Note from the GM

The last run of the year and a shift of run-site to the South. The familiar run-site at Taman Pekaka has been lost to development and so the alternative area is now behind Ivory Plaza. It seems our Island is shrinking, even more when you count up the number of run-sites that have been lost over the last twelve years I've been hashing.

Shirleen aka Supergirl set the run with Goodyear at 5pm as Toddy Tan couldn't make it at the last minute due to work commitments. She came well prepared though with the food truck already stacked out with goodies to be consumed later.

They were still setting the run when 6pm came And Money was given the task of showing paper and pointing in the direction of the start. After they had disappeared Supergirl and Goodyear emerged from the track and declared it a simple run.

As she was laying out the tempting array of food our guest Dominic came racing out of the track very closely followed by Speedhound. "He's very fast" she said on regaining her breath. The others started appearing soon after and all were back by 7.15pm.

A big spread of tarts, cakes, snow ice and bee hoon was laid out for the hungry hashers who quickly set to work demolishing the same! After being well fed the crowd became more settled and the circle began.

Many thanks to Supergirl for a really festive and varied spread and by all accounts a good run.

The Circle

As always we love to welcome our guests and this time Madeleine was called out. She wasn't the only guest as we had the whole Foster family and grandchildren as well as our old friend Melons but the Foster family had disappeared AND SOMEHOW Melons missed the ice!!

Eddie Punk was lectured last week on the ice for littering but his "crime" this week was to have achieved 500 runs with the Harriets. This is no mean feat and deserves our recognition.

Mother Hen was also given the seat of honour and one she richly deserves. Not only has she been a stalwart of the Club for many years and has held practically all positions, she has now achieved a remarkable count of 1700 runs. Wow!! Incredible and many congratulations for all you do.

Our usual end of month birthday recognition saw Molly and Kim Looi attend to the proceedings as the only ones there at the time. Over the years they have not had a Hash Name despite hashing for over 30 years each. I think we gave them some but I can't remember so if we did please let me know!! And a Happy Birthday to all our December born Members.

Sai Seng then charged the GM with typical Malaysian style parking after having seen her in town earlier.

The GM then welcomed Wan Lyn as the newest member of the Harriets. She has been coming for quite some time and it is great to now have her as a member.

Another milestone was reach this week too as Sai Seng FINALLY achieved his 100 runs. He has been a member for quite some time but has been MIA often for long periods but it is great to see him more regularly these days.

The final icing of the evening was for the Bunny of the Day, SUPERGIRL. This was her first set run for the Harriets and she did us proud both for the run and the fantastic array of food she provided. Thanks Shirleen it was a "super" evening.

Run No: 2133

Date: 27th December 2012

Bunny: Supergirl

I must say that I was somewhat taken aback when our GM Justbeer asked me to write this week's burst. Been a long time since I penned anything! Well, one cannot just say "no" to Justbeer so I guess I have no choice but to give this a shot.

Today's hare was Shirleen aka Supergirl and the run was set at Ivory Towers behind USM. Guess the holiday season is still upon us as not many hashers turned up for the run. At a rough estimate, I would say about 30 odd members and a couple of guests. Huge and Tiny brought the whole family along including their two lovely grandchildren Zoe and Simon.

At precisely 6pm the GM called us to circle and Money Manfred was requested to announce the run as the hare and bunnies whatever, were still inside the forest laying paper. After showing us "Tuesday" hash paper, we all set off on our run. The weather held good but the ground inside were still wet and soggy. I started off in my usual leisurely pace while the front runners all zoomed off as if they had "rocket fuel" in their arse. I cannot tell you what is happening up front because try as I may, in my one year of hashing I was never among the front runners. These are people with no lungs hahaha.

In the beginning, I had Yolanda and little Simon for company. I could see that Simon small as he was, was truly enjoying his walk in the forest as he slowly pick his way among the brushes.

Up front, I spotted Shirly, Kani, Nee, and Edna. I picked up my pace and soon was able to catch up with them albeit losing Yolanda and Simon in the process. Later as I started to tire out taking the lead, we were joined by Benji, who then took over the lead. The on-up was actually not very tough but there was quite a lot of climbing though. After about 45 minutes, we reached the top and started to make our way down. On the on-down we were joined by Nee, Edna and James.

The on-down was relatively easy as we were walking on the cement trail. Kani, Edna and myself took the lead and the three of us made our trek back to base. Behind us I could hear Benji singing and having a good time with the last of the slow runners. So we decided to leave them to their fun and picked up our pace. Almost near to base, Kani put her right foot into a hole and bruised her ankle. Shirly also told me she had a couple of tumbles too when we later met at base. I can't help noticing that trouble always lurks when hashes are about to reach camp. I had a bad tumble once and hurt my knee badly, Linda had a bad gash on the side of her forehead which required stitching, Huge too once fell into a drain and had a nasty cut too. I wonder if it's a jinx or the smell of good food at camp that makes us all become less cautious and apprehensive when we are nearly home.

All in all, it was a fun evening and everyone had a pretty good run not to mention the excellent food Supergirl had prepared for us.

Funnies

Q: What do you tell someone you didn't see at New Year's Eve?

A: I haven't seen you for a year!

Q: What happened to the Irish man who thought about the evils of drinking in the New Year?

A: He gave up thinking.

Q: What's the problem with jogging on New Years Eve?

A: The ice falls out of your drinks!

On New Year's Eve, Marilyn stood up in the local pub and said that it was time to get ready. At the stroke of midnight, she wanted every husband to be standing next to the one person who made his life worth living. Well, it was kind of embarrassing. As the clock struck, the bartender was almost crushed to death.

This woman walks into a tattoo parlor and asks for a tattoo of a Christmas tree on her right inner thigh and a cocktail drink on her left inner thigh. The tattoo artist say that's an unusual request. "Why do you want two tattoos there?" So she says "Because my husband needs to eat between Christmas and New Years."

The New Year's Eve party had turned into a regular marathon with numerous guests coming and going.

At one point, a man knocked on the door, was greeted heartily although no one knew who he was, and was led to the bar in the basement.

He sat there happily for a couple of hours before a strange light dawned on his face. "You know," he confided to his host: "I wasn't even invited to this party. I just came over to tell you that some of your guests' cars are blocking my driveway."

The guest continued: "My wife's been sitting out in the car waiting for me to get them moved."

A wife went in to see a therapist and said, "I've got a big problem, doctor." "Every time we're in bed and my husband climaxes, he lets out this earsplitting yell." "My dear," the doctor said, "that's completely natural. I don't see what the problem is."

"The problem is," she complained, "it wakes me up!"
