Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

Well yesterday was a hash day! We met our co-hares at 10am and once organized with paper, staplers and the usual paraphernalia we set off by the Indian temple veering leftward. At first all went well. Huge knew exactly what he was doing and so the pace was reasonable. We were about half way up the hill when question marks started to arise. However, all was not lost as Huge had marked the trail periodically with paper and Justbeer is an excellent spotter and as she admitted was obviously a Red Indian in her previous life!

We were almost at the top of the hill when the real hooaha started as Huge had never actually done the connection between his up trail and the down trail. He knew clearly that we had to be on the hill to the left but then we saw a great path going to the right and well....you never...know....it might swing left. So off we plodded, clipping away but after some distance we were clearly going down to Leader Garden which would have been OK on a Saturday but too long for a Thursday. Nothing for it but to go back and retrieve all the paper.

Having got back to the place where we were sure, we spent a little time taking stock and checking the GPS and then hesitantly set off. Those of you that use a hand held GPS will know that the reading is good when you have three satellites and are standing still but the arrow will even do an about turn once you start moving. So we stopped and started and changed direction for about fifteen minutes. We knew approximately where we should be going but couldn't see a good route so Akz Hole was called to the front to beat a way through with his stick and eureka we get to the down trail.

There was a glitch as we had missed the top of the hill – we should have been further to the right- but what the hell we had a route! So we set the bar and clipped our way back to the cars.

We then retired to the beach- famished to have a very leisurely lunch and beers.

In no time at all, we were back at the run site. There was a good turnout of 37 members and a guest (Hoon) I decided to do the run again as I so rarely manage to do a Thursday run these days.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Grandma (Rose) to wish her happy birthday and say thank you for the beers given earlier. Next on ice was Bendover for being such a gentleman and taking care of the guest. Kissingher and Kiss Me were iced as a going away present since we won't be seeing them for a couple of months. Sammy was then iced for celebrating his birthday. Hoon was iced for completing her first hash run and deciding to be a member. Takecare was iced for not keeping his mouth shut. He took his revenge and iced GM for calling 'on paper' at the bar before she reached the paper. (This was true but I was trying to rally the scattering troupes!) Next Akz Hole iced GM for managing two runs in a row- her record this year! Finally the Hare – Huge was iced. The run was deemed good, the food delicious and the location amazing.

Many thanks Huge for yet another great Thursday evening.

Kali gave an invitation last week to the men's 2500th run in October. It would be good for Harriets to show support. G-string (Eliza) will co-ordinate our participation by collecting the RM 50 and putting your name on the list to give to Kali. Please note your name will only be put on the list if you pay as the club will have to pay for any no-show, no pay, no name on the list.

We send our good wishes for a very speedy recovery to Annelies who has broken her hip whilst in Holland. She is now back in Penang but is not able to get about so well for the moment. Take care Annelies and get well soon!!

ON ....on.

Funnies

Jewish husband and wife were having dinner at a very fine restaurant when this absolutely stunning young woman comes over to their table, gives the husband a big open mouthed kiss, then says she'll see him later and walks away.

The wife glares at her husband and says, "Who the hell was that?"

"Oh," replies the husband, "she's my mistress."

"Well, that's the last straw," says the wife. "I've had enough, I want a divorce!"

"I can understand that," replies her husband, "but remember, if we get a divorce it will mean no more shopping trips to Paris, no more wintering in Barbados, no more summers in Tuscany, no more BMW in the garage and no more yacht club. But the decision is yours."

Just then, a mutual friend enters the restaurant with a gorgeous babe on his arm. "Who's that woman with Moishe?" asks the wife.

"That's his mistress," says her husband.

"Ours is prettier," she replies...
