Newsletter 2065

Notes from the GM.

Hi Everyone,

It was great to be able to run for once! There were 25 runners and four late arrivals (Posh, LV, Bill and Monty) for Toddy's run at the Indian Rovers. In the circle Toddy, after scrambling around for paper (!) , told us the run was short and there were no checks.

We were to run to the end of the road and go in via the cemetery. Suddenly there was a load of wolf whistling and palava and seconds later all was explained as Grasshopper swooped by on his bike with Beauty Queen grinning from ear -to- ear, clutching on behind!!!

The beginning was along the usual trail, the on-up steep and non-ending and the on-down on the concrete path. I will leave the details to G-man who has kindly agreed to write the burst.

We had a short circle. First on ice was Coming Soon to welcome him back and berate him for his drop in fitness level. Next Key-in- the- Crack and Bendover were iced for driving new cars – in spite of the recession, they are obviously doing well. The next couple on ice was Beauty Queen and Grasshopper. Beauty Queen was charged with starting the run on a motor bike and Grasshopper with aiding and abetting. Akz Hole then charged GM and Huge as returning runners and welcomed them back.

It was obviously an ark day with charges being made in twos as if Noah had called them. Posh and LV were iced for not wearing hash gear. However it was good to see them as they couldn't come in time for the run. The General was on ice next. The charge was causing GM concern – he was late back but had been seen on the on down. He had found the run too short and had gone off on an additional loop.

Last on ice, was the hare, Toddy. It was unanimously agreed that the run was good, the food delicious and the site great. As there were no more charges the circle was then closed. Some members were lucky as they had left early and hence avoided a charge!

Many thanks Toddy for a great Thursday evening.

Burst

Run: 2064

Venue: Indian Rovers Club

Hare: Toddy Tan

Scribe: Geeman

The Hazy condition wasn't very encouraging but I needed the sweat as I was feeling rather lethargic. Indian Rover Club at Rifle Range road is quite near and the thought of a few beers after the run was quite appealing! Toddy Tan duly flagged off the run at about 6pm...SHORT RUN! ...Wasn't very convincing though and off we went along Rifle Range road towards the entrance to No.39 where we had our usher, Grasshopper guiding us to the right via the jungle path. Soon we were in familiar territory skirting a bit right but generally up up and up until we hit the cement road at marker No. 28 where we were led back down towards to the same way we went in. It was a short run indeed although there were two middle aged bald and semi bald "lunner" who decided to hold hands extending their run up to 39 then 45. Both of them triggered a panic button among some concerned "harriets" when they failed to return on time however some of us wasn't really bothered as we knew one had a GPS and the other with an "excellent" sense of direction. Sure enough they return unharmed, smiling sweetly as they trotted gaily to the pack....hmmm....! LOL!!!!!! On! On!

Funnies

My 1 day employment

So after landing my new job as a Wal-Mart greeter, a good find for many retirees, I lasted less than a day....

About two hours into my first day on the job a very loud, unattractive, mean-acting woman walked into the store with her two kids, yelling obscenities at them all the way through the entrance.

I said pleasantly, 'Good morning and welcome to Wal-Mart. Nice children you have there. Are they twins?'

The ugly woman stopped yelling long enough to say, 'Hell no, they ain't twins. The oldest one's 9, and the other one's 7. Why the hell would you think they're twins? Are you blind, or stupid?'

So I replied, 'I'm neither blind nor stupid, Ma'am, I just couldn't believe someone slept with you twice. Have a good day and thank you for shopping at Wal-Mart.'

My supervisor said I probably wasn't cut out for this line of work.
