Note from the VGM

Hi Everyone,

As the GM is away, I received a last minute SMS to write out. To be very honest I just don't know what to write because I was late for run, I don't know who the guest, did not do the full run and did not stay for the circle.

Anyway I had a good workout with my junior Darveen, Sai Seng and his god son. All I know it was a good long run. The front runner took 1 hour plus.

It was good to see FTAC members together after a long time. "Welcome". We had fantastic food, what a spread!!. Many many thanks to Chris and Uncle Bee's Bah Moi. Once again many thanks guys. ...ON ..ON

This is our first Harriet's run for the year. We arrived separately a few minutes late and found that the Hashers have gone except for the usual hangers-on who do not run/walk at all and a few faces I recognised as FT hashers.

After a slow start of changing into my walking shoes etc I did a gentle walk round the garden, mainly checking on the plants and flowers around (this being my second since my fall last year in Laos).

Back on site most runners were back and there was a hive of socialiing and drinking with buffet style spread of food prepared by the Hare. There was also the famous Uncle Bee's 'Bak Moi' which everyone dug into. I later learnt that it was a joint run with the FT. It was good to see old faces and trust myself to be at the same table with the GM who was happy to see me after a long absence and rewarded me by asking me to write a short burst. We were also put on ice to welcome us back. Frank came back after most runners as three different coloured papers were found and confusing but managed as the terrain is a familiar hash site.

A very good number stayed for the circle with much contribution and Hokkien singing from the FTAC members. It was a very successful night with plenty of food and drinking. Thank you to the Bunny for the food and the FT for setting the run. Well done! On On

Funnies

1. A woman goes to her doctor who verifies that she is pregnant. This is her first pregnancy. The doctor asks her if she has any questions. She replies, "Well, I'm a little worried about the pain. How much will childbirth hurt?"
The doctor answered, "Well, that varies from woman to woman and pregnancy to pregnancy and besides, it's difficult to describe pain."
"I know, but can't you give me some idea?" she asks.
"Grab your upper lip and pull it out a little..."
"Like this?"
"A little more..."
"Like this?"
"No. A little more..."
"Like this?"
"Yes. Does that hurt?"
"A little bit."
"Now stretch it over your head!"
2. I was sitting in the waiting room of the hospital after my wife had gone into labour and the nurse walked out and said to the man sitting next to me, "Congratulations sir, you're the new father of twins!"
The man replied, "How about that, I work for the Doublemint Chewing Gum Company."
The man then followed the woman to his wife's room.
About an hour later, the same nurse entered the waiting room and announced that Mr. Smith's wife has just had triplets. Mr. Smith stood up and said, "Well, how do ya like that, I work for the 3M Company."
The gentleman that was sitting next to me then got up and started to leave. When I asked him why he was leaving, he remarked, "I think I need a breath of fresh air."
The man continued, "I work for 7-UP."

- 3. While attending a convention, three psychiatrists take a walk. "People are always coming to us with their guilt and fears," one says, "but we have no one to go to with our own problems." "Since we're all professionals," another suggests, "why don't we hear each other out right now?" They agreed this is a good idea. The first psychiatrist confesses, "I'm a compulsive shopper and deeply in debt, so I usually overbill my patients as often as I can." The second admits, "I have a drug problem that's out of control, and I frequently pressure my patients into buying illegal drugs for me." The third psychiatrist says, "I know it's wrong, but no matter how hard I try, I just can't keep a secret."
