Newsletter 2132

Note from the GM

After picking up Spanish Fly at the Cititel, we arrived at the run site to see most of the parking spots had been taken with the early arrivals but we did find a place to park the truck!! Looking around I saw many of the usual crowd with one or two exceptions but then I also spotted both Good Licker and Black German (Jaya) both after long a hiatus. It was great to see them once again and even better, they even paid their Subs for next year!! Really great to see you both guys!

After the introduction of the guests (Ong, Michael, Spanish Fly, Jesper, Rob) the contracted Hare for the day, Silent Man, described the run as medium and pointed in the direction of the new houses down the road and "THAT WAY" and off they all went.

Akz Hole had persuaded me not to do the run because I AM slow these days and he wanted to push on and not be hindered by me but more I suspect so that the food would be served on time!!!! So I sat and gossiped with Mem Sahib whilst we sorted out the cards. First Longhair, then Iceman and BC Lim turned up late, changed and quickly set off. They were followed by Smiling Horse and Grasshopper who also appeared, after having earlier setting the run but they soon disappeared off to the poolside, no doubt to have a beer or two before the festivities.

As time passed, other non-runners appeared and headed straight up to the pool area and before we knew it the front runners were heading back in around the hour mark. The others followed over the next 45 minutes and so we all headed to the pool to begin the main event of the evening. FOOD, DRINK and CHAT!!.....

I thought we did that every week!!!!

Roasted Chicken in abundance, salad, ratatouille, cake and free beer were on the menu thanks to our generous donors whom I would like to thank very much for putting on such a grand spread. To top it all special T-shirts were also given out. What a lovely early Christmas present to have!!

Special mention must go to Tiny who organised it all but many thanks to everyone who donated in some or any way.

There were at least 4 or even 5 crates of free beer donated as part of the evening but one crate also came from Samy whom I thank most sincerely for his generous donation.

The Circle

The GM opened the proceedings by putting both Ronnie Tour and Sperm Whale on ice for being disrespectful and disruptive even as the circle was started.

Bai Pass was next in line for impersonating Santa Singh and for only coming once a year these days!! POOR BOY!!

The guests were next honoured and as it was Christmas (Run anyway) an early present was afforded them by the GM as they were asked to SIT nicely on the Ice.

Camel Toe was singled out and interrogated about the run, which of course the GM knew she didn't do. In sterling fashion she admitted that was the case but that she was enjoying the evening!!

Charges from the floor brought Sperm Whale to his feet to charge someone who lived at Mar Vista but as they were not around..."Gone home already" someone said. "Go knock on the door" some wit responded, he ended up taking the icing himself as well as keeping mum about the charge. "I'll save it for another day" he said.....
I wonder what it is????

A second charge from the floor saw our guest Spanish Fly charge Huge. Apparently she was with him on the run and he was incessantly complaining whilst going up the hill. "45 mins of non-stop whining about how tired he was." she said. "At least he was better on the way down" she added.

The contracted Hares of the Day were then asked out to receive their just rewards of our grateful thanks for a job well done and a good run to boot. Even Iceman said it was the longest Harriet run he has done this year, if not ever!! Quite an achievement and praise! Thanks guys!

What would a run be without someone to orchestrate it the GM asked and hence summoned Tiny to the Throne to receive the thanks for the organisation of the evening. Tiny was the individual but our thanks go to EVERYONE who donated or contributed in some way. Thanks All.

Just as the GM was about to close the circle Akz Hole charged the GM and asked her to sit on the Ice. Spanish Fly then took over and presented her was a Hash Foot necklace as a small gift from an overseas visiting hasher (Spanish Fly being from Costa Rica). More was to come however as Spanish Fly then asked for 10 males and 10 females to form a circle with the men lined up to her right. She then proceeded to sing a lengthy hash rendition (with actions and men) of 'This Old Man' whilst the females sang the chorus. It was very funny.

In response Ronnie Tour charged Spanish Fly and in her honour sang her a local Malay song of Rasa Sayang, with translation no less!!

With that the circle was duly closed and the rest of the great evening was spent chatting and drinking. Ahhh...wonderful!!!!!!

The Burst

Run No: 2131 Christmas Run

Date: 13th December 2012

Venue: Mar Vista

Scribe: Akz Hole

Hare: Christmas Hare

It had rained in the morning quite heavily and my thoughts turned to those volunteers who were out setting the run for this year's Christmas Special. The terrain over in that area Mar Vista, Leader Garden, Beverly Hills, is not good when it rains as the slopes become very slippery and I guess we were going to be in for one wet run. As it turned out the rain disappeared and there was some drying time before the start but with it raining at some point over the preceding days I still felt it was going to be muddy.

Not having set this year I was looking forward to it as I have not been so active of late and felt I needed a real good blow as part of my pre-Christmas tune up. I had persuaded the GM not to run:

- 1) Thinking that she needed to be around to help in the organisation of the evening (but was wrong as it was already well taken care of);
- 2) That at present she is a bit slow and hence would delay the start of the evening festivities by being back late if she ran. So those of you who enjoyed the early food can buy me a beer this week 😊😊

After the usual clap from the GM at the start, one of the contracted Hares, Silent Man in this case, told us of a medium run, no checks and "that way". So we all took a deep breath and started off towards the new toy box houses.

I walked up the road chatting with Gman, Money Manfred, Tiny, Viking and guest Jesper thinking to myself "this is the only time I get to be a FRB!!" Sure enough as we got to the barrier the usual suspects got into gear and went off zooming through the undergrowth as I picked my way carefully over the vines. At one point we hit a small dip and the others jumped over with no problem. But since I am a bit bigger than most as I took off the ground crumbled beneath me and down I went. A second attempt was no better as my landing bank also gave way sending me down on my arse once again! A forward call of "YOU OK" by Jesper was all I got as the FRBs disappeared not to be seen again until the poolside.

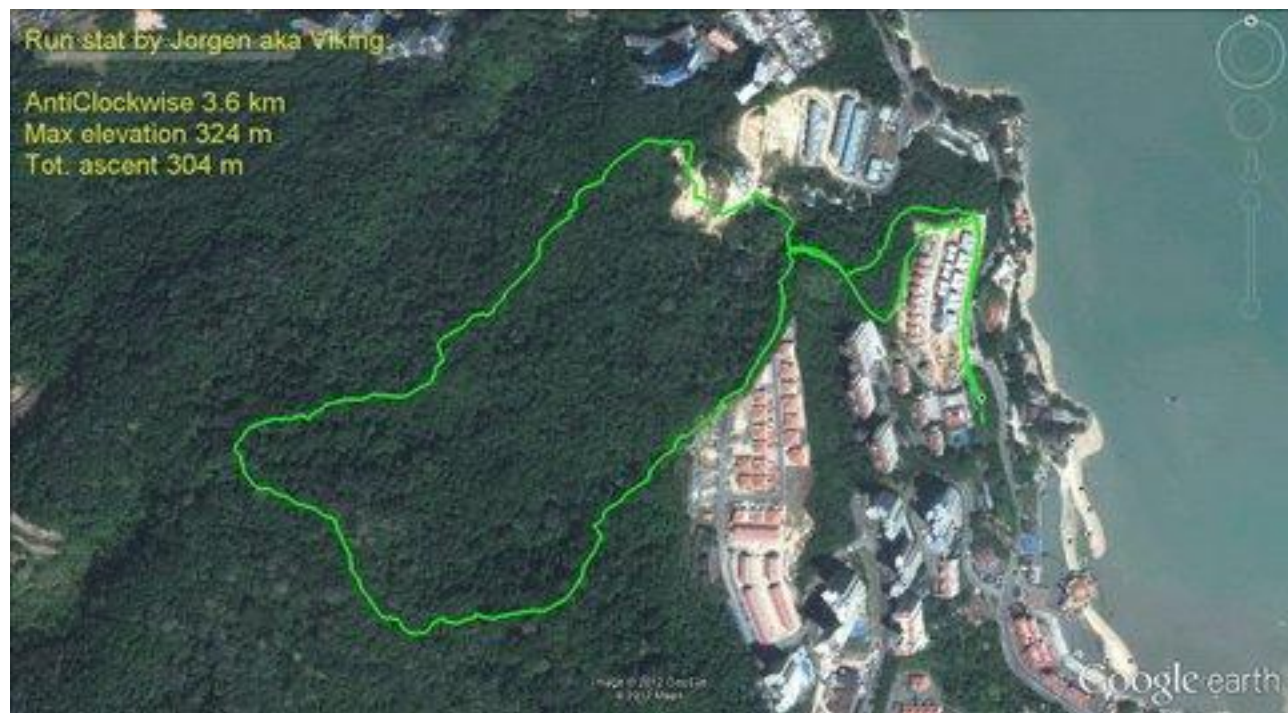

Picking myself up and dusting myself down (figuratively of course) I climbed the bank finally and set my step on what was to be a long, slippery and oft-times steep upward journey with some skirting to boot. The actual path took us out towards Mount Pleasure and the On Up from there we know can be torturous. Hearing some noise behind me I saw Pukka Sahib catching me up and together we did actually complete the whole run together. Frank chatting most of the way whilst I was blowing hard and noisily, especially on the way up.

So on up we went slipping and sliding until we hit the big tree at the top of what I call Miami Green/Mount Pleasure Peak as I'm not sure it has a proper name. Or else it can be referred to as Hugh's Peak since it often features in his runs. From there it is left over the now decaying log along the path towards Carla's Peak and down the homeward trail.

Checking the time it had taken us about 45 mins to hit the top and hence the light was beginning to fade. The On Down was lengthy but uneventful until we hit Beverly Hills area when the Hares took an inland track once more (so not down the road and the drain by Mar Vista this time) and we proceeded to pick our way once more through foot catching vines and in places having to descend the slippery slopes on one's bum since there were no handholds to be found.

Coming out below the poolside at Mar Vista, barracking from the top by Smiling Horse and Grasshopper, with envious beers in hand, greeted us and telling us the path to take as the paper was a bit scarce at this point. Although it is just a stone's throw away from where we were destined to end up for the evening, it took us another 10 mins to get back to the car park and for me another hour or more before I got to the pool for a welcoming beer.

So the good blow that I needed happened and although we have run in this area many times I thought the trail was good and certainly made the best of fairly popular terrain to make it interesting. Thanks guys.
