Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

The weather was not kind to us for most part of the day, but towards the later part of the evening it began to brighten up. I was not sure who the Bunny for the day was for the AGM RUN.

Lucky for us, Mike and James were there to help us do the needful- Thanks Mike, “what a great Soul” Anyhow I got started by setting off the run, so as not to get any runners coming late for this AGM and the meal, which was going to be a sumptuous and delicious buffet. I just did not want anyone to miss out on it.

The AGM started at 8.30pm. The GM note was read she appreciated the support of the committee and all the members. The office bearers gave their reports and it was unanimously approved. I thank the outgoing committee for the good job done especially our own 40th Anniversary celebration.

The New Committee was elected in, after some “Ding Dong” amongst members in taking up post. Eventually GM is me, VGM is Anjalai and ON CASH is Rose Jones – Thanks for volunteering your service for the year.

The ON SEX was also elected, however a hiccup arose and we do not have an ON SEX NOW . POOR HARRIETTES!!! The post in the New Committee for 2012 for ON SEX IS VACANT. Harriettes, please help the club to maintain its good reputation of good fellowship, neverending delicious food, fun, and your entertainment. Only you members can help the club in the long run by VOLUNTEERING YOUR SERVICES AND SACRIFICES. COME BE THE CLUB'S ON SEX..

NOW IT IS PAY BACK TIME!!!!!! ..
ON! ON ! ON!

Run Number: 2091

Venue: Bee Gallery

Scribe: White Lion

Hare: AGM Run

VGM Rosie stepped in the circle and announced the run being set up by Mike as someone in the Committee was too busy to remember to lay paper..... Poor Mike....! Again on up....!

He announced that the run would be a short to medium and recommended everyone to follow Harriets paper only as two other chapters were running on the same hills.

So the “dirty dozen” went off, no more than 15 runners actually, and we all had the feeling the run would be a rather short one due to the pending Harriet AGM after makan.

Crossed the bridge on the right we begin to climb on the usual slope up, then after a while, there was a tricky check, soon avoided by the majority as Money Manfred kept on shouting “stay up, don’t go down” so we all felt very grateful to such a tenor voice breaking the jungle silence. Steve Spermwhale and his tiny girlfriend passed us in a hurry. Then we went along the ridge which was becoming wetter and wetter and we all had troubles to stay in a vertical position. Take Care popped in from behind and claimed to pass, which we did.

After a tortuous but mild up and down, and just at the beginning of the real ascend, Speedhound Anjalai showed all her hound-agility by shooting relentlessly up the steep hill: how she maintained the balance it’s known only to her...

Another 30-40 minutes of extremely slippery and steep up lead us to the long-sought main way down where we met 3 or 4 FTAC Members almost sneering at us “slow-runners”.

Far away down we heard some unidentified voice calling “where you” and we always reply with the greatly encouraging “on-up”! We didn’t bother to wait for them as we feared a long way down and in the meantime it was already about 07:10pm...

We hurled the way down, actually we trotted as best as we could without hurting our butt too much, but we had to slow down in some turns as it was practically impossible to maintain the balance without grabbing trees and branches and lianas.

At a certain point there were two ways, one right, the usual one, and one left: the paper was leading left, to our surprise, so we had to follow down and down and down again till we saw far away the construction site along Mt. Erskine Road bordering Tanjung Bunga: we wonder whether we were still following the right paper and upon check and recheck we decided that it was “our paper”, so we kept on following it.

Finally we reached the well know Indian temple which was under renovation and from that point onward we knew where we were leading at. In fact, after some long-abandoned stone steps we landed at 07:40 behind the condo along the Waterfall Road and soon at the beer-wagon.

There we found a colorful catering company with a huge red-lighted buffet table with dozens and dozens of Hashers and Harriets.....where were they all hiding at...? On the side there was a caterer frying Char Quey Teow, very tasty too.

Our pains disappeared the moment we approached the buffet table and we restored the level of our empty belly....Mmmmmmmhhh....such a bounty of good food.....! Compliments to the Harriets for having set up such a marvelous dinner! Upon presentation of our card we all got one beer free, another nice surprise of the evening!

After not too long the AGM terminated with the good news that Rosie Rambo became GM, Anjalai Speedhound VGM, Rose Grandma Hash Cash but no OnSex....!

The run was by all means very nice, demanding and attractive, but Mike, please, next time, just shut up regarding the length of it, just don’t say anything anymore..... will you...?! Ahahahah.....

Funnies

1. Siamese twins walk into a bar in Canada and park themselves on a barstool.

One of them says to the bartender, "Don't mind us; we're joined at the hip. I'm John, he's Jim... Two Molson Canadian beers, draft please."

The bartender, feeling slightly awkward, tries to make polite conversation while pouring the beers. "Been on holiday yet, lads?"

"Off to England next month," says John. "We go to England every year, rent a car and drive for miles. Don't we, Jim?" Jim agrees.

"Ah, England !" says the bartender. "Wonderful country... the history, the beer, the culture..."

"Nah, we don't care for British stuff," says John. "Hamburgers and Molson's beer, that's us, eh Jim? And we can't stand the English - they're so arrogant and rude."

"So why keep going to England ?" asks the bartender.

"It's the only chance Jim gets to drive."

2. Did you ever wonder why there are no dead penguins found on the ice in Antarctica? - where do the bodies go?

Wonder no more ! ! !

It is a known fact that the penguin is a very ritualistic bird which lives an extremely ordered and complex life. The penguin is very committed to its family and will mate for life, as well as maintaining a form of compassionate contact with its offspring throughout its life.

If a penguin is found dead on the ice surface, other members of the family and social circle have been known to dig holes in the ice, using their vestigial wings and beaks, until the hole is deep enough for the dead bird to be rolled into and buried. The male penguins then gather in a circle around the fresh grave and sing this song...

"Freeze a jolly good fellow" "Freeze a jolly good fellow."

Then they kick him in the hole!
