Newsletter 2060

Notes from the On Sex.

Hi Everyone,

Having co-hared the run the day before we hoped that it wouldn't rain and spoil the trail but of course it did during Wednesday night. Fortunately though it wasn't too heavy or prolonged and hence we didn't feel the need to go back on Thursday and relay paper since the 'Harriets' Paper was clipped. However for those of you who know that area, it can be quite tricky finding a way out since the last fringe of vegetation can be very dense and there are more than a few steep 'ravines' lurking in the undergrowth for the unsuspecting.

We had laid all the paper but had come a little too low to make an easy exit back of the Temple and so we had to be creative. I knew from a previous run that Black German had found a way out at the end of the road but somehow we missed this and Akz Hole put on his 'on a mission' face and went off in pursuit of the way through and what do you know he actually found one!! So we finished laying the paper and out we stepped from the bush just where we wanted to be but then I was thinking it was quite tricky coming out that last 100 metres and how will they do it in the dark...could be dangerous but by then it was late and we decided that it will do.

Over night I had more thoughts and hence we arrived early at the run site to relay the end section after the front runners had returned and if we felt it was needed. Goodyear was first back but didn't see any problem with the ending and so we waited for the return of the rest of the pack. They came in in dribs and drabs, some having missed the paper or a turn and had to double back. The light then began to fade and hence I sent Akz Hole off to relay paper for the back runners and guests. Just after he left a whole gang of runners led by Black German came down the road, obviously using his old trail and later on Akz Hole appeared back at the run site with the two guests in tow. They had actually gone to Bkt Gambir Temple but were shown a path to take to get back on the right side where they picked up the newly relaid paper.

There was a very good turn out with around 33 members and 7 guests showing up was what turned out to be an excellent Harriet night! Thanks Molly.

Please note we still have the voucher for a 1night 2 day stay at the Tanjung Bungah Hotel for auction. If we get no serious bids this week it will be returned to Gracie.

I arrived at the run site late at 6.10 p.m. due to work commitment and heavy traffic at Green Lane. The runners were off by then. Bibi Tulips came a few minutes later. I was told that there were two checks, but not to worry about them, probably the trail would have been joined up and laid with papers by the front runners. The run began at a rambutan orchard which would lead us to the base of the on-up just behind a newly constructed apartment. Along the way I met two hashers “returning” from the run, informing that they did not want to continue the run after they heard dogs barking loudly and furiously from a distance.

After a short distance, indeed I heard dogs barking and also shouts of “on paper” probably after the discovery of the paper trail following a check just behind the apartment. I waited for Tulips to turn up before traversing across the rambutan orchard down to the “belukar” just behind the apartment. Tulips wished she could jump into the swimming pool, which looked inviting. Michael Longhair also turned up, and we went into the belukar. I could recognize the terrain thereat where we used to run through when I first started hashing at the turn of the century, but to our dismay, there were remains of rubbish and dwelling left there by our construction friends. The trail turned upwards onto a steep slope and after a few minutes we met up with guest runners led by Alan. At this point Tulips informed me to run on my own as there were companies of runners that she could run with.

So on I went and reached the main ridge and met up with Edna and gang, and some guests led by Black German. At some point at the ridge the trail turned left and I could recognize this trail as leading to either the Bukit Gambier run site, Bukit Jambul run site or Taman Pekaka run site. Glad to see that there were undergrowths on the slopes as this area was cleared by farmers then.

I ran down this trail and was looking forward to home base when I realized that there were no signs of our rectangular papers. I retraced upwards and rejoined the trail which obviously turned into the right as we need to traverse from Bukit Gambir to Island Glades. By then I could hear some runners trudging down from the ridge and I shouted at them to turn right.

Again I missed some papers and began to hunt for them when Bendover and Tulips who had by then overtaken the other runners at the ridge, arrived. I finally found the trail which turned upslope and after some additional ‘mini ups and downs’, finally reached home base.

At home base the late runners trudged in from another trail, probably having missed the papers at one point and were soundly jeered at.

The run was indeed well planned and thought of by the hare of the day and her co-setters. The food was delicious and we returned home satisfied that we had pushed ourselves to another work-out despite our “youth”.

On On!

Bunny of the Day

Molly

Many Thanks for a good run, great food

Down Downs

Our evening's guests being 'warmly' welcomed.

Sai Seng hasn't been around for some time so the VGM gave him an especially warm welcome and told him to RELAX!!

Disorginator (who is living in Schwarzenegger's home town in Austria) was honoured as a visiting GM. He told us that originally he was called Orginator but his organising skills were so bad they changed his name!!

Not sure why Sai Seng called out the bunny and then sat on the ice with her!

Funnies

Sister Mary Katherine entered the Convent of Silence.

The Priest said, 'Sister, this is a silent monastery. You are welcome here as long as you like, but you may not speak until directed to do so'.

Sister Mary Katherine lived in the monastery for 5 years before the Priest said to her, 'Sister Mary Katherine, you have been here for 5 years. You may speak two words.'

Sister Mary Katherine said, 'Hard bed.'

'I'm sorry to hear that,' the Priest said, 'We will get you a better bed..'

After another 5 years, Sister Mary Katherine was summoned by the Priest. 'You may say another two words, Sister Mary Katherine.'

'Cold food,' said Sister Mary Katherine, and the Priest assured her that the food would be better in the future.

On her 15th anniversary at the monastery, the Priest again called Sister Mary Katherine into his office. 'You may say two words today.'

'I quit,' said Sister Mary Katherine.

'It's probably best,' said the Priest, 'You've done nothing but bitch since you got here.'
