NEWSLETTER 2167

GM'S NOTE:

Eddie Punk's run was originally due in July but he graciously changed to August upon request. Every Thursday and Saturday I usually get a call from him enquiring about the run site for that particular day with the usual sign off "I'll see you then". Even when I am abroad I still get the phone call!!! This Thursday true to his reputation I received another call from him to say he was in Taiping working and may not be there on time for the start of HIS run and to make the announcements on his behalf.

The evening skies threatened rain but the faithful still gathered in their numbers. Itchi Bai was the outsourced hare along with a few of his disciples and so we knew it was going to be a good run. After the usual announcements the pack zoomed off. Cheng was feeling sluggish and was in 2 minds whether to do the whole run or not but with our encouragement she persevered.

It was the usual On In (there's little alternative these days) but we slowly changed course as we went on.

At one point we came to a rock with a steep climb and footholds were hard to find. Here Cheng began to struggle (and regret her earlier decision to run) and Jose and Silentman helped her up. Her shoes had also given way and she was tired. However she plodded on and finally we made the track at the top which was then down the hill the other side, hit the bottom track by the stream and on home to the runsite. It was dark by then and a relieved Eddie welcomed us back.

Edna was busy with help giving out the new Club T-shirts, while a worried Samy was asking about how many left to return as the food was dwindling. Cheng looked better after a rest and food and soon all was in full swing once again with chit chat, laughter and flowing beers.

A big thank you to Silentman for keeping us company and especially for looking after Cheng! Thank you Eddie for the very good run and the food and once again thanks to Frank and Cheng for the “fruits” of their labour....the Durians especially!!

CIRCLE

As everyone was quite tired we had a very short circle this week:

1. Ah Lai was singled out to represent the guests this week as he was sporting his BOUGHT new Harriets T-shirt.
2. The rest of those wearing the new shirt were lined up to proudly display the new attire.
3. The Hare of the Day was then given his just reward for hosting the evening and providing a good run and food. Thanks Eddie.
