GM'S NOTE:

RUN SITE- THE QUARRY, BOTANICAL GARDENS

With Mike and co-hares, Alexis, Kathy and Christine out to set the run I could concentrate on the cooking!! The weather had turned hot and sunny after the early morning rain which was a boost and in the midst of cooking a friend dropped by and promptly set to work helping me with the seemingly never ending chappati making. By the time Mike got back the only thing left to cook was the veggies and that was soon done.

At the run-site there seemed to be only a smallish crowd of about 30 runners and I thought that perhaps I had cooked too much. However Mike said the "dinner club" hadn't yet arrived and to wait and see. How right he was!!

Anjalai had seen us doing a recce on the previous weekend and so knew where the On-In was and hence lead the pack as they went off the through the Gardens. A few late arrivals in Iceman, Longhair, Frank and Sai Seng turned up, got quickly changed and went off after receiving the run data.

The run was shorter than I expected as Money was first to return in about 45mins, sweating profusely from his exertions. However he really seemed to have enjoyed it and was complementary on the on up saying it's more than 20 years since he has done that. He was followed home by Tiny and a still fresh looking Iceman who came running up the slope. I thought he was going to go on and do a round of the quarry but he didn't this time!

Soon others were beginning to trickle in and the SCBs, who took the low path back around the waterfall and didn't do the climb, came back in good time. That is with the exception of Beauty Queen and Hugh who seemed to have taken a wrong turn somewhere. Goodness knows how!!

With darkness descending, wonder of wonders, the lights all came on and the backdrop was very picturesque with good visibility in which to serve the food. Then horror of horrors when we went to serve the food we found we had left the serving spoons on the kitchen table. A quick call to my son who then drove first to the Info centre, thinking we were there and then up to the quarry we were able to get the food going without too much delay.

More people had arrived over the preceding hour and around 50 people now had hungry appetites and soon ALL the food was gone. Here I must say a very big thank you to Sai Seng who very generously brought along a steamed dessert which was delicious and also was quickly finished off.

I normally say a thank you to the Hare or Bunny of the day but as it was my run I can't thank myself but I do thank Mike, Alexis, Kathy and Christine who went out to check and make sure all the paper was there for you all and of course I thank you all for coming to support me.

I am away for the next three Thursdays so any queries please direct to Beauty Queen who will be acting in my stead. Happy Hashing!

CIRCLE:

1. Our guests for the evening, Michelle from Ipoh, W'anchor and Horse were duly welcomed.
2. Michelle was then recalled and given a true hash welcome by having to SIT on the ice. This was a very new experience for her as it was her virgin hash. She thoroughly enjoyed it all and was hoping to find a hash at home that she could hash more frequently.
3. The GM then charged the On Sex with forgetting to put her picture in the birthday list in the newsletter. The On Sex responded that since her birthday was on the Friday it would be in this week's newsletter!!
4. Rajan, one of our newer members, wanted a hash name. After having him sit on the ice and be interviewed by the GM and the pack, he was give the name of Right Hand Drive, partly because of his business dealings (Used Cars) but also because, being Hash, someone wanted to know which hand he used for other things.....!!!!!!
5. This was the GM's birthday run and so out came the cake and the usual multi-lingual renditions of Happy Birthday and a special one from Akz hole.
6. The Bunny/GM was then thanked for a good run and great food.
7. The circle was then closed but was subsequently re-opened by the GM since she had forgotten to make a 300 run presentation to Ronnie Tour. Congratulations Ronnie.
8. No good deed goes unpunished and by admitting her mistake the GM was duly charged by Rough Rider for her forgetfulness.

With that the circle was closed once more and the evening's festivities continued until late.
