Note from the GM

Hi Harriets,

It is so good to be back after our long vacation and for myself a three month break from hashing which has seen the kilos pile on in all the right places!!

Money must have prayed to the Gods very hard as the day was cloudy but the evening cool and balmy which brought out a good 40 members and 4 guests (Hole in None from Japan, Horse and Yong Tau Fu who are ex members and Jerry Loh) for the evening's activities. Let's hope the good weather continues to entice more members to come and run with us again.

The run itself was straight forward, or so it should have been but it was done by all in reverse, as someone, who shall remain nameless, called on paper even though it was facing the wrong way and the pack, as with sheep, just followed - myself included!! Only one person actually did it correctly as Manfred had laid out.

The wet muddy ground was excellent for mud skiing but hard on overweight hashers like yours truly who suffered going up the hill. It was a good workout and despite thoughts of "will I make it to the top?" was a tonic for the soul.

Thank you Manfred for the run, the food and a most welcome 2 crates of beer.

We had a shortish circle where firstly HHM called out and presented the new GM Justbeer who took her place on the ice throne. Then the GM welcomed the guests for the evening. HHM was iced for her appointment as the new On Sex and also to welcome her back from her own long vacation. A charge from the floor saw Take Care put Goodyear on ice for leading the whole pack the wrong way on the run. Tiny was iced since she cannot usually run on Thursdays because of work commitments so it was nice to see her at the run. She was followed by Iceman who was iced as the ONLY hasher to actually complete the run the right way around! Finally the Hare of the day, Money was iced in recognition of providing a good run, good food and TWO crates of beer. Thanks Money.

Hope to see more hashers at the run next week.

Funnies

1. I would like to share an experience with you, about drinking and driving.

As you well know, some of us have been known to have had brushes with the authorities on our way home from the odd social session over the years.

A couple of nights ago, I was out for a few drinks with some friends at the Marriott Hotel and had a few too many beers and some rather nice red wine.

Knowing full well I may have been slightly over the limit, I did something I've never done before:

I took a bus home.

Sure enough I passed a police road block but as it was a bus, they waved it past.

I arrived home safely without incident, which was a real surprise; as I have never driven a bus before and am not sure where I got it.

It's still parked in front of my house.

2. A little girl asks her mum, 'Mum, can I take the dog for a walk around the block?'

Her mum replies 'No, because she is on heat.'

'What does that mean?' asked the child.

'Go and ask your father. I think he's in the garage.'

The little girl goes out to the garage and says, 'Dad, can I take Luna for a walk around the block? I asked Mum, but she said the dog was on the heat, and to come ask you.'

He takes a rag, soaked it in petrol, and scrubs the dog's backside with it to disguise the scent, and says 'Ok, you can go now, but keep Luna on the leash and only go one time around the block.'

The little girl leaves but returns a few minutes later with no dog on the leash..

Surprised, Dad asks, 'Where's Luna?'

The little girl says, 'She ran out of petrol about halfway round the block, so another dog is pushing her home.'

3. Working people frequently ask retired people what they do to make their days interesting.

Well, for example, the other day, Bev my wife and I went into town and visited a shop.

When we came out, there was a cop writing out a parking ticket.

We went up to him and I said, 'Come on, man, how about giving a senior citizen a break?'

He ignored us and continued writing the ticket.

I called him an a--hole . He glared at me and started writing another ticket for having worn-out tires.

So Bev called him a s--t head. He finished the second ticket and put it on the windshield with the first.

Then he started writing more tickets.

This went on for about 20 minutes.

The more we abused him, the more tickets he wrote.

Just then our bus arrived, and we got on it and went home.

We try to have a little fun each day now that we're retired.

It's important at our age.
