Harriet Members who represent the club (they sign up as a Harriet) at invitational runs in the country will be given an RM 20 rebate after they have attended the run. However this will be capped at three times a year.

Many thanks to Viking for inviting the Harriets to his Saturday Birthday run. Those who accepted the invitation had a brilliant time and came away with great t-shirt.

GM's Note

Mike and I had decided that I would not be hashing on the night as he was picking me up later to go for a business dinner. Take Care was going around telling everyone it was a short run and no-one should shortcut. Bibi and Manfred went off to re-lay paper and Viking's friend Torben stayed back to wait for him.

As the pack gathered the announcement was made again concerning Viking's invitation to the Harriets to attend his birthday run with PIH2 on the Saturday and next week's Committee Run at Tembaga was also proclaimed. The Hare continued to declare it was a short run and not to short cut as the pack went off.

Bai Pass then showed up and welcoming beers were thrust into his hand everytime someone saw he had an empty one. Just goes to show how much he is missed at the runs. The biggest gossip going around though was how much money a certain person got for showing loyalty to the BN at the election!!!!

Soon the first runners returned but Bibi was not yet back!! Most of the others returned by 7.20pm, thus proving the Hare right that it was a short run, when Bibi came limping in with a calf injury which was why she was late in returning.

Take Care laid out the food, salted fish curry with rice and egg and Molly shared out curry puffs that she had ordered and brought along. Cheng had brought bananas and did the same. The atmosphere was jovial and easy going and it looked as though it was going to be another good evening, when Mike drove up and I had to go so I don't know what happened after that but I guess Tina will share that with you and about the icings.

See you all at Tembaga Waterfall next week.

I was thrilled when I found out that my schedule allowed me to attend the run on Thursday. But when the dark clouds gathered above me and the rain started pouring, I knew that I would have to skip another day of hashing. Surprisingly, the odds were in my favour and the rain had stopped at about half past three. Being the ever ready and kiasu me, I picked up my gears and whizzed through the traffic to the run site.

I quickly stepped on the brakes as my car reached the run site. Since take care, the hare always had his runs set by the DAP members, it was usually long and tiring. I still asked him about the run but all he could say was: 'easy peasy, lemon squeezy. You'll make it out in less than an hour.' The inner me laughed as I heard the usual SCBs talk about SCB-ing but take care interrupted them and said there was no point in doing so. After putting on our gear, the GM called for circle but was interrupted by the VGM. The GM seemed annoyed because the VGM was busy trying to remind us about next week's run. GM asked whether the VGM would like to take over her spot. VGM said that she was trying to remind her about the run next week because she was afraid that the GM would forget about it. We all laughed and the GM said: 'thank you, I love you VGM.'

Take care showed us the paper and without further delay, we started our run. I went up with Lily with Good Year and Tiny in front of me while Viking, Torben and Shit on the pit were behind me.

We chatted all on the way up and found some paper at the junction. Angela came and she explained the check to us that Good year and Tiny had gone to break the checks. A few minutes later, we heard the familiar 'On! On!' coming from Good Year and went on up. Amy went first and climbed pass the rocks. She fell twice and shouted: 'Slippery!'. We continued up the steep hill and had Rob overtake me, Viking and Torben while Lily and Angela were far in front. As we went up was getting steeper and I heard someone said "coffee break", when I looked up, it was Torben who asked for a coffee break and I joked saying, 'no coffee here, so no break' We continued all the way up and finally reached the Hash Highway. Vethia told me a scary story and I got scared when a white man passed me. I quickly turned around and it was Iceman who had just came back from his holiday. Oh dear, I thought to myself, he became so fair even I couldn't recognise him. Torben and Viking overtook me but I was still happy that I managed to be one of the front runners this time.

Sadly, as I reached the run site, I saw so many people there already. They said that they followed the paper all the way. Oh well, I'd better try harder next time then. It was a happy day for me as I managed to attend the run after being absent for one whole week. We enjoyed the food prepared but unfortunately for Iceman, he had no food to eat because he doesn't take salted fish curry.

Thank you to Take Care, for setting this amazing run for us and also preparing the amazing food for us, the hungry hashers. Till next time.

Camel toe,

On!On!

Many thanks Camel Toe for a terrific job

The Circle

The guests

DAP supporters for keeping Penang a sane place

Iceman for letting Onsec come first

Eddy the Punk for not wearing a hash t-shirt but at least he supported!

Last on ice was Take Care the host for the night. Many thanks for a great evening!

The evening

Even the cat wants to join in

On 7th September the Ipoh Harriets are celebrating their 45th Anniversary. Penang Harriets have a great respect for them as they were the first to come and help us set up our own Club 41 years ago. In recognition of this and to support them it would be great if many of us could attend. Perhaps we could even hire a bus if there were enough of us. Please let Beauty Queen know if you would like to go!

Funnies

Five doctors went duck hunting one day. Included in the group were a GP, a pediatrician, a psychiatrist, a surgeon and a pathologist. After a time, a bird came winging overhead. The first to react was the GP who raised his shotgun, but then hesitated.

"I'm not quite sure it's a duck," he said, "I think that I will have to get a second opinion."
And of course by that time, the bird was long gone.

Another bird appeared in the sky thereafter. This time, the pediatrician drew a bead on it. He too, however, was unsure if it was really a duck in his sights and besides, it might have babies. "I'll have to do some more investigations," he muttered, as the creature made good its escape.

Next to spy a bird flying was the sharp-eyed psychiatrist. Shotgun shouldered, he was more certain of his intended prey's identity.

"Now, I know it's a duck, but does it know it's a duck?" The fortunate bird disappeared while the fellow wrestled with this dilemma.

Finally, a fourth fowl sped past and this time the surgeon's weapon pointed skywards. BOOM!! The surgeon lowered his smoking gun and turned nonchalantly to the pathologist beside him.

"Go see if that was a duck, will you?"
