NEWSLETTER 2162

GM'S NOTE:

When we got to the run-site the Hare was nowhere to be seen nor the co-hares either and as the time to start got closer the pack gathered in their numbers and were beginning to howl in readiness to get going. At the appointed time and still no Hare, the pack went off discovering paper on the cliff side behind the water tank.

Once on the top we hit the trail and bumped into Itchy Bai, Bommy and Hand Grenade on their return from relaying paper after the rains earlier in the week. The path up was a familiar one being the one which we do going up and down from Mount Pleasure.

I was following Huge, who was in turn following paper when we came across Eddie Punk and Beauty Queen who were following paper also...but the ON DOWN paper!!! It turns out the whole trail was a pan handle and they even SCB'd the loop and hence were suddenly FRBs!!

Huge and I decided to go on and follow On Up paper with Huge saying he was very familiar with this area as he had recc'ed it many times before. As we reached the path the paper turned upwards once more and we presumed it was going all the way up to the ridge and then down the other side. Huge didn't want to do all of that and so we hit the downward path towards Beverly Hills. Huge was a little afraid of the pack of dogs that have been terrorizing the area close to the run-site as he had had a nasty experience with them in the past, however we came a different way and didn't meet them and exited by the Chinese temple by the run-site.

The Hare was still nowhere to be seen, as he was home preparing the food and even Jose and Heang were out by 7.50pm. Finally the Hare pulled up and used his car as a table and began to lay out the food. In the meantime watermelon was cut up and distributed as an appetizer and when dinner was finally called the now very hungry hashers descended upon very quickly and ate with gusto.

After the circle which followed, the evening continued in light-hearted manner with many staying until quite late into the evening.

Many thanks to Spermwhale for setting the run and providing some very tasty food and to his co-hares for relaying the paper to make sure we all got back home safe and sound!!

CIRCLE:

1. Our guests of the evening were first welcomed and it was good to see Rob, W'anchor and Phil once again at the run. Oliver unfortunately had gone home by circle time.
2. Since the paper was laid earlier in the week and the rains had come in heavy downpours, the co-hares, Itchy, Bommy and Hand Grenade went back in and re-laid. So many thanks to them. It was good to see Bommy and Hand Grenade with us once more. Unfortunately they will be returning to OZ next week and so we wish them au revoir as we know they'll be back again in the not too distant future.
3. The GM then called out Goodyear. He has become the CNN of the hash in recent times and hence the GM asked him to bring us all up to date with recent news events. This he did with all the skills of an anchorman, relating the fiasco of the Malacca run Pan Asia Hash in Pattaya the previous weekend.
4. Monty Python hadn't been seen at Hash for sometime but with General Soon turning up he was certain to be around. He appeared just at the right moment for the GM to welcome him back.

5. A charge from the floor saw the GM iced for not following paper and coming out the wrong way. Her excuse of "I was following Huge" cut no ice with the assembled pack.
6. Camel Toe followed the GM onto the Ice Throne with a charge from the Hare. It turns out that she had promised to help set the run and failed to show up and then promised to help cook on the day. Spermwhale even went as far as to prepare lunch and she didn't turn up again!!!
7. Finally the Hare of the Day, Spermwhale, was suitably thanked for a short but toughish run and excellent food. However since he had kept the Hashers waiting for dinner, the thank you took longer than normal!!! Thanks Steve, good sport!!

New Members

It was only after the circle had closed that two of our guests decided to join the Harriets as members. So we say a big hello and welcome to Rob and Phil. Long may you run with us. We'll acknowledge your new membership next week!!!

Next week we are at the Quarry, Botanical Gardens for Akz Hole's run. Please come and support.

FUNNIES

There's this blonde out for a walk. She comes to a river and sees another blonde on the opposite bank 'Yoo-hoo!' she shouts, 'How can I get to the other side?'

The second blonde looks up the river then down the river and shouts back, 'You ARE on the other side.'
