GM'S NOTE:

Most of us were speculating how long Money's run was going to be as he is known for his speed. Eddie used to tell us that in the 80s Money was big, clumsy and slow, often coming out last and now he is one of the fittest and always one of the FRBs. Maybe I need to get his formula so I can be more like him!!!

After the usual announcements, the pack went off. Being slow to start I was last with grumpy Mike beside me. Just as we were passing the houses a lady from a family who had just moved in came out and asked "Are you a walkers group?" As we explained to her who we are her curiosity was piqued and she wanted to know the website. I don't know if she really took in what we told her but perhaps Money can fill her in as he lives around the corner. Money it was the corner house just opposite the shop lots!!

Then another strange thing happened! A young woman walked by carrying a large papaya. I couldn't help but comment and she promptly offered it to me. I explained that we were just about to go into the jungle and hence could not carry it but she was genuinely insistent and asked for the car number and said she would leave it on the bonnet. With that we went on.

Past the police 'pondok' up we went and that was the last of the paper. Down again to find paper. Couldn't find it and then Mike said all had gone up and then across. So up we went again and then followed the path to the left when we suddenly were back on paper once again. That was the beginning of one confused run!

Following the newly reacquired paper trail we came across a bar. Being at the back one would have expected a paper trail to be laid by the runners in front to show the way. NO! NO! NO! Not this time! Just the bar and nothing leading from it! Shame on you all!! Mike went down and to the right. Frank appeared and went looking right and then Longhair also appeared and he and Frank went further right not to be seen nor heard again till back at the runsite.

Mike and I decided to follow the upward trail and after the long climb up found the paper once again coming from the left somewhere from Halia. After that we were on paper all the way back and finally hit the run-site after about an hour and a half. The last as usual!!

At the car a large papaya sat prominently on the bonnet and Lily was saying she wanted to pinch it. I offered it to her after relating the story but she declined.

The evening's social activity soon warmed up after the food and circle and thankfully it wasn't till the end of the circle that the rain decided to pay us a visit. After that it was the usual chat and drink and eating the very nice birthday cake.

Many thanks Money for a good (but confusing) run and the plentiful and delicious food you offered to a hungry pack.

CIRCLE:

- 1) Bibi Tulips and Sperm Whale were welcomed back to the pack after both being missing for some time. Great to see you both again!
- 2) Our guests this week were very privileged in that they were asked to SIT on the ice. So Chom Pok, Kishii and W'anchor duly received our welcome.
- 3) It was then presentation time with:
 - a) Money Manfred
 - b) Peggy Gan
 - c) Francoise

ALL receiving their 100th run award. Well done to you three.

- 4) Cheng on the other hand had completed 400 runs over a long period (since she had been abroad for many years) but did finally achieve the landmark number. Well done!
- 5) Goodyear was then asked by the GM to come and sit and tell us the latest news as he is our resident "News Anchor Man" but he didn't have much to say this time around!
- 6) The Hare of the Day, Money Manfred was then duly thanked for a good run and delicious food and for being able to swap dates with Iceman.
- 7) Just before the rain really started to bucket down we managed to get the September born Members together for our monthly birthday cake presentation. Fancy Pants and Fancy Panties on a return visit to Penang together with Richard were the only ones present and graciously blew out the candles to multi-lingual versions of Happy Birthday.

FUNNIES

A good looking man walked into an agent's office in Hollywood and said, "I want to be a movie star."

Tall, handsome, and with experience on Broadway, he had the right credentials. The agent asked, "What's your name?"

The guy said, "My name is Penis van Lesbian."

The agent said, "Sir, I hate to tell you, but in order to get into Hollywood, you are going to have to change your name."

"I will NOT change my name! The van Lesbian name is centuries old, I will not disrespect my grandfather by changing my name. Not ever."

The agent said, "Sir, I have worked in Hollywood for years...you will NEVER go far in Hollywood with a name like Penis van Lesbian! I'm telling you, you will HAVE TO change your name or I will not be able to represent you."

"So be it! I guess we will not do business together," the guy said and he left the agent's office.

FIVE YEARS LATER.....The agent opens an envelope sent to his office. Inside the envelope is a letter and a check for $50,000. The agent is awe-struck, who would possibly send him $50,000? He reads the letter enclosed...

Dear Sir,

Five years ago, I came into your office wanting to become an actor in Hollywood, you told me I needed to change my name. Determined to make it with my God-given birth name, I refused.

You told me I would never make it in Hollywood with a name like Penis van Lesbian. After I left your office, I thought about what you said. I decided you were right. I had to change my name. I had too much pride to return to your office, so I signed with another agent. I would never have made it without changing my name, so the enclosed check is a token of my appreciation.

Thank you for your advice.

Sincerely,

Dick van Dyke
