Notes from the GM

Hi Everyone,

The crowd was small when the run started. Goodyear said it was going to be a Medium run and to follow Harriets' paper. Indeed it was a beautiful run gentle, gradual climbing and on down slopes. It did take us 1hr 45 mins to completed the trail. Top of the Bkt Jambul we saw Relau settlement on the left with farm land below us. Penang Bridge, the seashore and the surrounding in the northern area. The paper trail was well pinned and very clear direction. Good Job ! Well done Good Year.!!

By the time I came out, I heard that Supergirl was still inside accompanied by a male guest. This time she will not be lost, as they went in at 7pm. Glad they were out at 8.48pm all well and smiling away. Happiness lah and satisfied lah.

We had a few guests Raymond, Kali and Lingam and had a welcoming ICE sitting session for them. Lucas charged Take Care because Take Care daughter did well in the SPM exam. Take Care treated us with one crate of Beer. I was charged by Lucas for small circle formed. Hare of the day was on ICE for his effort taken to set the run, gave us a Nasi lemak and Meat Bun treat for the Evening Meal and also a crate of beer.

Thank you Good Year for a cool and enjoyable evening in Bukit Jambul, or maybe Bukit Batu cos of the stony path.

ON! ON! ON! ON!

Being a relatively new hasher I have never been to that run site. I arrived about half an hour before the run, and was a bit surprised to see only 3-4 cars. The Run Site seems very good place in fair weather, and today the weather was just right – low sun and a breeze blowing gently along the road, so we were not overheated before the run.

Seems as Kali has invested in a new mountain bike. Money and he were discussing the correct position of the handlebars. Money was convinced that one side of the handlebar was lower than the other.... Later Kali was trying out the bike by going down the slope. He came back quite exhausted after a while, and declared it was easier to hash than to ‘run’ a bike uphill...

A few more cars were now coming and Rambo called circle at 6.00 PM. No guests to welcome. We counted the hashers and ONLY 14 seem to be ready to go. Being known for long runs Goodyear was not too surprised about that – but the co-hare Money convinced us that it was a nice run and not difficult. Goodyear announced: “HHH paper clipped on leaves and trees - medium run – no checks – just go”.

Off we went down the road towards west / northwest, found the paper after a 100 meters – up a small slope and after 20m hitting the paved road that leads up to the water tank. Shortly after we hit the jungle trail to the left, and we had an easy and slow ascend. We were skirting on the western side of the hill in north west direction. After a while it became steeper and we reached a small plateau, where there was a magnificent panorama south west to the well know hills at Sungai Ara - and towards north to Penang Hill. The breeze cooled well our heated and sweaty bodies. Before reaching Bukit Kukus there was an almost 200 m rather steep ascend. This was the top of the trail and then on-down. Soon appeared another beautiful panorama towards the north east - overlooking George Town and the Bridge.

An easy trail took us rapidly down, and after a short ‘on-up’ we reached another of the Bkt. Kukus & Jambul hiking trails. Stairs and rocks was then our destiny – which my twisted foot was not too happy about – but eventually the paved water tank road appeared. Coming down to where we started the entrance to the jungle we bumped into Huge who came out where we earlier went in...again an SCB. Back at run site we heard that Supergirl and Joey had started the run late - but they had equipped themselves with a torch, so perhaps an other rescue mission was not needed...

Good run site, good run with well laid paper, interesting terrain and fantastic view points – thanks to Goodyear - and thanks to the co-hare Money M for moderating the run.

Hare of the Day

Goodyear

Many thanks for a good run, good food, free beer.

Down Downs

Welcome to PH3 GM – Black German

Welcome the guest - Raymond

The GM put Grasshopper on ice to find out how he was, since he has not been able to run recently due to injury

Beauty Queen was caught trying to escape before the circle was over and hence was iced for disrespect.

Akz Hole put our guest Lingam on ice. He has done 400+ runs with Batang Hash but none with Harriets. He was invited to come along next time.

Lucas charged Take Care as an acknowledgement for his daughter doing very well in the SPM exams. The proud father treated us all to a crate of beer to celebrate.

The GM was charged by Grasshopper for conducting a disorderly circle.

Icing The Hare

A good run, good food and free beer – A hasher's delight. Thanks Goodyear

Joey needed cooling down after his late return, so Goodyear invited him to sit along side.

The co-hare Money Manfred also got into the act!!

Funnies

1. A mother and her daughter were at the gynecologist's office. The mother asked the doctor to examine her daughter. "She has been having some strange symptoms and I'm worried about her," the mother said.
The doctor examined the daughter carefully and then announced, "Madam, I believe your daughter is pregnant."
The mother gasped, "That's nonsense! Why, my little girl has nothing whatsoever to do with men." She turned to the girl. "You don't, do you, dear?"
"No, mumsy," said the girl. "Why, you know that I have never so much as kissed a man!"
The doctor looked from mother to daughter, and back again. Then, silently he stood up and walked to the window, staring out.
He continued staring until the mother felt compelled to ask, "Doctor, is there something wrong out there?"
"No, Madam," said the doctor. "It's just that the last time anything like this happened, a star appeared in the East and I was looking to see if another one was going to show up."
2. I was sitting in the waiting room of the hospital after my wife had gone into labour and the nurse walked out and said to the man sitting next to me, "Congratulations sir, you're the new father of twins!"
The man replied, "How about that, I work for the Doublemint Chewing Gum Company."
The man then followed the woman to his wife's room.
About an hour later, the same nurse entered the waiting room and announced that Mr. Smith's wife has just had triplets. Mr. Smith stood up and said, "Well, how do ya like that, I work for the 3M Company."
The gentleman that was sitting next to me then got up and started to leave. When I asked him why he was leaving, he remarked, "I think I need a breath of fresh air."
The man continued, "I work for 7-UP."

3. An elderly woman went into the doctor's office. When the doctor asked why she was there, she replied, "I'd like to have some birth control pills."
Taken aback, the doctor thought for a minute and then said, "Excuse me, Mrs. Smith, but you're 75 years old. What possible use could you have for birth control pills?"
The woman responded, "They help me sleep better."
The doctor thought some more and continued, "How in the world do birth control pills help you to sleep?"
The woman said, "I put them in my granddaughter's orange juice and I sleep better at night."
4. The doctor and his wife were having a heated argument at breakfast. As he stormed out of the house, the man angrily yelled to his wife, "You aren't that good in bed either!"
By midmorning, he decided he'd better make amends and phoned home. After many rings, his wife, clearly out of breath, answered the phone. "What took you so long to answer and why are you panting?"
"I was in bed."
"What in the world are you doing in bed at this hour?"
"Getting a second opinion."
5. The tired doctor was awakened by a phone call in the middle of the night. "Please, you have to come right over," pleaded the distraught young mother. "My child has swallowed a contraceptive."
The physician dressed quickly; but before he could get out the door, the phone rang again. "You don't have to come over after all," the woman said with a sigh of relief. "My husband just found another one."
6. A man goes to his physician and is shocked to find that he has been replaced by a super-computer. The computer asks him his ailments and the man says he has a sore elbow. A drawer pops out and he is asked to urinate in it. After a few bleeps and flashing lights the computer decides he has tennis elbow.

The man is annoyed and decides to get one over on this machine so he asks his wife for a urine sample. He then mixes this with urine from his dog and his small son and to top it off, adds some of his sperm. He takes it to the computer-physician who again asks him for a sample. He places the urine/sperm sample in the drawer and the computer makes its usual display of bleeps and flashes before telling him that his wife is pregnant, his dog has rabies, his son has chicken pox and if he doesn't stop masturbating he'll never get rid of his tennis elbow.
