Notes from the GM

Being a public holiday for some I asked M&S if he wanted to start at 5pm and not 6pm as usual. He declined though I think it is a good idea and will try to implement it when the next holiday is on a Thursday, which is in August.

As guests and runners assembled the FTAC hashers walked by as they were going up to the Haunted House, a favourite hike with the die-hards! I was amazed with GL's guest who came dressed in jeans, t-shirt and Sunday best shoes!! We had picked up a guest, Paula @ Knickers Down, who asked as it was her first Penang run, who she should follow and I waved her in the direction of the slower runners. Anjalai's nephew Darwin, who is about 8 years old also wanted to hike (something he has done before with us when Aunty has brought him along and he's very fit).

The Hare proclaimed a medium to longish run and so the pack got away on time headed down the road. A short while later Christine See and a group of thirsty FTAC members stopped to get a drink from Samy. Christine had to rush home to get her daughter to tuition and so could not make the 6pm start.

An hour and ten minutes later a tired and hot looking Money Manfred, followed by Iceman and later by Tiny and W'Anchor, started to stream in. By 8pm all were back at the runsite having thoroughly enjoyed the run. As for Paula she wasn't really properly attired for our sort of hashing (she hashed in Langkawi) and so I didn't think she would go in the jungle. BUT Kudos to her as not only did she do that but completed the SCB version of the run which in itself was quite tough especially for a beginner. Well done Paula.

The Circle

Our guests this evening were Paula, Shao Lim, Amoe, BC Lim W'Anchor and Darwin. Welcome one and all.

The GM then put guest Amoe back on the ice to point out how he was dressed yet still very much enjoyed the run. We hope he comes again but GL get him better equipped next time!!

W'Anchor has moved back to Penang now and has ben attending our runs lately. It is always good to see him. However he was charged today with being not able to pay his subs in legal Mayalsian currency!! He only had Thai Bhatt in his wallet but being the GM she didn't mind taking that anyway. The question raised by the pack was "Been in Thailand then ...what doing eh??" To which W'Anchor gave an appropriate response.

Paula was next on the ice to congratulate her on her first Penang run and finishing, albeit the SCB course. She has hashed in Langkawi but nothing like this. She did enjoy it though. She is hoping to stay in Penang for sometime and hence we hope to see more of her.

Akz Hole then charged Mini Sausage, the crime being letting go rip snorting farts on the downward trail with Akz Hole getting further behind each time one went off. Is Mini fast because he gets wind assistance??

Lastly but by no means least the hare, Marks & Spencer was iced to receive the pack's thanks for an excellent run and great food.

Nicely close to my house, so we left the house late. Upon arriving at the runsite, we saw several FTAC people there as well. Was it a joined run? Because if it is then it's probably Haunted House and back, just what I want on a Thursday night. But no it wasn't. Mark set his own run.

He told the circle when you reach the bar you can either step over it and follow the path down, or you can decide to turn right and do another hill. We'll see when we get there. We went towards the Chinese temple, but instead of seeing the cows on the way there, it was all concrete, they decided to build a road, most likely to build a few more high rises. So more traffic jam coming up, one day you will leave your house get stuck in traffic jam after 5 minutes, stay there for the whole day and turn around at 5pm to go back to your house.

We passed FTAC paper, but we went up the hill a bit later. The first part was very nice, gradually going up, not steep. Then the paper went up the hill. I must admit that I struggled, but I wasn't the only one. Bayee Pass was right behind me struggling as bad as I did. We got passed by Ang Moh Lan, Lily, Speedhound and her nephew. And some more up we went. After reaching the pipeline, we turned to the left and followed the pipeline. That part was nice and easy.

After 20 minutes the paper went down and we hit the bar, together with Lily, Speedhound and Ang Moh Lan, we decided to follow the path down and not do another hill. It was getting a bit dark.

We came out at the pump house and we thought we had to go all the way back on the road to the runsite. But there was a path besides the housing area and we came out at the same road we went in. By that time it was quite dark, so we were happy we decided not to do the extra hill.

Marc had a delicious spread waiting for us, which we enjoyed a lot.

Thanks Marks and Spencer for a very good run and great food.

Funnies

It's annual superheroes New Year's party. Batman and Spiderman are chatting. All of a sudden the Hulk rushes in all red and perplexed.

"What's up" asked Batman?

"Well I was upstairs looking for the toilet and I passed the bedroom and saw Wonder Woman naked on the bed and moaning and groaning. I started feeling randy and thought what the hell and jumped on top of her!"

"Was she surprised?" asked Spiderman.

"Yes but not as surprised as The Invisible Man!"

A man went to the doctor complaining of insomnia. The doctor gave him a thorough examination, found absolutely nothing physically wrong with him, and then told him, "Listen, if you ever expect to cure your insomnia, you just have to stop taking your troubles to bed with you."

"I know," said the man, "but I can't. My wife refuses to sleep alone."

An old but still ruggedly handsome Sergeant Major found himself at a gala event hosted by a local liberal arts college. There was no shortage of extremely young, idealistic ladies in attendance, one of whom approached the Sergeant Major for conversation. "Excuse me, Sergeant Major, but you seem to be a very serious man. Is something bothering you?"

"Negative, ma'am. Just serious by nature."

The young lady looked at his awards and decorations and said, "It looks like you have seen a lot of action."

"Yes, ma'am, a lot of action."

The young lady, tiring of trying to start up a conversation, said, "You know, you should lighten up a little. Relax and enjoy yourself."

The Sergeant Major just stared at her in his serious manner. Finally, the young lady said, "You know, I hope you don't take this the wrong way, but when is the last time you had sex?"

"1955, ma'am."

"Well, there you are. You really need to chill out and quit taking everything so seriously!? I mean, no sex since 1955!?"

Feeling charitable and a little bit drunk, she took his hand and led him to a private room where she proceeded to "relax" him several times. Afterwards, panting for breath, she leaned against his bare chest and said, "Wow, you sure didn't forget much since 1955!"

The Sergeant Major, glancing at his watch, said in his matter-of-fact voice, "I hope not, it's only 2130 now."

70-year-old George went for his annual physical. All of his tests came back with normal results. Dr. Smith said, "George, everything looks great physically. How are you doing mentally and emotionally? Are you at peace with yourself, and do you have a good relationship with your God?"

George replied, "God and me are tight. He knows I have poor eyesight, so he's fixed it so that when I get up in the middle of the night to go to the bathroom (poof!) the light goes on when I pee, and then (poof!) the light goes off when I'm done."

"Wow," commented Dr. Smith, "that's incredible!"

A little later in the day Dr. Smith called George's wife. "Thelma," he said, "George is just fine. Physically he's great. But I had to call because I'm in awe of his relationship with God. Is it true that he gets up during the night and (poof!) the light goes on in the bathroom, and then (poof!) the light goes off?"

Thelma exclaimed, "That old fool! He's peeing in the refrigerator again!"
