Newsletter 2100

Note from the GM

Hi Everyone,

The weather was good for 'Iceman' Eugene. It rained in most parts of the island where I came from. The Iceman had freezed all the rain water in readiness for his run. We were back in the "smelling land"- Charlie Market. Iceman announced it is a medium run, just followed the paper, don't know how many check. Fifteen runners made the way to the hash highway. It took me about forty- five minutes to reach station 18. What a slow one I was looks like I need more of my stamina to be pump up lah.

We had 2 guest Raj and Nathan from New Zealand. They did the Maorie dance for us after experience the ice sitting. Toddy, Sai Seng and Micheal longhair performed the Lion dance for us. Well done Guys and Thanks !!.

Hugh celebrated his 100th run and as a surprise gift he was co-indecently greeted by a snake along the path. We celebrated lily's Birthday with song while she sat on ice.

Since Iceman had taken 8 hours to cook the Irish Pork Stew, we all gobble it within half an hour. I would like to Thank Iceman for the effort in preparing the dinner, setting the run and treating us to a crate of Beer. To appreciate, the Hare of the day some of the members with monthly sang the "Monthly Song." We all walked in a circle with Iceman in the centre, sitting on ice.

The evening was cool and some members came to join us for a social evening.

Arrived at the Water Tower run site about 20 minutes late with my two guests, Rud from New Zealand and Scarlet from Singapore, both up in Penang on the military exercise to defend Malaysia from the Celtic ginger red-headed warriors from the northern lands! Two of their spies - Danish Viking Jurgen (Hash Name?) and Irish Wolfhound Iceman soon leave us behind in the mud at the first on up building site, with Scarlet – City State girl - in shiny white new shoes struggling to progress down through thick foot-viney jungle on trail churned up by front runners. But thanks to the rain it was also nice and cool up as we finally break clear of thick bush and follow occasional paper On On up. Rud (also known as Raj – I don't know why as he's not Indian or an elephant?) also abandoned me to my handbag duties as it became clear that it would be dark very soon. I asked Scarlet if she wanted to go back but being from Singapore (kia su) she was determined to finish!

Fortunately we catch up with Beauty Queen and realizing our predicament she kindly stayed back to show the way with the torch. But Beauty Queen please learn that night vision is destroyed when shining torch straight in the eyes every few yards! On down weaved past many machine gun and swarms of mosquito. We almost step off the cliff just above the run site but luckily just enough light from the apartments to save us from falling to an untimely end! The hosepipe wash down was fun, the food was fantastic and overall the run was good hard trail made slippy by the rain, but more paper needed lah!

Funnies

1. "Mister, why doesn't this cow have any horns?" asked the young lady from a nearby city. The farmer cocked his head for a moment, then began in a patient tone, "Well, ma'am, cattle can do a powerful lot of damage with horns. Sometimes we keep'em trimmed down with a hacksaw. Other times we can fix up the young 'uns by puttin' a couple drops of acid where their horns would grow in, and that stops 'em cold. Still, there are some breeds of cattle that never grow horns. But the reason this cow don't have no horns, ma'am, is 'cause it's a horse."
2. A man asked his wife what she'd like for her 40th birthday. "I'd love to be six again," she replied. On the morning of her birthday, he got her up bright and early and off they went to a local theme park. What a day! He put her on every ride in the park: the Death Slide, the Screaming Loop, the Wall of Fear, everything there was! Wow! Five hours later she staggered out of the theme park, her head reeling and her stomach upside down. Right to a McDonald's they went, where her husband ordered her a Happy Meal along with extra fries and a refreshing chocolate shake. Then, it was off to a movie - the latest Disney and what a fabulous adventure!

Finally, she wobbled home with her husband and collapsed into bed. He leaned over and lovingly asked, "Well, dear, what was it like being six again?" One eye opened. "You idiot, I meant my dress size." The moral of this story is: When a woman speaks and a man is actually listening, he will still get it wrong.

3. An old farmer had owned a large farm for several years. He had a large pond in the back forty, had it fixed up nice; picnic tables, horseshoe courts, basketball court, etc. The pond was fixed for swimming when it was built. One evening the old farmer decided to go down to the pond, as he hadn't been there for a while, and look it over. As he neared the pond, he heard voices shouting and laughing with glee. As he came closer he saw it was a bunch of young women skinny-dipping in his pond. He made the women aware of his presence and they all went to the deep end of the pond.

One of the women shouted to him, "We're not coming out until you leave!" The old man replied, "I didn't come down here to watch you ladies swim or make you get out of the pond, I only came to feed my alligators." Old age and treachery will triumph over youth and skill every time!
