Newsletter 2062

Notes from the VGM.

Hi Everyone,

I was saddened to see the Waterfall near the Indian Temple all dried upon my arrival at Tembaga. No more freshness and the happy rattling sound of flowing water was no more to be heard.

I met Gracie (Bunny) all ready and excited to set off her medium run for us. As accidents can happen, Justbeer slid down a slippery path and hit her knee on a tree sustaining some bruises and cuts, whilst setting the run. So we should tread carefully. Hope you recover soon Justbeer and hope it'll be OK for your forthcoming trip.

Many thanks Gracie for the good food, a beautiful choice of venue and a good challenging run. Not forgetting Alexis for the 'Passion and Kick' soup so suitable after a nice run. Thank you.

Just a reminder to please keep our run sites clean and tidy and pick up after yourselves. In this way we will be able to return.

Burst

Run number: 2061

Date: 180811

Venue: Jln Tembaga Waterfall

Bunny: Whatever

Scribe: Akz Hole

Maps.....I like maps. I can study them for hours. I like to pour over the details, the topography. Work out how to get from one place to another and see the relationship between one place and another. It is a fascinating subject but does it make me a cartographer or even a topographer? I neither make the map nor do I take the data from the terrain. But maybe I'm a map junkie!!

To help me in my 'hobby' I purchased a GPS last year and now every run I or Justbeer do we take the data and then computerise it to show what we did, how far and how high. I would have never have known which trails went where or how they interconnect if it wasn't for that little piece of NASA magic or for the people who put all these maps on the net for public. My hats off to you all and a big thank you.

So what has all this waffle about GPS and maps got to do with the burst for last week's run? Well Whatever asked if I would be Co-hare and of course I said yes. So knowing where we were to start I looked out some of my old data and planned a run. It is getting harder and harder to do something different in Penang as our run-sites get fewer and there are many Chapters who run from the same places. But vision is a wonderful thing and looking on the maps of previous runs and getting to know the terrain at least makes it a bit easier to visualise a run. A GPS is good for some things but it doesn't tell you everything and sometimes you just need to KNOW the terrain too but it helps!!

Anyway the run: The On In was by the usual route at the steps. Then on around to the right, passed the new badminton court and on up the trail towards the shrine. Just through the shrine right again and skirt the hill with an eventual climb up through the bush to the Tea House on top. At the Tea House left and down the hill but then straight on up to the ridge on the Farlim side of the hill. A bar was strategically placed going down the hill towards Farlim which caught out quite a few. The real trail going straight on along the ridge until it descended onto the Green Hill Hiking trail by the fruit farmers. Here the short-cutters had a chance to bale out since going left along the trail would have brought them back to Tembaga. However the paper took them right and up the trail the other way until it turned in to the concrete track leading to the farmer's house and the orchards behind. Up through the fruit trees, barely harvested and lots of lime falling to the ground uncollected..what a waste.. before entering the bush once again for a steep climb up to Tembaga ridge before dropping down and out at the Badminton court.

A couple of interesting things though that despite all the paper being laid and in view, one front runner came out by way of the trail. The excuse was that he was running and missed the paper. Hmmmmmmmm...a likely story. However a new runner doing only her third run and first with the Harriets was way behind the others but completed all the run by FOLLOWING PAPER since she didn't know the terrain. Kudos to her.

Bunny of the Day

Whatever

Many Thanks for a good run, great food

Down Downs

Our guest Vidya was late back but managed to complete it in the dark and alone!
She deserved a nice sit down!!

Toddy Tan has been MIA for some time. Please come and run more often.

Bend Over on ice as a reward for always being helpful on the run.

ICING THE BUNNY

Whatever

With Co-Hares, Uncle Bee, Akz Hole and Justbeer

Thanks Gracie. A very good evening!!

Run Setting

Papers, staplers, 'bullets', water. Check. All ready to start to set.

A rather tired looking Bunny. Well it was her first run for some time!!

The Evening

Getting Ready!

Michael Longhair in a usual pose!

Just what you need after a good sweat

Take Care and his growing harem or maybe that should be 'no hair em!!'

The serious business of eating!!!!

Comrades in arms!!

Toddy Tan survived despite his long absenteeism

Hard Khaw chillin' out after the run!

The Pin Up Girls!!

Divya was a guest, who arrived late but still went in. She was a little slow since this was only her third Hash run. She fell behind the others and was left all alone. But did she panic...well only a little but she did the only thing possible when alone and in unknown territory. She followed paper and came home safe and sound, if not a little tired.

A worried looking Bunny welcoming Divya back home!

The On Sex also having an encouraging word with Divya.

Funnies

As good as this bar is," said the Scotsman, "I still prefer the pubs back home. In Glasgow, there's a wee place called McTavish's. The landlord goes out of his way for the locals. When you buy four drinks, he'll buy the fifth drink."

"Well, Angus," said the Englishman, "At my local in London, the Red Lion, the barman will buy you your third drink after you buy the first two."

"Ahhh, dat's nothin'," said the Irishman, "back home in my favourite pub, the moment you set foot in the place, they'll buy you a drink, then another, all the drinks you like, actually. Then, when you've had enough drinks, they'll take you upstairs and see dat you gets laid, all on the house!"

The Englishman and Scotsman were suspicious of the claims. The Irishman swore every word was true. "Did this actually happen to you?"

"Not meself, personally, no," admitted the Irishman, "but it did happen to me sister quite a few times."
