Note from the GM

It rained all night and was still raining in the morning when the Bunny, Mother Hen, called as she was concerned about the absence of shelter at TAR College. If it continued to rain we would have to adjourn to the Shop Lots but thankfully it cleared up and we had a lovely evening.

As I struggled going up the slopes I had a good mind to ask Silentman to go ahead but he assured me it was a short simple run and so I persevered. As we came across the snorting domesticated Wild Boars, May and a fellow guest Dinesh caught up with us. As she work in Batu Maung it was a struggle getting to the run-site on time but she did come and we are thankful to her for that.

They soon passed us and disappeared ahead just as we reached the on-up slope. We veered on the familiar path just 50 meters from the Hash Highway and then had the long walk back to the run-site. Bai Pass greeted me warmly just as he was about to leave but stayed a while longer to chat. I realised that the number of hashers had also swollen since the start of the run as more had arrived late from work. It was especially good to see all of the Green family there too since it was their last Harriet run before their return to Australia. Good luck from us all.

The aroma of delicious Moi whetted the appetite and bowls were being consumed 2, 3 even 4 times by certain individuals. It was made by Uncle Bee and is always a hot favourite.

The cool but dry evening, good food, free Guinness courtesy of Snow White whose birthday it was, Happy Birthday, followed by a crate of Tiger courtesy of the Bunny made for another great Harriet evening. Many thanks Mother Hen for everything.

The Circle

The Green family are returning to Australia after nearly 8 years in Penang. Over the years Sex Bitch and Gangreen have contributed immensely to the Harriets in many ways. We are all highly appreciative of your help and efforts and you will be missed. Thank you and good luck in your new life down under.

Guests, May, Dinesh and Rob were then suitably welcomed to the run.

The GM then charged Goodyear after hearing him ask Silentman to pluck 'Tongkat Ali' leaves during the run.

Next Tiny was welcomed back from her vacation with the added good news that her working times have changed and she will be attending the runs in future. FANTASTIC!!!!!!!!!!

Celebration time for Snow White on the day of his birthday. He responded by singing us a song “The Good Ship Venus” to rapturous applause and donating Guinness. A nice birthday cake was a surprise addition to the occasion.

Uncle Bee had to sit on the ice to hear how good her Moi was!!

Lastly but by no means least, the Bunny, Mother Hen was suitably rewarded for putting on a good run, great food and a crate of Tiger. Many thanks Edna, your prayers were answered and the evening was dry and fun.
