Notes from the GM

Apart from Take Care, Ah Nee, Peggy and myself were at Francis Corner bemoaning the humid weather, when one by one the others arrived. It was gratifying to see the Harriets coming so far to support HHM and then guests started arriving too! Sean and Miguel who live around the corner came to check us out and our Cycling King, David, brought 3 Began Serai hashers, Robert Tan, Vincent Low and Hi Teck. A friend of the Barclays, Malcolm, arrived next. A phone call from Renata said they would be arriving late as they were stuck in traffic but they were bringing 2 virgin hashers with them, so Beauty Queen and I stayed back to wait for them. Sai Seng brought his nephew, Wind, to "train" him about 10 minutes after the pack had disappeared into the jungle. Helmut and their 2 guests arrived, changed and off we set. Eddie Punk and Sai Seng accompanying us.

Going up and up to the ridge was really hard work in the humid weather and we soon concluded that the 2 virgins, Andre and Berta, were in no shape to do the run, hence we walked along the ridge and exited on the hash highway, which was so overgrown that it was really hard work getting through. At one point we were actually walking on the water pipe but got off it as it became way too high to walk across it. We reached the run site at 7.15pm and there was no sight of any front runners!!!

Goodyear came thundering in around 7.30pm and declared that the slow runners were going to come out at around 9.00pm!! Tiny then arrived back closely followed by Take Care, each with tales of the "Killer Hills". A group came out in reverse, that is from the ON IN trail and not backwards!! And a concerned Ma asked Kali what had happened to her guest Malcolm as he was supposed to be taking care of him?

As light faded and darkness fell a whole group still hadn't returned, Malcolm among them. As 9.00pm came and went each of us was asking the same question about the whereabouts of the missing group. Then after a phone call to Sai Seng to establish who was with who, we found out that Malcolm had been found and now the whole group of them, Malcolm, Cycling King and his 3 guests and Wind were being led out by Sai Seng. But where they were was another question, as the references to "the pipe" were confusing since there were several pipes on the run it seems.

As time passed and more calls were made back and forth the gathered pack was dwindling fast except for the hard core members. By 11pm speculation was rife as to their whereabouts but in one final call to Sai Seng he assured us all that they were on paper and on the way out. Big Willy had gone to the exit point and Akz Hole and I followed in the car with water and 100+ for the no doubt dehydrated hashers.

Big Willy and Akz Hole went in calling for them and were relieved to hear a distant reply. It was not long after that one by weary one they emerged from the undergrowth and gladly gulped down the liquids we had brought. After a short ride down to the run-site a relieved HHM was finally able to relax!!

I can't thank Sai Seng enough for taking charge and taking care of the guests as I am not sure they would have made it out on their own. After more sustaining drinks and some food, smiles started to appear on the faces of some of the "lost" group, whether through achievement or just plain glad to be back who knows. By now it was approaching midnight and so we had no circle but we did give much appreciation and thanks to Ma for hosting the evening and the delicious wantan mee. It can never be said the Barclays have boring runs as dramatic events always seem to take place on their runs at this particular run-site.

Just a reminder though about guests! Runs in Penang ARE very different from other places and I would say tougher. If your guest has never run here before, please make sure they are fully kitted out with plenty of water, torch and phone. Don't forget also that YOU are responsible for the well being and safety of your guest.

On 7th September the Ipoh Harriets are celebrating their 45th Anniversary. Penang Harriets have a great respect for them as they were the first to come and help us set up our own Club 41 years ago.

In recognition of this and to support them it would be great if many of us could attend. Perhaps we could even hire a bus if there were enough of us. Please let me know if you would like to go!

Penang Hash House Harriets' "Burst" for run 2144

I was asked by our "new" ON SEX to write this week's burst with a twist... or maybe she said/meant a "twisted burst"...

Not exactly knowing what such a thing is/could be I decided to do my humble best. Herewith is the result.

It is truly amazing that, of all places we could Hash, Hari Hari Mau was ever so inciteful....

Imagine if you can, the Day of the announcement of a New Pope... Pope Francis... we should meet at his corner!!!

The question arises: How did Hari Hari Mau Know who the new Pope would be, when he would be elected... and what his chosen name would be.

When I asked Hari Hari Mau how she was able to accomplish such a remarkable feat, she coyly announced that “she had special powers”!!

What an evening it was.... perfect weather, a lovely setting “blood red” sun... and a venue which was ever so serene.

And the run... a short 3.7 Kms to boot!!

A large group of members and guests (45+) was assembled... perhaps drawn by Hari Hari Mau’s popularity as well as the Papal announcement confirming her prescient choice.

What could possibly be better??

Well the run did have its ups and downs... the ups measured a mere 483.672 meters [as calculated by Money Manfred and Viking]. You might ask: How high is 483.672 meters...

Answer: about 2 ½ times the height of Komtar!!!

Imagine, if you can, climbing, and descending 63 stories three times... and for those of you who were still out after sunset, doing so blindfolded with no rail [as in Komtar’s stairwell] to assist... and having constant complex obstacles [like following the trail and navigating the vagaries of the jungle and having to pass a huge water pipe/hookah] to deal with.

CONGRATULATIONS to all runners who completed this challenging, though enjoyable part of the evening!

When they returned from the “ups and downs”, obstacles, the water pipe/Hookah and limited visibility, there was lots of cold beer and delicious noodles with meat, vegetables and varied dumplings... as well as opportunities for “fun/socializing”.

If the Pope were present in body as well as name [Hari Hari Mau... why didn't you arrange for His Eminence's presence???] he would have been very proud of you all!!

As for the circle, undoubtedly, our esteemed circle master, Dr. Nik rewarded those transgressors and perpetrators of “heinous crimes”... [as Kissmee was injured at the Tuesday Hash Kakhis run, I had to leave “early”- i.e. before the circle which was delayed by the runners and “sweepers” who had not as yet returned by 9:47].

In summary... and delightful short run [with exceedingly exaggerated “ups and downs”], amazing evening and venue, wonderful food and a fitting way to celebrate the arrival of a new Pope—as well as a clear demonstration of Hari Hari Mau’s ever so special powers!!

ON ON!!

Funnies

A guy goes into a costume shop. He says, "I'm going to a costume party, I want to go as Adam."

The girl brings out a fig leaf. He says, "Not big enough."

She brings out a bigger one. He says, "Still not big enough."

She brings out a huge fig leaf. He says, "Still not big enough."

She says, "Listen, Ace, why don't you just throw it over your shoulder and go as a gasoline pump?"
