Newsletter 2059

Notes from the On Sex.

Hi Everyone,

With the usual announcements out of the way, the smaller than usual turnout for Thursday were sent on their way. As a co-hare I knew the path where the pack were heading to. Just at the entrance to Lily Pond the paper was on the left and up through fallen vegetation and ants scurrying everywhere as usual. The first check (a bar) took them around the hill and held up the front runners for a while and it was someone from the back who actually found paper going on up. The trail climbed higher and disappeared up even higher but without hitting the ridge. The second check really held things up for the front runners as they searched and searched for the trail. Some even went to the Hash Highway and a good 15-20 mins was lost in looking. Finally someone went back and to the left and low and behold there was the paper and off they all went again down the hill. Marks & Spender spotted a Cobra fortunately disappearing along the same path somewhere by the fallen logs and then skirted again and down to a shallow pool with lots of tadpoles, so no wonder there were snakes in the vicinity. Then it was up again until the Hash Highway was reached by point 19. Left along the Hash Highway and hit the track going down to the Waterfall. It is steepish in places but thankfully the weather was good and there are ropes now in the harder, steeper places.

Of course this is an ideal spot to refresh oneself after a sweaty run and more than one Hasher enjoyed having a dip in the rushing waters. Then it was back to the run site for a meal of Beehoon/Kuay Teow/Mee and Yong Tau Foo Soup made by Uncle Bee. So another great Harriets night. Thanks Rambo.

Funnies

An Australian, an Irishman and a Scouser (Liverpudlian) are in a bar.

They're staring at another man sitting on his own at a table in the corner.

He's so familiar, and not recognising him is driving them mad.

They stare and stare, until suddenly the Irishman twigs: 'My God, it's Jesus!'

Sure enough, it is Jesus, nursing a pint.

Thrilled, they send him over a pint of Guinness, a pint of Fosters and a pint of bitter.

Jesus accepts the drinks, smiles over at the three men, and drinks the pints slowly, one after another.

After he's finished the drinks, Jesus approaches the trio.

He reaches for the hand of the Irishman and shakes it, thanking him for the Guinness.

When he lets go, the Irishman gives a cry of amazement: 'My God! The arthritis I've had for 30 years is gone. It's a miracle!'

Jesus then shakes the Aussie's hand, thanking him for the lager.

As he lets go, the man's eyes widen in shock.

'Strewh mate, the bad back I've had all me life is completely gone! It's A Miracle.'

Jesus then approaches the Scouser who says,

'Back off, mate, I'm on disability benefit!'

Ralph and Edna were both patients in a mental hospital. One day while they were walking past the hospital swimming pool, Ralph suddenly jumped into the deep end.

He sank to the bottom of the pool and stayed there.

Edna promptly jumped in to save him. She swam to the bottom and pulled him out. When the Head Nurse Director became aware of Edna's heroic act she immediately ordered her to be discharged from the hospital, as she now considered her to be mentally stable.

When she went to tell Edna the news she said, 'Edna, I have good news and bad news. The good news is you're being discharged, since you were able to rationally respond to a crisis by jumping in and saving the life of the person you love... I have concluded that your act displays sound-mindedness.

The bad news is, Ralph hung himself in the bathroom with his bathrobe belt right after you saved him. I am so sorry, but he's dead.'

Edna replied, 'He didn't hang himself, I put him there to dry... How soon can I go home?'
