Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

The 40th went well – of course there were some blips but we are not event organisers just people doing our best. Many thanks to all our sponsors and donors without your generosity the evening would not have been possible. Many thanks to all who helped in any way - it was very obvious to outsiders that we had members who were willing to help and contribute and many outsiders came up to say what a lovely club it is – their dream is to be like us!!!!!! Last but not least thanks to all the members for their support before and during the event.

The AGM is coming up. All lady members please try to attend and please ensure that you vote in the people you want on the committee. Some people in the past have said the result was railroaded. This will only happen if you don't speak up.

On on.....

Reviews of the Day

Penang Harriets 40th Anniversary Run

Scribe: Hari Hari Mau (+ Ghost Writer!)

Fantastic! I can't improve on our GM's famous adjective to describe the whole event on Saturday. From the runs to the food, the venue to the beer, and the Goody Bag! Every aspect had been well thought out and well executed... except those bloody lights from the stage, which shone in our eyes all night! So that's the one whinge out of the way and that's a small one in the whole scheme of things.

When we arrived in the middle of the afternoon, the sun was SO hot that we expected heat exhaustion cases, but then, mercifully, the sky clouded over and all survived with the help of the free 100Plus and medicinal beers. Thanks to the posse of willing helpers, runners were registered and given their goody bags without hassle, although the shirt sizing inevitably caught some people out. Hopefully they were all able to find their reciprocal misfits and were all happy in the end.

And what goody bags they were! Maybe family connections allowed the GM to consult Father Christmas after he had finished filling all the Christmas stockings! PH3 set a high benchmark with their recent ones but the Harriets certainly didn't lose any face with this one... shirt, long pants embroidered patch, sticker and a host of other handy bits and pieces. How is it all going to end?

Even the rain held off until people didn't care anymore. Take Care said the party was still on when he made his way home around 11.30 so the determined hard core was not put off by the shower, and, whether we left early or late, all of us had a real night to remember.

On on to the next 40 years!

Harriets 40th Anniversary.... 2012-02-18

Venue: Penang Quarry and Botanical Gardens

Scribe: Kissing(h)er.

The Hash House Harriets of Penang's 40th ANNIVERSARY....

What an event!!

When I was asked to write a description of the “short to medium run”... I could not help but consider the run against the larger context of the event...

Just think.... 40 years ago, a few adventurous women did what only one other group had done previously—set up a “Hash House Harriets chapter” here in Penang... and, 40 years later we are still enjoying the benefits!!!

The event had many components which had to “come together” in order for it to be as exciting to all of the [400+] participants who gathered from many chapters all over Malaysia as well as Indonesia, Thailand [and visitors from the U.S., Canada, Europe and Oz].

And, the celebration of such a milestone was not only enjoyable... but also memorable!!

The “short run”, encompassing the Quarry and neighbouring Botanical gardens is well known to all Penang Hashers... but, when viewed through the eyes of the many visitors, the venue was a “bit magical”...

And, set the stage for the other aspects of the event.

The “goodie bags” were great... with the brilliantly designed T-shirt and long pants [a most novel and welcome addition], beer glass, key chains, condoms [with an associated list of places where they could be put to good use] etc. And, everyone received one!

The “pre and post-run” food was generous and also “provided much needed fuel and electrolytes” for those undertaking the long run... and even those such as your most humble scribe who stretched the short run... and returned “nackered” [due to the heat/lack of a breeze].

The meal was most generous, varied, well prepared and hot... and did Penang's reputation proud [as the food capital of Malaysia].

The drinks were, unlike the food, cold and NEVER ENDING!!!

The music and entertainment help contribute to and enhance the whole evening,

The “down downs” recognized several remarkable members... including:

ROSE JONES/GRANDMA: has completed more than 1300 runs.

The “40th anniversary committee”, that ever so capably organized the event—and, in so doing, demonstrated that even after trying to “mighty mis-manage everything”...

Fortunately failed, and we ended up with a thoroughly amazing, enjoyable and memorable celebration!

And,

EDNA: who has served on more “mis-management committees” for more years, and contributed very substantially to the chapter’s longevity than anyone I know!!

As for the “short run”...

It was very difficult to get lost between the quarry and the botanical garden and back, in spite of the thousands of members of the public [and dozens of Monkeys] who were also visiting/using the Botanical Gardens for recreational purposes.

The run showed off the many features and varied topography of the excellent venue...

And,

also allowed those “more adventurous hashers” desiring a chance to explore some trails leading to less visited areas [as well as the “hidden pond”] to do so...

The various “run designers” coordinated their efforts...

AND

brought together many of the runners who undertook the longer and shorter runs... as they all ended up on the same paths in the Botanical Garden! Interestingly enough, quite a few of these runners chose to take the longer route back to the quarry in order to see more interesting features of these gardens!!

As was indicated to your scribe by a number of people attending the event... the superb efforts expended by the committee members were most appreciated!!

Funnies

A man comes to his doctor and tells him that his wife hasn't had sex with him for 6 months. The doctor tells the man to bring his wife in so he can talk to her. So the wife comes into the doctors office and the doc asks her what's wrong, and why doesn't she want to have sex with her husband anymore.

The wife tells him, "For the past 6 months, every morning I take a cab to work. I don't have any money so the cab driver asks me, 'So are you going to pay today or what?' so I take a 'or what'. When I get to work I'm late so the boss asks me, 'So are we going to write this down in the book or what?' so I take a 'or what'.

Back home again I take the cab and again I don't have any money so the cab driver asks me again, 'So are you going to pay this time or what?' so again I take a 'or what'. So you see doc when I get home I'm all tired out, and I don't want it any more."

The doctor thinks for a second and then turns to the wife and says, "So are we going to tell your husband or what?"

Little Johnny is walking down the hall when he hears a noise from his parents room. He knocks on the door and asks his mom what's going on. "Playing cards," she replies. "Who's your partner?" asked little johnny. "Your father!"

Content with his answer, Little Johnny walks further down the hall towards his room when he hears the same noise coming from his sister's room. Again, he knocks on the door and asked his sister what was she doing. "Playing cards." "With who?" he asks. "My boyfriend!" she says.

A short while later, Little Johnny's father is walking down the hall and hears a noise coming from Little Johnny's room. He knocks on the door and asks "What are you doing?" "Playing cards!" replied Johnnny. "Who's your partner?" asked his father...

Little Johnny answers promptly, "With a hand like this who needs a partner?"
