On Sec's Note

In the circle at the beginning of the run we had two guests – Melissa who came with Black German (Jaya) and Anna who came with Beauty Queen – lovely to see two young attractive ladies!

Kissing(h)er told us there were two checks, it was a medium run and the up paper was the usual Harriet paper but the down paper was long strips. Goodyear warned us to stay on paper as they had to avoid bees and a couple of occasions.

Kiss Me is currently in hospital having an abscess on her leg drained. We wish her a speedy recovery and hope to see her back soon.

Burst: Kissing(her)'s run

Run site: Island Glades Chinese Temple

Scribe: Jorgen aka Viking

"Jorgen can you do me a favor?" – The words came from Tiny who has unnoticed sneaked up behind me. I looked at her and even before she mentioned it, I knew exactly what favor she wanted..."OK I will do it" – think it is also about my time now...

Discussing with Money we tried to get an overview of the number of runners - "28" - Money said. I tried again and turned around and saw, among others, the "Sahibs" getting ready. No I said, 32-34 I can count with the ones still around their cars...

Circle was called and without much of the usual crab, the 'mike' was handed to the Hare, who announced a medium run and 2 checks. Knowing one of the Co-Hares was Good-Year I did expect at least a medium run, garnished with some 'trouble' along the way...

The Hare pointed to left and then to the right of the temple- - - was this the first check?? Anyway we – Money, Tiny, Mark and Viking, decided to go up the stairs and pass through the temple and further up behind the temple. This was correct, we found paper just there. Followed the small narrow trail up, and after a couple of minutes Money stumbled into the first circle. We were checking around for a minute, and Money checked the on-up trail and behind the huge boulder he broke the check. "On paper" "Ooonn paper" he shouted, so we were soon back on the trail. As we progressed up the steep trail there was quite a bit of '4-legs-crawling' - and negotiations to avoid all the nasty thorns - and I was not really successful in that... the trail went up and skirted further to the right below a huge beautiful rock.

After struggling for about 25 min we reached the trail on the ridge. Shortly before the ridge, Lilly caught up. On the flat ridge trail we moved quickly, and if there was a beautiful view we did not have time to enjoy it - - After a minute or 2, Tiny has suddenly stopped and turned around coming towards us...The following high level Hash conversation went on:

– "Hey - what now?" – "Cannot find paper" "Didn't you see where Mark went?"
– "No" – "thought he was just in front of you..."

To the left it seemed as paper was going down, but after checking, it was not our paper...We continued ahead on the trail, and our paper soon appeared again. On-down we went as fast as possible without jeopardizing the safety too much.

Shortly before exiting the jungle there was a very steep, 'slippy', barren slope with not much to cling-to. In an attempt to negotiate the slope with a rapid but controlled descent I grabbed a branch on the small tree on top of the slope. A second later I found myself in a high speed, but certainly not controlled, descend - the b..... branch was dry and it broke off. I didn't feel much impact when I crashed at the bottom of the slope, but this morning my right wrist is very sore, and I can hardly use the hand....but I still think I can hold the beer.

The FRB's were out after 35-40+ minutes, which hardly reflect a Medium run, and as can be seen on the Run Profile it was actually less than 2 Km. We never mets the 2. check...

After about 20 minutes the next pack of hounds came back. Just before 8 PM, we were still missing 4-5 hashers; among them - one of the guests, Beauty Queen, Mem Sahib, Huge and of course our sweeper - Silent Man – he was back at 8.10

It is quite amazing; irrespective of how short the run is - Eddy the Punk - our No.1 SCB, can always find ways to do it even shorter...

By right he was iced for that at the circle.

On On

Many thanks Viking – brilliant job

On 7th September the Ipoh Harriets are celebrating their 45th Anniversary. Penang Harriets have a great respect for them as they were the first to come and help us set up our own Club 41 years ago.

In recognition of this and to support them it would be great if many of us could attend. Perhaps we could even hire a bus if there were enough of us. Please let Beauty Queen know if you would like to go!

The Circle
As usual we had a short circle
First on ice were the Guests

Then Sai Seng was charged with having a sexy body!!

Kali – Black german was called next for wearing dark clothes on a dark night and only being visible when he laughed

Beauty Queen charged the co-hares

We're all into it!

Eddy the Punk was then charged with being able to short cut even when all the old farts completed

Kissing(h)er was then iced for doing such a good job

The Hare and host of the evening

Funnies

A priest offered a lift to a Nun. She got in and crossed her legs, forcing her gown to reveal a leg. The priest nearly had an accident. After controlling the car, he stealthily slid his hand up her leg. The nun said, "Father, remember Psalm 129?" The priest removed his hand. But, changing gears, he let his hand slide up her leg again. The nun once again said, "Father, remember Psalm 129?" The priest apologized "Sorry sister but the flesh is weak." Arriving at the convent, the nun went on her way. On his arrival at the church, the priest rushed to look up Psalm 129. It said, "Go forth and seek, further up, you will find glory."

Moral of the story: If you are not well informed in your job, you might miss a great opportunity.

A crow was sitting on a tree, doing nothing all day. A rabbit asked him, "Can I also sit like you and do nothing all day long?" The crow answered: "Sure, why not." So, the rabbit sat on the ground below the crow, and rested.

...A fox jumped on the rabbit and ate it.

Moral of the story: To be sitting and doing nothing, you must be sitting very high up.
