Note from the GM

Mount Pleasure has a lot to offer, from easy short cut runs to harder ones using a bit of imagination and if people follow paper! So why is it that people shy away from doing the run, where you also can be 'blessed' by the monkey who loves to poo and pee from above? Never mind all that but I do like to thank all the numbers who did show up for the run or came a bit later.

We had a few guests, Bing, a friend of Jerry Low and Jerry himself once again. Madeline, a friend of the Bunny, Rob who came for dinner, even our old member Horse who showed up for a drink and Kenny Fruit stopped by for some water whilst doing his bike riding. It was also great to see some missing members turn up namely Suaran, Pauline, Samantha and Khaw. Nice to see you all again.

The run started just past the Fire Hydrant on the left of the stream and on in. From there it went.... well you should know if you did the run. But in any case we have a burst today so you can get more information from there.

Despite arriving late and hence starting after the other runners had gone, a very fit Iceman, was first out in around 45mins followed by an equally fit Goodyear. The sweaty ones were proof of how much they enjoyed the run whilst the non-sweaty ones did their own 'walk in the park'.

Thank you to all who came and conquered and to support the Bunny.

Many thanks go to Kiss Me (and Chef Kissingher) for a fine evening with lovely food.

The Circle

Firstly we welcomed the guests: Jerry, Rob, Bing, Horse, Madeline,

Iceman was then iced in recognition of achieving 100runs. Well done it only took 4 years!

Money Manfred was singled out for leading his Harem on a short cut trail which was even too short for the people following him!!

Horse was recognised by the GM as an old member who keeps popping up now and again for a fun evening and chat.

There were 5 members with birthdays in July but only 2 were at the run to be presented with the first Club cake to celebrate their birthdays. Kiss Me and Kissinger accepted on behalf of the missing.

The GM then asked Pauline to take centre stage to welcome her back after her illness. It was great to see you looking so good!

It was then the Bunny's turn to be iced (or rather, in this case, 1 foot) to be thanked for the run and good food provided. Many thanks Kiss Me.

Other News

Next week's run is hosted by Posh at Gertak Sanggul. This is a very old run-site and one we have not been to for many years. Please come and support.

Run Site: Mount Pleasure

Bunny: Kiss Me

Scribe: Iceman

This run site must be named after a house of ill repute, or could it be an innocent appellation for a small hill. There is now an empty building perhaps the said house, where we have the on on, it is also the location of a few condos. , and no doubt the hare/bunny reside there.

It is always a pleasure to come here, as the bishop might have said to the actress, and I'm not sure why this run site was out of favour by the hashers for so long.

Arriving a little after the pack left, join Michael Long Hair and the General in pursuit. Pink paper for going and white paper for coming, these were the instructions from Ax Hole the co-hare. Ax Hole has become the default co-hare for many. We are lucky to have one so willing to set runs, and so adventurous to try new routes. The alternative being a run at Bee Gallery every week!

Lots of pink paper leads us up to the left of the shrine at the end of the tar road. Up and down we go, sometimes with lots of vines and sometimes easy going. Meet Bibi Tulips and Mini Sausage and start going up. A short hill, then going down again. Must be near the twin towers water tanks (aka Beverly Hills) at this point, but then start going up.

Following Michael LH, who seems to have fully recovered from his injury, as he does not slow down when changing from on down to on up. The next on up is long and steep and even MLH has to go to a lower gear. We meet G-man and then Speed Hound. At the top have an "ah so" moment recognising the location of the on down from the previous run (Saturday) set at this run site.

From there it's on down all the way. Coming to a nice relatively easy part of the on down trail we see Money's behind in front, and in front of him the behinds of a stream of ladies. Money doesn't look behind, doesn't step aside, and we have to dodge around and in and out of the stream of ladies. A scream and a gasp, and we get past without knocking over any of the nine pins. Beauty Queen is leading this group and steps out of the way just in time to avoid a collision.

Find Good Year keeping his feet dry crossing the stream and in a flash we are at the shrine again and back at the beer wagon. Water Melon, and lots of good food to follow another well set good run.
