Newsletter 2088

Notes from the VGM

Hi Everyone,

There were members already at the run site. I was late! Hastily I got my gear in place and handed the bag and cards to Huge. I quickly called the circle, introduced the guests and announced next week's run. Huge announced the run in lieu of the working Tiny. It was a medium run with a couple of checks.

Off we went towards the interior of the hill to the temple, up the rocky waterfall and ascending to the height of Mount Pleasure Hill. The On Up was pleasant. At the top we skirted around the hill until we reached another On Up level and there made a U-turn downwards and home.

There was good food to be had back at the runsite and was much appreciated by us all. So thank you Tiny.

At the circle 5 guests from all parts of the Globe were duly given the notorious 'cold bum' welcome but with our warm hearts. Goodyear was next after bringing fame to himself by decrying the horrendous illegal logging of the trees in Penang and bringing it to the attention of the authorities. He certainly was a "Star"....FRONT PAGE no less!! Sai Seng also got in on the act once more for his now customery weekly icing....perhaps it the free beer he likes!! Finally Huge representing Tiny, was given our thanks for a good run, good food and a good location.

Tiny arrived later in the evening looking all fresh and lovely. It was great you could enjoy the rest of the evening with us. Many Thanks for a wonderful night!
