insurance company paid for everything."

"That's quite a coincidence," said the engineer. "I'm here because my house and all my belongings were destroyed in an earthquake, and my insurance company also paid for everything."

The lawyer looked somewhat confused. "How do you start an earthquake?" he asked.
