Notes from the GM.

Hi Everyone,

What a wonderful first run of the year!

By the end of the evening there were 50 members at Beauty Queen's run and a group of Butterworth Hazards, Yolanda, Jerry, Carry Mee, Beauty Queen's sister and a group of her friends.

In the circle we were told it was a short run with a bar and a check. Akz Hole vaguely waved his hand in the general direction of the start and said the first challenge was to find the paper. Most of us were still suffering from over eating and were eager to get a good sweat up so we jogged off. As to go straight up seemed normal we thought we would have to go via the houses which we had done on a run in the dim and distant past. Luckily the ever stalwart Lucas got on his bike and saved us from our misery.

Having back tracked, gone by the side of the restaurant and up the road a bit we were soon clambering up the hill. Due to the extended festive waistlines the speed slowed down to a snail's pace. It was not long before the check was called. There was a definite scattering of the troupes and a little pause before 'on on' was called. We were still going up and the going was slippery because it was very dry shale grit but most of us got into a good rhythm and were thoroughly enjoying the trail.

We got to the bar and Anjalai picked it up so we could close the trail. This was where things fell apart. We checked to the right up and down and then to the left up and down. We then asked the female working on her garden and she gave us a very shifty look and then said it went up and then down and buried herself back in her chores mighty fast. We went up a bit- nothing, then we went down a concrete path – nothing and then we decided to return to the last piece of paper in case we had all missed something obvious.

Most of us knew more or less what direction we had to go in so I decided to try one more time – up and over to the left. I met Gman doing the same and he said we should just start heading back as the paper had obviously been sabotaged. I agreed and stuck to his backside like a leech. I know if I get lost I will have hell to pay!

After a bit of skirting and following farmer's paths we hit the concrete road and found everyone else going the same way back. In no time at all we were back and had had a sweat so called it a day and got changed.

After everyone else had started to socialise Goodyear appeared having found the paper!

We had a very brief circle. Goodyear was iced first because he is normally full of Bullshit but had on this occasion been the only all the way runner. We then iced Akz Hole who had completed two hundred runs. Congratulations! Beauty Queen was iced and congratulated for putting on a party evening.

After the circle we had a sit down meal and then the dancing started. I imagine the party continued until the hash were thrown out. I had to leave just after eleven because I was working on Friday.

Many thanks to Beauty Queen for making the first run of the year so brilliant. The T-shirts were such an added bonus! What a generous supportive lady.

On on .....

Funnies

- (1) Deep within a forest, a little turtle began to climb a tree. After hours of effort, he reached the top, jumped into the air waving his front legs and crashed to the ground. After recovering, he slowly climbed the tree again, jumped, and fell to the ground. The turtle tried again and again, while a couple of birds sitting on a branch watched his sad efforts. Finally, the female bird turned to her mate. "Dear," she chirped, "I think it's time to tell him he's adopted."
- (2) The class assignment in composition was to write about something unusual that happened during the past week. Little Irving got up to read his. "Papa fell in the well last week - " he began. "Good heavens," shrieked Mrs. Kroop, the teacher. "Is he all right now?" "He must be," said little Irving. "He stopped yelling for help yesterday."
- (3) A man in a bar sees a friend at a table, drinking by himself. Approaching the friend, he comments, "You look terrible. What's the problem?" "My mother died in June, and left me $10,000." said the friend. "Gee, that's tough," he replied. "Then in July," the friend continued, "My father died, leaving me $50,000." The man looking concerned says, "Wow. Two parents gone in two months. No wonder you're depressed." The friend continues, "And last month my aunt died, and left me $15,000." "Three close family members lost in three months??? How sad!!!" "Then this month,..." continued, the friend, "Nothing! Not a single dime!"

Outstation Run

Last weekend 10 of our members went along to the 8th Anniversary Run of the Taiping Lake Hash. It was a low key affair but still several hundred people turned up and the Taiping Lake Hash organised a good event. We went along not only to participate but also to take advantage of advertising own our 40th Anniversay Run and in this we were fully supported by the TLH and the President of the Malaysian Hash Council. We had a number sign up on the day and quite a few enquiries to whom we have now sent the information. I also met with or was introduced to many of the GM's from other Chapters who also attended and passed along our invitation. I think events like this are important to go to and be recognised. The TLH were really appreciative of our being there and even the GM of the SP Cheetahs, who were also advertising a run, apologised for chosing the same day! It remains to be seen what actual response we do get but I think we should definitely do more outstation runs in future.
