Newsletter 2080

Notes from the GM.

Hi Everyone,

Hope you have all had a great partying time and that the hangovers have not been too bad! Last Thursday we congregated at Bee Gallery for LVs Birthday Run. Although the morning had been glorious sunshine, just before hash the sky had opened up and saturated everything. This combined with the fact that people were saving themselves for the festive parties meant there were only 31 members present.

In the circle Posh told us the run was medium and to stay on paper or we would get stung. So off we went to the Botanic Gardens with Money Manfred and Goodyear setting the pace in the front. After the gazebo we turned into the jungle. The steps and concrete path were wet, moss-covered and slippery so I slowed down as I didn't want a broken or twisted anything for Christmas. I went into one of my dreamlike states but soon woke up to the fact I was alone and not on paper. After yelling 'Are you?' I heard calling over to the right and made my way back to the run but by the time I got there I was in the middle of the pack and then had to slowly weave my way forward.

The hill here is steep and required an all-out effort to haul ourselves to the top at a reasonable speed. Once over the top we started on the on down and very soon Marks and Spencer, Speedhound and myself were roaming around trying to find paper. We called but got no reply even though there were runners ahead! After five minutes Marks and Spencer told us to follow the path down as this at least would take us back.

Off we set and tried to get some speed up to make up for lost time. This was when we realised we were on the trail as there were patches of well-set paper and gaps. We presumed hikers had picked some of it up. I stuck like a leech to the others as my knowledge and sense of direction leave a great deal to be desired! We exited by the bridge crossed over and ran back along the road to the haven of the beer truck.

Being the very talented lady LV is, the table of food looked wonderful with a magnificent cupcake creation at one end. The food kept the gathering busy and quiet for a considerable period of time.

We had a brief circle. First on the ice was Grasshopper who was charged with being stand in Sammy. We then iced Sammy for going AWOL. This was a most unfortunate icing as he had been off to visit a sick relative who had died during his absence. GM tried to be invisible but after saying sorry had to get on with the circle.

We iced Rambo for coming late again. Take Care was iced for forming a rival circle. Whatever was then iced for being so concerned with the singing and songs LV was called in next. We sang Happy Birthday to her and she cut the cake. The circle then decided the run was great, the food superb and the location brilliant.

The rest of the evening was spent singing songs, drinking beer and chatting. Many thanks LV for another wonderful Thursday.

Happy New Year

On on .....

Announcements

40th Anniversary

Our 40th Anniversary will be celebrated on Saturday February 18th 2012. This is such a milestone and it would be fantastic if all our members supported the event. We will do our utmost to make it a memorable one. The venue will be the Quarry and the registration will start at 1.00pm and the frolics will continue until 12.00 midnight.

In order to avoid hassles and difficulties the fee for all comers will be RM 50.

If you have ideas for entertainment items etc. please talk to any member of the committee.

All Harriet members will get RM 20 discount on their next year's sub if they join the 40th celebration. Please pay the run fee before Dec 31st to claim your discount. We can not give a discount to people who have not paid the fee! The discount will be given on the FULL Year membership!

Committee members have forms to fill up (we need to know your T-shirt size and the length of run you want to do so that you are properly catered for) I hope everyone will support the event - it will be good!

For the 40th we will be giving participants a CD instead of a magazine. If you would like to place an advert on the CD or write a congratulatory message the cost is RM 20. Colour or black and white makes no difference. Please give your artwork/logo/business card together with your RM 20 to any committee member. Please ensure you get a receipt for it!

Funnies

A man lay sprawled across three entire seats in the posh theatre. When the usher came by and noticed this, he whispered to the man, "Sorry, sir, but you're only allowed one seat." The man groaned but didn't budge. The usher became impatient. "Sir, if you don't get up from there I'm going to have to call the manager." Again, the man just groaned, which infuriated the usher who turned and marched briskly back up the aisle in search of his manager.

In a few moments, both the usher and the manager returned and stood over the man. Together the two of them tried repeatedly to move him, but with no success. Finally, they summoned the police. The cop surveyed the situation briefly then asked, "All right buddy, what's your name?" "Sam," the man moaned. "Where ya from, Sam?" With pain in his voice Sam replied "The balcony."

A policeman was patrolling a local parking spot overlooking a golf course. He drove by a car and saw a couple inside with the dome light on. There was a young man in the driver's seat reading a computer magazine and a young lady in the back seat knitting. He stopped to investigate. He walked up to the driver's window and knocked. The young man looked up, cranked the window down, and said, "Yes Officer?"

"What are you doing?" the policeman asked. "What does it look like?" answered the young man. "I'm reading this magazine." Pointing towards the young lady in the back seat, the officer then asked, "And what is she doing?" The young man looked over his shoulder and replied, "What does it look like? She's knitting."

"And how old are you?" the officer then asked the young man. "I'm nineteen," he replied. "And how old is she?" asked the officer. The young man looked at his watch and said, "Well, in about twelve minutes she'll be sixteen."

An eight-year-old boy went into a grocery store and picked out a large box of laundry detergent. The grocer walked over and asked the boy if he had a lot of laundry to do.

"Oh, no laundry," the boy said, "I'm going to wash my dog."

"But you shouldn't use this to wash your dog," said the grocer. "It's very powerful and if you wash your dog in this, he'll get sick. In fact, it might even kill him."

But the boy was not to be stopped and carried the detergent to the counter and paid for it.

A week later, the boy was back in the store to buy some candy. The grocer asked the boy how his dog was doing.

"Oh, he died," the boy said.

The grocer said he was sorry, but added, "I tried to tell you not to use that detergent on your dog."

"Well, the boy replied, "I don't think it was the detergent that killed him."

"Oh? What was it then?"

"I think it was the spin cycle!"
