GM's Notes

It is that time of year when the days are short, the nights long and rain towards the latter part of the year and Thursday was no different!!

It seemed a VIKING night as there were 5 novice hashers who were guests of the Bunny (Michael, Ole, Nicolai, Signe and Daniel). We also had two visiting Americans (Kelly and Matt) as well as some local guests (Melons, Shirley, Joey and Rob). Our regular members arrived leisurely and all gathered under the just started drizzling rain! The outsourced hare (Viking) was wanting to get the pack off on time and so with announcements out of the way the Bunny got to say her piece before handing over to Viking to tell about the run. As the pack got away the rains came heavily and I was glad to be out of it. After about 45 mins it was 2 guests who were the first to emerge, Melons and Kelly who both remarked on the slippery and wet conditions. The rest soon followed with some turning back before the steep climb. By 7.45pm all were back and food was served. Thanks to AML for hosting the evening and with a good crowd of around 50 persons the atmosphere was a delight.

The Circle

Plenty of guests this week and all were welcomed to Harriets.

Since we had so many Danes in the crowd we decided to sit them on ice since they are used to the cold and were missing it!! Vikings ahoy!!!

The GM then charged Melons with being disruptive for continually being obtuse in the circle.

Take Care won a rice cooker at the Hash Ball and is now continually making saying “Very good lah!!”

The GM then proposed a vote of thanks to all who attended and helped with the very successful Hash Ball.

In light of the US election results our two American guests, Kelly and Matt, were iced in celebration of the Obama win. It was also noticed that they loved the food served and didn't ask where McDonalds was!!

The final icing of the evening was of course the Bunny of the Day AML. However since she is afraid being alone she asked if her co-hares, Viking and Money Manfred, could join her. The Circle's response was YES!!!!!! and so all three were thanked for a good run, good food and a party night!!

HAVE A HAPPY DIWALI EVERYONE!!!!!!!!!!

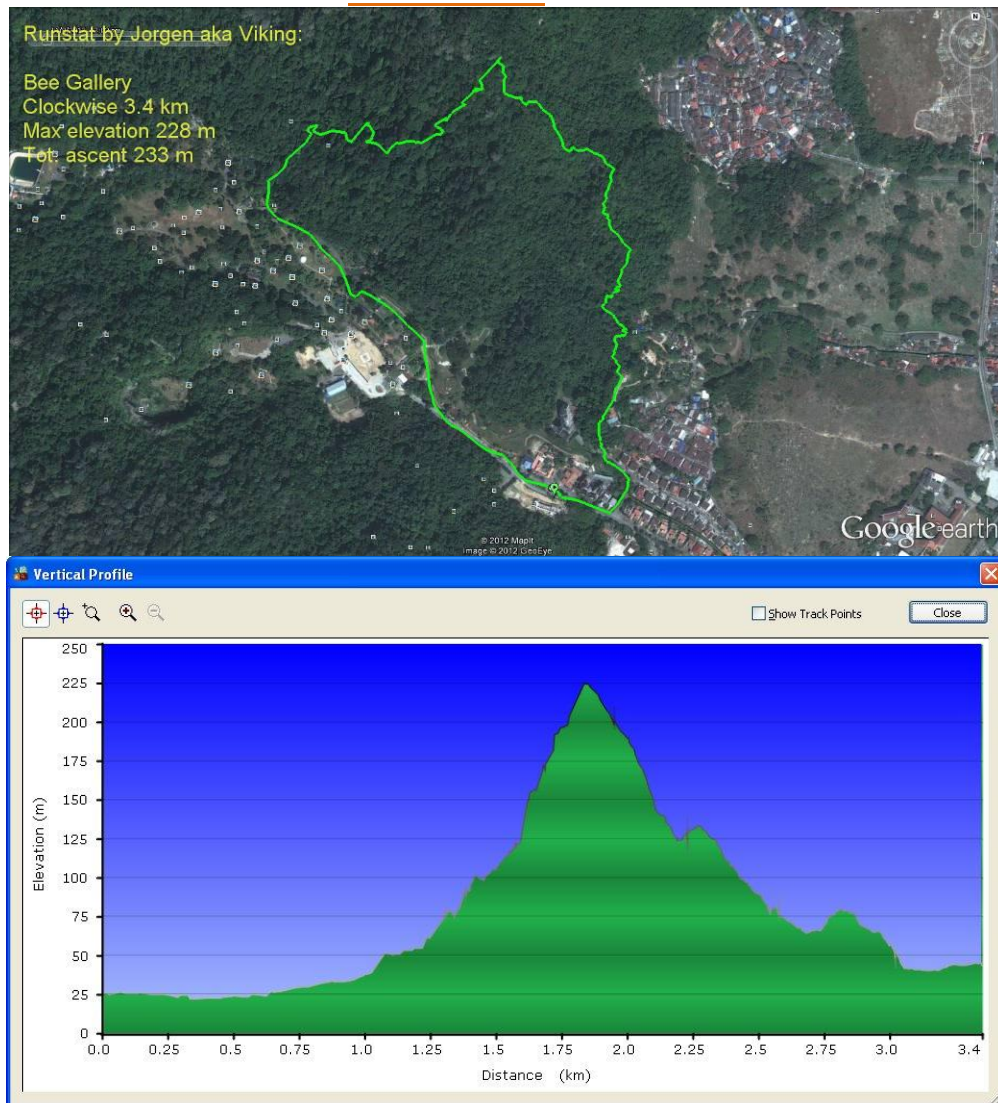

The Burst

Scribe: Gman

Been a damn busy week having had to set my Monday run as requested by the GM and now another request to write burst from another GM, aiya one GM bossy all GM bossy! am getting used to it. What more, the Secretary also requested me to stand in as official photographer for the day...hmmm! as if I don't have a life! It is AML's run and for those of you who do not know who and what AML is please ask the Viking.. plenty of them at the run and a few Bay City rollers from San Francisco not to mention some perpetual hasher. As the main contractor flagged off the run, I can't help but thinking that he must have been "Germanized" coz' it was a damn thorough explanation. Lily pond..tough on up, no short cut, bring torch, connect the check and bla! bla! bla! The FCB went straight for the kill with Melon and Goodyear trying to make an impression on the couple from SF little did they know that they were as fast if not faster. I was at my usual pace chatting away with Spermy and General before I headed off on my own as I got a bit to much for them...first turn at the Lily Pond and then right as the circle was broken by the FCB and connected too! The rain started pissing down and soon it was pretty slippery but thanks to my RM6.80 local football boots which was a gem in this kind of condition. Some said I got ripped off at that price while some try to rip off other at RM8...! It was a great on up, one which I have not done for some time and as I sped away up the hill leaving a bunch of Vikings behind, the FCB was no where in sight..damn! Familiar voices reverberated around the valley.. On Up! but as I glanced down the hill none was seen...must be my cheapo boots as I am not that fast. Then it was the familiar Soon Seng estate on down heading towards the Indian Temple and as I hit past the big tombstone Iceman appeared from nowhere like a wild boar trying to finish the run in record time. Soon it was all over as I hit B-Gallery and out with my camera.....! Great run and great food!

Important Note

This has come from Jorgen @ Viking after the run at the Info Centre recently.
Please take notice!!

I promised to convey a strong message from the friendly house owner in Taman Jesselton who opened his back gate for me, when I followed the wrong old FTAC paper - which I then lost...and eventually found myself just behind Jesselton. Since it was then pitch dark I decided to try to get out to the road, and then run back through Jesselton.

Cut the story short, he explained to me it is very very dangerous to move in the hills near Jesselton after dark. There have been a lot of break-ins and burglary attempts over the last few weeks - where foreigners (Indonesians) are coming down from the hills under cover of the darkness. The police are patrolling the area, and they are shooting (to kill) first and asking questions later - - if the 'victims' are able to answer. There have been several shots fired over the last weeks he told.

So hashers for our own safety we have to stay clear of that area!!

This should also be a warning to other Chapters.

Please let me have your venues as soon as possible.

The Circle

Welcome the guests

Vikings on ice!

And Take Care, of course

Congratulations to President Obama!

And congratulations to the bunny and her cock-hares!

The Evening

Take a Viking horde!

A few Germans (?)

Some Chinese of course

And a few other odds and ends

Add a popular bunny

And you are set for a good evening

Smiles all round

Of course, it's important to dress right!

The survivors look happy enough

Even if they are a little soggy!

Unlike the social hashers!

Who might have had somewhere else to go later...

Hashing can be very tiring though!!

Birthday Greetings

Tiny, Whatever and Goodyear

Funnies

1) An 80-year-old Scotsman went to the doctor for a check-up.
The doctor was amazed at what good shape the old fellow was in and asked:
'How do you stay in such great physical condition?'

'I am Scottish and I am a golfer,' said the old fellow: 'and that is why I am in such good shape. I am up well before daylight and out golfing up and down the fairways. I have a wee nip of whisky on each hole, and that's it.'

'Well,' said the doctor, 'I am sure that helps, but there has to be more to it. How old was your Dad when he died?'

'Who said my Dad died?'

The doctor was amazed.

'You mean you are 80 years old and your Dad is still alive
How old is he?'

He is 100 years old,' said the old Scottish golfer. 'In fact he golfed wi' me this mornin', and then we went to the topless beach for a walk and had another wee dram, and that is why he is still alive.
He is a Scot and he is a golfer, too.'

'Well,' the doctor said, 'that is great, but I am sure there is more to it than that. How about your Dad's Dad? How old was he when he died?'

'Who said my Grandad is dead?'

Stunned, the doctor asked, 'You mean you are 80 years old and your grandfather is still living! Incredible, how old is he?'

'He is 118 years old,' said the old Scottish golfer.

The doctor was getting frustrated at this point:

'So, I guess he went golfing with you this morning too?'

'No. Grandad could'nae go this mornin' because he is getting married today'

At this point the doctor was close to losing it. 'Getting married!!
Why would a 118 year-old bloke want to get married?'

'Who said he wanted to?'

2) Yesterday I was at my local Tesco buying a large bag of Purina dog food for my loyal pet, Jake, the Wonder Dog and was in the check-out line when a woman behind me asked if I had a dog.

What did she think I had an elephant?

So because I'm retired and have little to do, on impulse I told her that no,
I didn't have a dog, I was starting the Purina Diet again. I added ... that I probably shouldn't, because I ended up in the hospital last time, but that I'd lost 50 pounds before I awakened in an intensive care ward with tubes coming out of most of my orifices and IVs in both arms.

I told her that it was essentially a Perfect Diet and that the way that it works is, to load your pants pockets with Purina Nuggets and simply eat one or two every time you feel hungry. The food is nutritionally complete so it works well and I was going to try it again. (I have to mention here that practically everyone in line was now enthralled with my story.)

Horried, she asked if I ended up in intensive care, because the dog food poisoned me. I told her no, I stopped to Pee on a Fire Hydrant and a car hit me.

I thought the guy behind her was going to have a heart attack he was laughing so hard.

Tesco won't let me shop there anymore!
