GM'S NOTE:

The run being at Original 5 (Bayview Beach Hotel), many of us were early in order to beat the jam. As I arrived, the co-hares were relaxing and just waiting for the rest of the pack to arrive. Guests from JCI, the Hare's company, were milling around, most being Hash Virgins whilst other guests from THK arrived and latecomers Jab We Run (Manimarian and Sarban) also came. Chief co-hare Goodyear announced a medium run but to stay on paper and off we went along the road towards Chin Farm.

As usual Silentman and I were towards the back when Lynn Khoo and a JCI member joined us. The trail looked easy to begin with until we reached the stream when the paper led us into it and along it. On and on we went, some trying to keep their shoes dry but it was futile and so we just waded through. The rain had poured down in the morning and so the stream was gushing and swollen making it tricky underfoot.

Finally out of the stream, the trail took an upward path leading to a steep On Up. We caught up with Jose and Heang and other slow runners and Silentman became their sweeper. The trail crossed the concrete path and on to the other side where it led down to a lovely waterfall. The clear water and green surroundings were beautiful but as usual, 'Joe public' instead of just enjoying the view and scenery, had littered it with paper plates and snack food plastic (I hope no hashers were involved!!!!)

Once again we had a watery trail to follow and it was quiet difficult (and dangerous) to negotiate the green mossy rocks and seemingly bottomless holes. We caught up with Nick and Lyna and after cautioning them about the time we pushed on and scrambled up the bank and on up.

The light was fading when we reached the path but Lyna and Nick decided to take a dip in the viaduct. Believing Silentman was still behind with the other slow runners I left the 'swimmers' together with Jose and Heang and followed paper once more into the bush. It wasn't pleasant being alone and the paper seemed very scarce, especially after the volume of paper on the way out and a lot of it had been trampled underfoot by the earlier runners.

The trail exited onto the path once again and for a while I couldn't find any paper. Once I had found the way I picked up some paper and laid it on the ground for the others to follow. As the path ended I couldn't find paper again and it took me a while to familiarise myself with the surroundings, after which I turned right.

As I said being in the jungle, alone with the light fading is not pleasant so I went as fast as possible, exiting on to the dirt road and the On In. The path seemed so sweet as I hurried back to the run-site. When I arrived I was shocked to see the slow runners all there with Silentman, who admitted that they all short-cutted. However there was no sign of Jose, Heang, Nick and Lyna. After a few phone calls to Jose, we realised they were safe and on their way. As it turns out they too had difficulty in finding the paper and hence decided to follow the path through the PBA and came out at Uplands School, even having to climb the fence to exit as the gate was locked!! It was a long walk back from where they were but at least a safe one.

After the circle many of the Hashers retired inside the Club to chat and drink some more. Jaimey @ Rough Rider organised a Karaoke contest (won by a JCI guest) and another game involving males, females, sticky tape, sniffing and panties.....I say no more!!

Many thanks to Manikam (who wasn't well on the evening – I hope you have recovered now) for the good food and the evening organisation. In all it was another memorable Harriets night.

CIRCLE:

1. First was a warm welcome to our JCI guests (Lesley Lim, System Tan, Tony Wang, Kang Wei, to name a few). Just in case you don't know what JCI is (and no it's not Japan, China India as someone suggested). It is the Junior Chamber International United Penang, who are a chapter within Junior Chamber International Malaysia and is a non-profit organisation. Junior Chamber International Malaysia is affiliated to Junior Chamber International, a worldwide federation of young leaders and entrepreneurs between the ages of 18 to 40, with more than 6,000 chapters in some 100 nations. So now you know!!
2. Our second welcome went to our friends from Jab We Run (Manimarian and Sarban)
3. If you can't set your own run what better than to have contractors do it for you. In appreciation of their efforts the GM had them all sit on the ice. Sai Seng, Goodyear, Beauty Queen, Hair Do, Hot & Spicy and Rough Rider. Special mention should go to the latter 3 as it was their first ever set and the first time Hair Do has EVER COMPLETED a run!!

4. It was celebration time once again this time for our June born members. Renata, Rose, Lynn and Kali were on hand to blow out the candles and cut the cake.
5. Goodyear made a charge from the floor which saw Lynn on the ice. The charge was leaving your guest and short-cutting!! Shame on you!!!!
6. The Hare of the Day was then called front and centre but as he was unwell his main contractor took the ice for him. Thank you Manikam for a good run and good food.
7. Our “never give up but we’ll be late back” hashers, Jose, Heang, Lyna and Nick were then welcomed back and suitably cooled down after their long trek home.
8. Nick was then kept on the ice to formally announce and welcome him as a NEW MEMBER. Welcome to the Harriets Nick. I hope you’ll not always be coming out in the dark. Don’t forget to ‘kit up’ properly though!!

We closed the circle with a short rendition of the Hash Hymn which was a welcome sound, not having heard it for some time. We need to brush up on our actions though 😊😊

This week Renata @ Pole Dancer is hosting at Bee Gallery. Please come along and give your support.

Other announcements:

The Harriets book for attending the Ipoh Harriets Run is now closed. If you gave your name but didn’t pay then I am afraid you will have to register yourself.

I hope to see you all on Thursday for another Harriets’ special evening!!

FUNNIES

Woman 1: "Has your guy been circumcised?"

Woman 2: "No. He's a complete dick."

Woman1: "Do you ever talk to your man during sex?"

Woman2: "Only if he phones me."

What's the difference between a smart man and a stupid man?

Nothing. They both think they know everything.

My husband added some spice to our marriage.

Why do women really need men about the house?

Because they still haven't invented a vibrator that can do the dishes, cut the lawn, paint the house.....
